16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant : because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin :

21 <sup>1</sup> For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, <sup>m</sup> Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. <sup>n</sup> Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, <sup>o</sup> That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But these mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, <sup>p</sup> he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 <sup>q</sup> And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: <sup>r</sup> and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 <sup>s</sup> And as they went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, <sup>t</sup> Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: <sup>u</sup> peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, <sup>x</sup> the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and <sup>y</sup> wept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall <sup>z</sup> cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And <sup>a</sup> shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and <sup>b</sup> they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; <sup>c</sup> because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 ¶ <sup>d</sup> And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, <sup>e</sup> It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but <sup>f</sup> ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 ¶ And he taught daily in the temple. But <sup>g</sup> the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people <sup>h</sup> were very attentive to hear him.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

C H A P. XXII.

1 The chief priests and scribes conspire against Christ : 3 Judas covenanteth to betray him.

7 The apostles sent to prepare the passover : Christ eateth it with them ; 19 and instituteth his last supper : 21 he covertly pointeth out the traitor : 24 checketh the ambitious strife of his disciples, and promiseth them a share in his kingdom : 31 he telleth Peter of Satan's desire to sift him ; but that his faith should be supported ; and yet he should thrice deny him : 35 he adviseth his disciples to provide necessities and a sword : 39 his agony and prayer in the garden : 47 he is betrayed ; 50 bealeth a servant of the high priest, whose ear was cut off ; 54 is led to the high priest's house ; Peter thrice denieth him. 63 Christ is scornfully used ; 66 and brought before the council, where confessing himself to be the son of God, he is pronounced guilty of blasphemy.

NOW <sup>a</sup> the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And <sup>b</sup> the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him ; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ <sup>c</sup> Then entered Satan into Judas furnished Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and <sup>d</sup> covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them || in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ <sup>e</sup> Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare ?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water ; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples ?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished : there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them : and they made ready the passover.

14 <sup>f</sup> And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, || With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer :

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, <sup>g</sup> until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves :

18 For <sup>h</sup> I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ <sup>i</sup> And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you : <sup>j</sup> this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, <sup>k</sup> This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ <sup>l</sup> But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 <sup>m</sup> And truly the Son of man goeth, <sup>n</sup> as it was determined : but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed !

23 <sup>o</sup> And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ <sup>p</sup> And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 <sup>q</sup> And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them ; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

27 <sup>a</sup> For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but <sup>a</sup> I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in <sup>a</sup> my temptations.

29 And <sup>a</sup> I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That <sup>a</sup> ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, <sup>b</sup> and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, <sup>a</sup> Satan hath desired to have you, that he may <sup>a</sup> sift you as wheat:

32 But <sup>a</sup> I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: <sup>a</sup> and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 <sup>a</sup> And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ <sup>a</sup> And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, <sup>a</sup> And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ <sup>a</sup> And he came out, and <sup>a</sup> went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 <sup>a</sup> And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 <sup>a</sup> And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be <sup>a</sup> willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless <sup>a</sup> not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared <sup>a</sup> an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 <sup>a</sup> And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, <sup>a</sup> behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And <sup>a</sup> one of them smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: <sup>a</sup> but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. <sup>a</sup> And Peter followed afar off.

55 <sup>a</sup> And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 <sup>a</sup> And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 <sup>a</sup> And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. <sup>a</sup> And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, <sup>a</sup> Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him,

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, who sendeth him to Herod. 8 Herod disappointed in his expectations mocketh him, and sendeth him back.

12 Herod and Pilate are made friends. 13 Pilate, willing to release Jesus, is prevailed on by the clamours of the people to release Barabbas, and give Jesus to be crucified. 26 Being led to the place of execution, Jesus biddeth the women who lamented him to weep rather for themselves and their children: 32 he is crucified between two malefactors: 34 prayeth for his enemies; 35 is scoffed at; 39 reviled by one of the malefactors, but confessed by the other, to whom he promiseth a place in paradise. 44 The unusual darkness, and rending of the veil of the temple: 46 Christ crieth unto God, and exireth: 47 the centurion's confession of him. 50 Joseph of Arimathea beggeth his body, and burieth it. 55 The women prepare spices against the end of the sabbath.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again:

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 ¶ Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

The Gospel according to S. JOHN.

C H A P. I.

1 The divinity of Christ. 6 The mission of John, and end of Christ's coming. 14 The incarnation of the Word. 15 Christ's superior dignity witnessed by John, and evinced by his gracious dispensation. 19 John's record of himself to the messengers of the Jews: 29 His public testimony to the person of Christ: 35 Two of his disciples bearing it follow Jesus: Simon is brought to Christ, and surnamed Cephas. 43 Philip is called, who bringeth Nathanael to Jesus.

IN the beginning<sup>a</sup> was the Word, and the Word was<sup>b</sup> with God, <sup>c</sup> and the Word was God.

2<sup>d</sup> The same was in the beginning with God.

3<sup>e</sup> All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4<sup>f</sup> In him was life; and<sup>g</sup> the life was the light of men.

5 And<sup>h</sup> the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7<sup>k</sup> The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9<sup>l</sup> That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and<sup>m</sup> the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11<sup>n</sup> He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But<sup>o</sup> as many as received him, to them gave he<sup>p</sup> power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13<sup>q</sup> Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 ¶ And the Word<sup>r</sup> was made<sup>s</sup> flesh, and dwelt among us, (and<sup>t</sup> we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) <sup>u</sup> full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake; <sup>v</sup> He that cometh after me is preferred before me: <sup>w</sup> for he was before me.

16 And of his<sup>x</sup> fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For<sup>y</sup> the law was given by Moses, but<sup>z</sup> grace and<sup>a</sup> truth came by Jesus Christ.

18<sup>b</sup> No man hath seen God at any time; <sup>c</sup> the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is<sup>d</sup> the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And<sup>e</sup> he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou<sup>f</sup> Elias? And he saith, I am not.

That was two hours before night.

Art thou <sup>1</sup> || that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 * He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as <sup>1</sup> said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, <sup>m</sup> I baptize with water: <sup>n</sup> but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 <sup>o</sup> He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done <sup>p</sup> in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold <sup>q</sup> the Lamb of God, <sup>r</sup> which || taketh away the sin of the world.

30 <sup>s</sup> This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, <sup>t</sup> therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 <sup>u</sup> And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, <sup>v</sup> the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, * Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where || dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was || about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John Speak, and followed him, was <sup>w</sup> Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, || the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: <sup>x</sup> thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, || A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now <sup>y</sup> Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth <sup>z</sup> Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom <sup>a</sup> Moses in the law, and the <sup>b</sup> prophets, did write, Jesus <sup>c</sup> of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, <sup>d</sup> Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold <sup>e</sup> an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, <sup>f</sup> thou art the Son of God; thou art <sup>g</sup> the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>h</sup> Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

1 Christ turneth water into wine in Cana of Galilee: 12 he goeth to Capernaum; 13 thence to Jerusalem, where he driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple: 18 he giveth his own death and resurrection for a sign: 23 Many believe in him because of his miracles, but he would not trust himself unto them.

AND the third day there was a marriage in <sup>i</sup> Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, <sup>b</sup> Woman, <sup>c</sup> what have I to do with thee? <sup>d</sup> mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, <sup>e</sup> after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted <sup>f</sup> the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, <sup>g</sup> and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and <sup>h</sup> his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, 14 <sup>i</sup> And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not <sup>j</sup> my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, <sup>m</sup> The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, <sup>n</sup> What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, <sup>o</sup> Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake <sup>p</sup> of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, <sup>q</sup> his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture; and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for <sup>r</sup> he knew what was in man.

C H A P. III.

1 Christ in a conference with Nicodemus teacheth him the necessity of regeneration; 14 the efficacy of faith in his death; 16 God's great love to mankind in sending his son for their salvation; 18 and the condemnation for unbelief. 22 Jesus baptizeth in Judea, 23 as doth John in Aenon. 25 John's doctrine concerning Christ.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 <sup>a</sup> The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for <sup>b</sup> no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except <sup>c</sup> God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, <sup>d</sup> Except a man be born || again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, <sup>e</sup> Except a man be born of water and <sup>f</sup> of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born || again.

8 <sup>g</sup> The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, <sup>h</sup> How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 <sup>i</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and <sup>j</sup> ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And <sup>no</sup> man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so <sup>must</sup> the Son of man be lifted up;

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but <sup>have</sup> eternal life.

16 ¶ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, <sup>that</sup> light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For <sup>every</sup> one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be <sup>reproved</sup>.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, <sup>and</sup> baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to <sup>Salim</sup>, because there was much water there: <sup>and</sup> they came, and were baptized.

24 For <sup>John</sup> was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, <sup>to</sup> whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, <sup>A</sup> man can <sup>receive</sup> nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, <sup>I</sup> am not the Christ, but <sup>that</sup> I am sent before him.

29 <sup>He</sup> that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but <sup>the</sup> friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: <sup>this</sup> my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 <sup>He</sup> that cometh from above <sup>is</sup> above all: <sup>he</sup> that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: <sup>he</sup> that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And <sup>what</sup> he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony <sup>hath</sup> set to his seal that God is true.

34 <sup>For</sup> he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit <sup>by</sup> measure unto him.

35 <sup>The</sup> Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 <sup>He</sup> that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAP. IV.

Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria, and revealeth himself unto her: 27 his disciples marvel; the woman calleth the men of her city to see him: 31 Christ sheweth his own zeal to do God's work, and the blessedness of his disciples, who were to reap the fruit of his labours. 39 Many Samaritans believe on him. 43 He goeth into Galilee, and healeth a nobleman's son who lay sick at Capernaum.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and <sup>baptized</sup> more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground <sup>that</sup> Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for <sup>the</sup> Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee <sup>a</sup> living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But <sup>a</sup> whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him <sup>a</sup> shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 <sup>a</sup> The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, <sup>b</sup> I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in <sup>c</sup> this mountain; and ye say, that in <sup>c</sup> Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

22 Ye worship <sup>e</sup> ye know not what: we know what we worship: for <sup>e</sup> salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in <sup>f</sup> spirit <sup>f</sup> and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 <sup>g</sup> God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship <sup>g</sup> him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, <sup>h</sup> he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, <sup>i</sup> I that speak unto thee am <sup>i</sup> he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man, <sup>j</sup> which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him <sup>k</sup> ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, <sup>l</sup> My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months; and <sup>m</sup> then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; <sup>n</sup> for they are white already to harvest.

36 <sup>n</sup> And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him <sup>o</sup> for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for <sup>p</sup> we have heard <sup>p</sup> him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For <sup>q</sup> Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, <sup>r</sup> having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: <sup>s</sup> for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, <sup>t</sup> where he made the water wine. And there was a certain <sup>t</sup> nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son : for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, ' Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way ; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth : and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

1 Christ cureth an impotent man at the pool of Bethesda on the sabbath day : 10 the Jews cavil, and persecute him for it ; 17 he justifieth himself by the example of God his Father : 19 and asserteth the power and judgment committed unto him by the Father : 31 he appealeth to the testimony of John, 36 of the Father, 39 and of the scriptures : 41 he sheweth that his humility caused their rejection of him ; 45 but that in disbelieving him they disbelieved Moses also.

AFTER * this there was a feast of the Jews ; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem * by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water : whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole ?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir,

I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool : but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, ' Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked : and <sup>4</sup> on the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day : * it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk ?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was : for Jesus had conveyed himself away, || a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole : † sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, † My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews <sup>b</sup> sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, † making himself equal with God.

19 ¶ Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>k</sup> The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do : for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For † the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth : and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them ; <sup>m</sup> even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but <sup>n</sup> hath committed all judgment unto the Son :

<sup>o</sup> 23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. <sup>o</sup> He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

<sup>p</sup> 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and (shall not come into condemnation; <sup>a</sup> but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when <sup>r</sup> the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And <sup>a</sup> hath given him authority to execute judgment also, <sup>r</sup> because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the (graves shall hear his voice, 29 <sup>a</sup> And shall come forth; <sup>a</sup> they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 <sup>r</sup> I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because <sup>a</sup> I seek not mine own will; but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 ¶ <sup>a</sup> If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 <sup>b</sup> There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, <sup>c</sup> and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a <sup>a</sup> burning and <sup>a</sup> a shining light: and <sup>c</sup> ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But <sup>r</sup> I have greater witness than that of John: for <sup>a</sup> the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, <sup>b</sup> hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, <sup>r</sup> nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ¶ <sup>a</sup> Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and <sup>r</sup> they are they which testify of me.

40 <sup>m</sup> And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 ¶ <sup>a</sup> I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 <sup>a</sup> How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not <sup>r</sup> the honour that cometh from God only?

45 ¶ Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: <sup>a</sup> there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses; ye would have believed me: <sup>r</sup> for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

C H A P. VI.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes: 15 he withdraweth himself from the people, who would have made him a king, and walketh on the sea: 22 the multitude flocking to him, he reproveth their carnal views, and requireth their faith in him whom God had sent. 30 They ask a sign like that of the manna in the wilderness; he declareth himself to be the bread of life from heaven, and that none can live but by eating his flesh and drinking his blood. 60 Many of his disciples taking offence thereat, he sheweth his meaning to be spiritual. 66 Many leaving him, Peter in the name of the twelve professeth stedfast faith in him; Jesus pronounceth one of them to be a devil.

AFTER <sup>a</sup> these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 <sup>b</sup> And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 <sup>c</sup> When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, <sup>d</sup> Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: <sup>e</sup> but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth <sup>f</sup> that prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 ¶ Labour not for the meat which perissheth, but <sup>b</sup> for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: <sup>1</sup> for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, <sup>a</sup> This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 ¶ They said therefore unto him, 'What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 <sup>m</sup> Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, <sup>n</sup> He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 ¶ Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, <sup>p</sup> I am the bread of life: <sup>q</sup> he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 ¶ But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 <sup>r</sup> All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and <sup>s</sup> him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, <sup>t</sup> not to do mine own will, <sup>u</sup> but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, <sup>v</sup> that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, <sup>w</sup> that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, <sup>x</sup> Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 <sup>y</sup> No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 <sup>z</sup> It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. <sup>a</sup> Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

ther, ' save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ' He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 <sup>h</sup> I am that bread of life.

49 <sup>i</sup> Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 <sup>k</sup> This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread <sup>l</sup> which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and <sup>m</sup> the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore <sup>n</sup> strove among themselves, saying, ' How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except <sup>p</sup> ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 <sup>q</sup> Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, <sup>r</sup> dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 <sup>s</sup> This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.)

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 ¶ Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 <sup>t</sup> What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 ¶ It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I <sup>u</sup> speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But <sup>v</sup> there are some of you that believe not. For <sup>z</sup> Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore <sup>a</sup> said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except <sup>b</sup> it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast <sup>c</sup> the words of eternal life.

69 <sup>d</sup> And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, ' Have not I chosen you twelve, <sup>e</sup> and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

C H A P. VII.

1 Jesus, exhorted by his unbelieving kinsmen to shew himself at Jerusalem at the feast of tabernacles, refuseth, but afterward goeth up in secret. 11 The Jews seek him, and differ in their sentiments of him. 14 He teacheth in the temple; 30 some are ready to lay hands on him, others believe; the rulers send officers to apprehend him. 33 Christ foretelleth his departure to the Father, and promiseteth the Holy Spirit to believers. 40 Divers opinions concerning him. 45 The officers struck with his discourse return without him, and are rebuked by the Pharisees, who chide with Nicodemus for taking his part.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, <sup>a</sup> because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 <sup>b</sup> Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 <sup>c</sup> His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For <sup>d</sup> neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, <sup>e</sup> My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 <sup>f</sup> The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, <sup>g</sup> because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; <sup>h</sup> for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 ¶ Then <sup>i</sup> the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And <sup>k</sup> there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for <sup>l</sup> some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him <sup>m</sup> for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 <sup>n</sup> And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man <sup>o</sup> letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, <sup>p</sup> My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 <sup>q</sup> If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 <sup>r</sup> He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 <sup>s</sup> Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, 'Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?'

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 <sup>t</sup> Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, <sup>u</sup> but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, <sup>v</sup> that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because <sup>w</sup> I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 <sup>x</sup> Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. <sup>y</sup> Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 <sup>z</sup> Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, <sup>aa</sup> Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and <sup>ab</sup> I am not come of myself, but he that sent me <sup>ac</sup> is true, <sup>ad</sup> whom ye know not.

29 But <sup>ae</sup> I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 ¶ Then <sup>af</sup> they sought to take him: but <sup>ag</sup> no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And <sup>ah</sup> many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 ¶ Then said Jesus unto them, <sup>ai</sup> Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye <sup>aj</sup> shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto <sup>ak</sup> the dispersed among the <sup>al</sup> Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 <sup>am</sup> In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, <sup>an</sup> If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 <sup>ao</sup> He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, <sup>ap</sup> out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (<sup>aq</sup> But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet <sup>ar</sup> glorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is <sup>as</sup> the Prophet.

41 Others said, <sup>at</sup> This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come <sup>au</sup> out of Galilee?

42 <sup>av</sup> Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, <sup>aw</sup> where David was?

43 So <sup>ax</sup> there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And <sup>ay</sup> some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 <sup>ba</sup> Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (<sup>bb</sup> he that came <sup>bc</sup> to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 <sup>bd</sup> Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for <sup>be</sup> out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ letteth go uncondemned the woman taken in adultery: 12 he declareth himself to be the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine against the Pharisees: 31 he promiseth freedom through knowledge of the truth to those Jews who believed on him: 33 confuteth their vain boast of being Abraham's seed, and the children of God: 48 answereth their reviling by shewing his authority and dignity; 59 and by miracle rescueth himself from their attempts to stone him.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives. 2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, 4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 ¶ Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to

C H A P. IX.

1 A man that was born blind receiveth sight : 8 he relateth to his neighbours the means of his cure :

13 he is brought to the Pharisees, who examine strictly into the fact, and are offended with his acknowledgment of the divine mission of the author : 34 they excommunicate him : 35 he is received of Jesus, and confesseth him : 39 Christ taxeth the Pharisees with spiritual blindness.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, ° who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind ?

P ver. 6, 7.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, <sup>a</sup> A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said,

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, <sup>1</sup> He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because <sup>a</sup> they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he <sup>a</sup> should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, <sup>a</sup> Give God the praise: <sup>a</sup> we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, <sup>a</sup> we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, <sup>a</sup> Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that <sup>a</sup> God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 <sup>a</sup> If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 ¶ They answered and said unto him, <sup>a</sup> Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they <sup>a</sup> cast him out.

35 ¶ Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on <sup>a</sup> the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and <sup>a</sup> it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, <sup>a</sup> For judgment I am come into this world, <sup>a</sup> that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, <sup>a</sup> and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, <sup>a</sup> If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (* It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, <sup>d</sup> he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, * the Jews of late fought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? <sup>f</sup> If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But <sup>g</sup> if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus <sup>h</sup> sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, <sup>i</sup> about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, <sup>j</sup> whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, <sup>k</sup> I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am <sup>l</sup> the resurrection, and the <sup>m</sup> life: <sup>n</sup> he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: <sup>o</sup> I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 <sup>p</sup> The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, <sup>q</sup> Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and <sup>r</sup> was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 <sup>s</sup> Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, <sup>t</sup> which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone, Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

46 <sup>1</sup> I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, <sup>1</sup> I judge him not: for <sup>1</sup> I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 <sup>1</sup> He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: <sup>1</sup> the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For <sup>1</sup> I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, <sup>1</sup> what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

when Jesus knew that<sup>b</sup> his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, <sup>c</sup> the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing<sup>d</sup> that the Father had given all things into his hands, and<sup>e</sup> that he was come from God, and went to God;

4<sup>f</sup> He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter said unto him, Lord, <sup>g</sup> dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him,
What I do thou knowest not now; <sup>h</sup> but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, <sup>i</sup> if I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and <sup>k</sup> ye are clean, but not all.

11 For<sup>l</sup> he knew who should betray him;
therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13<sup>m</sup> Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14<sup>n</sup> If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; <sup>o</sup> ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For<sup>p</sup> I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16<sup>q</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17<sup>r</sup> If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18<sup>s</sup> ¶ I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, <sup>t</sup> He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19<sup>u</sup> ¶ Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20<sup>v</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiv-eth me; and he that receiveth me receiv-eth him that sent me.

21<sup>w</sup> When Jesus had thus said, <sup>x</sup> he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that<sup>y</sup> one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now<sup>z</sup> there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. ¶ Or,
And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27<sup>aa</sup> And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because <sup>ab</sup> Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out,
Jesus said, <sup>ac</sup> Now is the Son of man glorified, and<sup>ad</sup> God is glorified in him.

32<sup>ae</sup> If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and <sup>af</sup> shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: <sup>ag</sup> and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34<sup>ah</sup> A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35<sup>ai</sup> By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but<sup>aj</sup> thou shalt follow me afterwards.

13 <sup>p</sup> And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ <sup>q</sup> If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and <sup>r</sup> he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even <sup>s</sup> the Spirit of truth; <sup>t</sup> whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, <sup>u</sup> and shall be in you.

18 <sup>v</sup> I will not leave you || comfortless: <sup>w</sup> I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but <sup>x</sup> ye see me: <sup>y</sup> because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that <sup>z</sup> I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 <sup>a</sup> He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 <sup>b</sup> Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, <sup>c</sup> If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, <sup>d</sup> and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and <sup>e</sup> the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But <sup>f</sup> the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, <sup>g</sup> he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 ¶ <sup>h</sup> Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. <sup>i</sup> Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how <sup>j</sup> I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, <sup>k</sup> I go unto the Father: for <sup>l</sup> my Father is greater than I.

29 And <sup>m</sup> now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: <sup>n</sup> for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and <sup>o</sup> as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

C H A P. XV.

1 Under the parable of a vine Christ setteth forth God's government of his church, and exhorteth his disciples to abide in his faith and doctrine: 12 he commandeth them to love one another, according to the great love he had shewed for them: 18 forewarneth them of the hatred and persecution of the world: 26 and telleth them of the testimony which the Holy Ghost, and they also, should bear to him.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the world might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Christ warneth his disciples of their sufferings for his sake: 5 he comforteth them by a promise of the Holy Ghost: 16 he intimateth his death, resurrection, and ascension, telling them that their sorrow should soon be succeeded by joy, and that their prayers in his name would be accepted of the Father: 29 his disciples confess their faith in him; he foretelleth their desertion of him, and promiseth them peace in him amidst their tribulation in the world.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 ¶ But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shew it unto you.

16 ¶ A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come:

but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name; and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 ¶ His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him; 6 and to preserve his apostles in unity of faith, 15 and from all evil; 17 and to sanctify them with the word of truth: 20 and for the perfect union of all believers, and their admission to a share of his glory in heaven.

THESE words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And <sup>a</sup> this is life eternal, that they might know thee <sup>e</sup> the only true God, and Jesus Christ, <sup>f</sup> whom thou hast sent.

4 <sup>g</sup> I have glorified thee on the earth : <sup>h</sup> I have finished the work <sup>i</sup> which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory <sup>k</sup> which I had with thee before the world was.

6 ¶ <sup>l</sup> I have manifested thy name unto the men <sup>m</sup> which thou gavest me out of the world : thine they were, and thou gavest them me ; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words <sup>n</sup> which thou gavest me ; and they have received <sup>o</sup> them, <sup>p</sup> and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them : <sup>q</sup> I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me ; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and <sup>r</sup> thine are mine ; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, <sup>s</sup> keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, <sup>t</sup> that they may be one, <sup>u</sup> as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, <sup>v</sup> I kept them in thy name : those that thou gavest me I have kept, and <sup>w</sup> none of them is lost, <sup>x</sup> but the son of perdition ; <sup>y</sup> that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee ; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 <sup>z</sup> I have given them thy word ; <sup>a</sup> and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, <sup>b</sup> even as I am not of the world.

15 ¶ I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but <sup>c</sup> that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 <sup>d</sup> They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

18 <sup>g</sup> As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And <sup>h</sup> for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be <sup>i</sup> sanctified through the truth.

20 ¶ Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word ;

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus : the officers and soldiers at Christ's word fall to the ground : 10 Peter cutteth off Malchus' ear : 12 Jesus is led bound to Annas and Caiaphas : 15 Peter denieth him : 19 Jesus is examined by the high priest, and struck by one of the officers : 25 Peter denieth him the second and third time : 28 Jesus brought before Pilate, and examined, confesseth his kingdom not to be of this world : Pilate testifying his innocence, and offering to release him, the Jews prefer Barabbas.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, <sup>a</sup> he went forth with his disciples over <sup>b</sup> the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place : <sup>c</sup> for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 <sup>d</sup> Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye ?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. -

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and <sup>7</sup> reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: <sup>5</sup> blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ <sup>3</sup> And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 <sup>7</sup> But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; <sup>2</sup> and that believing ye might have life through his name.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias, and maketh himself known by a great draught of fishes: 12 he eateth before them: 15 he thrice repeateth his charge to Peter to feed his flock; foretelleth the manner of his death; and rebuketh his curiosity concerning

John. 24 John asserteth the truth of his testimony, and that Jesus did many acts besides, too numerous to be recorded.

Anno DOMINI 33.

AFTER these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and <sup>a</sup> Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and <sup>b</sup> the son of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

 ¶ Or, Sirs.

6 And he said unto them, <sup>e</sup> Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore <sup>f</sup> that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 ¶ Jesus saith unto them, <sup>g</sup> Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now <sup>h</sup> the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, <sup>f</sup> which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, <sup>g</sup> which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For <sup>h</sup> he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of <sup>i</sup> this ministry.

18 <sup>k</sup> Now this man purchased a field with <sup>l</sup> the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; infomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, <sup>m</sup> Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and <sup>n</sup> his <sup>o</sup> bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 <sup>p</sup> Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that <sup>q</sup> he was taken up from us, must one be ordained <sup>r</sup> to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called <sup>s</sup> Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, <sup>t</sup> which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 <sup>u</sup> That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAP. II.

1 The descent of the Holy Ghost upon the apostles on the day of Pentecost: they speak divers languages to the general amazement, but some deride them. 14 Peter sheweth that the inspiration spoken of by Joel was now fulfilled; that Jesus, whom they had crucified, was now risen from the dead, and ascended into heaven, according to David's predictions, and had shed forth the promise of the holy Spirit in full proof of his being the Messiah. 37 A great number are converted by Peter's preaching; 41 who, being baptized, converse devoutly and charitably together, the apostles working many miracles, and God daily increasing the church.

AND when <sup>a</sup> the day of Pentecost was fully come, <sup>b</sup> they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and <sup>c</sup> it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And <sup>d</sup> they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began <sup>e</sup> to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now <sup>f</sup> when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were <sup>g</sup> confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak <sup>h</sup> Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, <sup>i</sup> seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 <sup>j</sup> And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, <sup>k</sup> I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

1 The lame man healed by Peter and John: 12 Peter declareth to the people that this cure was not wrought by any power or holiness in himself or John, but by the power of God through faith in the name of Jesus, whom they had ignorantly crucified, but whom God had raised from the dead according to the scriptures; and exhorteth them by faith to seek remission of sins and salvation in Jesus, whose coming had been spoken of by Moses and all the prophets.

NOW Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

John 9. 8.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

C H A P. IV.

1 The rulers of the Jews, offended with the teaching of Peter and John, imprison them. 5 Being brought before the council, Peter boldly avoucheth the late cure to have been wrought in the name of Jesus, and that men can be saved by no other name. 13 The council, struck with the boldness of the two apostles, after conferring together dismiss them with a threatening charge to speak no more in the name of Jesus. 23 The church betaketh itself to prayer. 31 The presence of the Holy Ghost is signified by the house shaking, and the Apostles thereby emboldened to speak the word; 32 The unity and charity of the church, who have their possessions in common.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, 2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, 6 And <sup>b</sup> Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, ' By what power, or by what name, have ye done this ?

8 <sup>d</sup> Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole ;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, ' that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, ' whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 <sup>e</sup> This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 <sup>h</sup> Neither is there salvation in any other : for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, <sup>i</sup> and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled ; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed <sup>k</sup> standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, ' What shall we do to these men ? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them <sup>m</sup> is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem ; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 <sup>n</sup> And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, ' Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 <sup>p</sup> For we cannot but speak the things which <sup>q</sup> we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, ' because of the people : for all men glorified God for ' that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, ' they went to <sup>r</sup> their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, ' thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is :

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, ' Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things ?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For ' of a truth against ' thy holy child Jesus, ' whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, 28 <sup>s</sup> For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings : and grant unto thy servants, ' that with all boldness they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal ; <sup>t</sup> and that signs and wonders may be done ' by the name of ' thy holy child Jesus.

31 ¶ And when they had prayed, ' the place was shaken where they were assembled together ; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, <sup>u</sup> and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed <sup>v</sup> were of one heart and of one soul : ' neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own ; but they had all things common.

33 And with <sup>w</sup> great power gave the apostles ' witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus : and <sup>x</sup> great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked : ' for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 <sup>y</sup> And laid them down at the apostles' feet : ' and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 ' Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

C H A P. V.

1 Ananias and Sapphira, profanely tempting the Holy Ghost with a lie, at Peter's rebuke fall down dead. 12 The apostles work many miracles to the great increase of the faith. 17 They are all imprisoned, but released by an angel, and sent to preach openly in the temple: being brought before the council, 29 they support their witness with great freedom. 33 The council are restrained from killing them by the advice of Gamaliel, but beat and dismiss them with a charge not to speak in the name of Jesus. 41 They rejoice in their sufferings, and cease not to preach Christ both in publick and private.

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart || to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits; and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, 18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

AND in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 ¶ And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 ¶ And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 ¶ Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

and Jacob with his family went down into Egypt; 17 how, when they were oppressed by the Egyptians, Moses was born, and sent to deliver Israel out of Egypt; 37 that this same Moses witnessed of Christ, received the law, and experienced the disobedience and idolatry of their forefathers; 44 who had the tabernacle of witness, till Solomon built the temple; 51 he reproacheth his bearers with imitating their father's rebellion against God, and persecution of his prophets, by having themselves murdered Christ, and transgressed the law they had received. 54 Stung with the reproach, they stone him, looking up with faith unto God, and calling upon Jesus to receive his soul, and forgive his persecutors.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 ¶ And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, 16 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, "I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, "A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, 40 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, "O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

46 Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon built him an house.

48 Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

2 Mark 16. 17.
7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

1 ch. 5. 36.
9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with forceries.

1 ch. 2. 3.
12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

† Gr. signs and great miracles.
14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

1 ch. 2. 38. 2 ch. 19. 2. 2 Matth. 28. 19.
15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

ch. 2. 38. 2 ch. 10. 48. & 19. 5.
16 For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

2 ch. 6. 6. & 19. 6.
Hebr. 6. 2.
17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 ¶ And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 ¶ And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

C H A P. IX.

1 Saul going toward Damascus is encompassed with a light from heaven, falleth to the earth, is called by Christ, and led blind to Damascus.

10 Ananias is sent to him, by whom he is restored to sight, and baptized: he straightway preacheth Christ boldly. 23 The Jews of Damascus seek to kill him; 26 he goeth to Jerusalem, and is brought to the apostles by Barnabas; preaching boldly against the Grecians, he is again in danger of his life, and is sent to Tarsus. 31 The church bath rest, and is multiplied. 32 Peter cureth Eneas of the palsy at Lydda; 36 and raiseth Tabitha to life at Joppa.

AND * Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And * as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, * why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: * it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, * what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And * the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, * named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul * of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, * how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all * that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for * he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before * the Gentiles, and * kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For * I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 * And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and * putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and * be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. * Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, * that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; * Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, * and confounded the Jews which dwelt at

1. Cornelius, a devout centurion, being commanded by an angel, sendeth for Peter; 9 who in the mean time is prepared by an heavenly vision: 17 and, receiving a command from the Spirit, goeth with the messengers to Cesarea. 25 Cornelius receiveth him with great respect, and sheweth the occasion of his sending for him. 34 Peter preacheth Christ to him and his company: 44 the Holy Ghost falleth on them, whereupon they are baptized.

THERE was a certain man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

C H A P. XI.

1 Peter, being accused for conversing with the Gentiles, maketh his defence; the church is satisfied, and glorifieth God. 19 The gospel having spread as far as Phenice, Cyprus, and Antioch, 22 Barnabas is sent thither, who fetcheth Saul from Tarsus; many people are taught at Antioch, where the disciples are first called Christians. 27 Agabus prophesieth a dearth; the disciples send relief from Antioch to the brethren in Judea by Barnabas and Saul.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And the spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shalt be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

C H A P. XII.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter, who upon the prayers of the church is delivered by an angel.
20 Herod, in his pride assuming the glory due to God, is smitten by an angel, and dieth miserably.
24 After his death the word of God prospereth.
25 Barnabas and Saul return to Antioch.

¶ Or, began.

NOW about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. Then were the days of unleavened bread.

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers, to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 ¶ And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Barnabas and Saul, being set apart with fasting and prayer, are sent forth by the Holy Ghost to the work of their calling. 6 At Paphos Elymas the sorcerer opposing the gospel is smitten with blindness, and the deputy Sergius Paulus converted to the faith. 13 Paul and his company come to Antioch in Pisidia: Paul preacheth Christ, and the necessity of faith in him unto justification. 42 The Gentiles desire to hear the word again: many are converted. 44 The envious Jews gainsay and blaspheme: the apostles profess to turn to the Gentiles, of whom many believe. 50 The Jews raise a persecution, and expel Paul and Barnabas, who go to Iconium.

NOW there were <sup>a</sup> in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as <sup>b</sup> Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and <sup>c</sup> Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, <sup>d</sup> which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, <sup>e</sup> Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work <sup>f</sup> whereunto I have called them.

3 And <sup>g</sup> when they had fasted and prayed, and laid <sup>h</sup> their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they being sent forth by the Holy Ghost departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to <sup>i</sup> Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, <sup>j</sup> they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to <sup>k</sup> their minister.

6 ¶ And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found <sup>l</sup> a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But <sup>m</sup> Elymas the sorcerer, (for so is his name by interpretation,) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) <sup>n</sup> filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, <sup>o</sup> thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, <sup>p</sup> the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 ¶ Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and <sup>q</sup> John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and <sup>r</sup> went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And <sup>s</sup> after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have <sup>t</sup> any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and <sup>u</sup> beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and <sup>v</sup> ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel <sup>w</sup> chose our fathers, and exalted the people <sup>x</sup> when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, <sup>y</sup> and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And <sup>z</sup> about the time of forty years <sup>aa</sup> suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when <sup>ab</sup> he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, <sup>ac</sup> he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that <sup>ad</sup> he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, <sup>ae</sup> until Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And <sup>af</sup> when he had removed him, <sup>ag</sup> he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, <sup>ah</sup> I have found David the son of Jesse, <sup>ai</sup> a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

24 <sup>am</sup> When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and * spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, * It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you : but * seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, * we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, * I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium by the malice of the unbelieving Jews. 8 At Lystra they heal an impotent man, and refuse divine honours with abhorrence. 19 Paul is stoned at the instigation of the Jews, but escapeth alive with Barnabas to Derbe. 21 Having passed through divers places, and confirmed the churches in faith and patience, they return to Antioch, and give an account of their ministry.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, * which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

vided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 ¶ And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

C H A P. XV.

1 Great diffensions arise about circumcising the Gentiles: Paul and Barnabas are sent to consult the apostles and elders at Jerusalem. 5 The matter is debated in a council there; 7 Peter declareth his opinion: 12 Paul and Barnabas report the miracles they had wrought among the Gentiles. 13 James pronounceth sentence in favour of the Gentiles, requiring of them abstinence only in a few particulars. 22 Letters are sent with the determination by messengers to the churches, which are received with joy. 36 Paul and Barnabas propose to visit together the churches they had planted, but disagree, and travel different ways.

AND certain men which came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small diffension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul preaching in the synagogue at Thessalonica, some believe, both Jews and Greeks. 5 The unbelieving Jews raise an uproar. 10 Paul and Silas are sent to Berea: the Berean Jews are commended for searching the scriptures.

13 The Jews of Thessalonica follow and drive Paul from Berea. 16 At Athens Paul disputing is carried before the court of Areopagus: 22 he preacheth the living God, to the Athenians unknown; his general call to repentance; the resurrection of Christ; and his coming to judgment. 32 Some mock, others believe.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alledging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and comforted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 ¶ But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this || babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto || Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of || Mars hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your || devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 ° God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is ° Lord of heaven and earth, ° dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, ° as though he needed any thing, seeing ° he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and ° the bounds of their habitation;

27 ° That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, ° though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For ° in him we live, and move, and have our being; ° as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, ° we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And ° the times of this ignorance God winked at; but ° now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which ° he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath || given assurance unto all men, in that ° he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Paul worketh for his subsistence, and preacheth Christ at Corinth, first to the Jews, and, upon their opposing and blaspheming, to the Gentiles with more success: 9 he is encouraged by the Lord in a vision, and abideth there a long time. 12 The Jews accuse him before Gallio the deputy, who will have nothing to do with them. 18 Paul passeth from city to city, confirming the disciples. 24 Apollos, instructed more perfectly in the Christian doctrine by Aquila and Priscilla, preacheth it at Ephesus, and afterward in Achaia, with great efficacy.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named ° Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, ° and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 ° And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And ° when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was ° pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus || was Christ.

6 And ° when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, ° he shook his raiment, and said unto them, ° Your blood be upon your own heads; ° I am clean: ° from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 ° And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 ¶ Then ° spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 ° For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he ° continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddesses.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

1 Paul journeying to Jerusalem calleth at the house of Philip the evangelist, whose four daughters prophesied. 10 Agabus foretelling what should befall him at Jerusalem, he will not be dissuaded from going thither. 17 Arriving at Jerusalem, he is persuaded to purify himself in the temple, 27 where he is set upon by the Jews of Asia, and in danger of losing his life in an uproar, but is rescued by the chief captain, and carried to the castle in chains; 37 he requesteth, and is permitted, to speak to the people.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

6 And <sup>a</sup> it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And <sup>a</sup> they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, °having a good report of all the ° Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, ° The God of our fathers ° hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and ° see ° that Just One, and ° shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 ° For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of ° what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, ° and wash away thy sins, ° calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And ° it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And ° saw him saying unto me, ° Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, ° they know that I imprisoned and ° beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 ° And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and ° consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: ° for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, ° Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that ° he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 ¶ And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 ¶ On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 Paul pleading his integrity is smitten at the command of the high priest, whom he reproveth of injustice. 6 By declaring himself a Pharisee, and questioned for the hope of the resurrection, he causeth a division in the council: 10 he is carried back to the castle, and encouraged by the Lord in a vision. 12 A conspiracy against him is discovered to the chief captain; 23 who sendeth him under a guard with a letter to Felix the governor at Cesarea.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, ° I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him ° to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and ° commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, ° I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, ° Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 ¶ But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, ° I am a Pharisee, the Son of a Pharisee: ° of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 ° For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, ° We find no evil in this man: but ° if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, ° let us not fight against God.

10 ¶ And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And <sup>in</sup> the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 ¶ And when it was day, <sup>a</sup> certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves || under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, <sup>o</sup> The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 ¶ And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cefarea, and horsemen three-score and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lyfias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 <sup>b</sup> This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 <sup>a</sup> And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused <sup>c</sup> of questions of their law, <sup>d</sup> but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And <sup>e</sup> when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and <sup>f</sup> gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewel.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Cefarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of <sup>g</sup> Cilicia;

35 <sup>h</sup> I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in <sup>i</sup> Herod's judgment hall.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Paul is accused before Felix by Tertullus in the name of the Jews: 10 he answereth in defence of his life and doctrine. 22 The bearing is deferred. 24 Paul preaching freely before the governor and his wife, Felix trembleth. 26 Felix hopeth for a bribe to release Paul, but in vain; and going out of his office leaveth him bound.

AND after <sup>a</sup> five days <sup>b</sup> Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in *a*l places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

7 But the chief captain Lyfias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, 9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

<sup>A. D. 53.</sup> <sup>Felix made procurator over Judea.</sup> 10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lyfias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The Jews accuse Paul to Festus, first at Jerusalem, and afterward at Cesarea: 8 he answereth for himself, and appealeth to Cesar: his appeal is admitted. 13 Festus being visited by king Agrippa openeth the matter to him, who desireth to hear Paul. 23 Paul is brought forth; Festus declareth he found nothing in him worthy of death.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood instantly serving God † day and night, † hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority † from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, † to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, † unto whom now I send thee, 18 To open their eyes, and † to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, † that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and † inheritance among them which are † sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But † shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do † works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes † the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those † which the prophets and † Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and † that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and † should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, † thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, † This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, † if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 Paul is conducted in a ship toward Rome: 9 he foretelleth the danger of the voyage, but is not credited: 12 the ship setting sail against his advice is tossed with a tempest: 21 Paul comforteth his fellow travellers with assurances of having their lives saved, but foretelleth a shipwreck: all which is verified by the event.

AND when † it was determined that † we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramytium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one † Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius † courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

12 ¶ And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Paul and his company after their Shipwreck are kindly entertained by the barbarians of Melita:

3 a viper fastening on his hand without hurting him, the people, who at first thought ill of him, believe him a god: 7 he healeth the father of Publius, and other sick persons in the island.

11 Paul and his company depart, and arrive at Rome; where Paul is left with a guard in a house of his own. 17 He calleth the Jews together, and sheweth the occasion of his coming:

23 he preacheth Christ to them, of whom some believe, others believe not: 30 he continueth for two whole years to preach the gospel without interruption.

27. 28. 29. AN D when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 ¶ And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 ¶ In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 ¶ And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you:

because that <sup>11</sup> for the hope of Israel I am bound with <sup>10</sup> this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where <sup>9</sup> it is spoken against.

23 ¶ And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging: <sup>9</sup> to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, <sup>8</sup> both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And <sup>8</sup> some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, <sup>8</sup> Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent <sup>8</sup> unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 ¶ And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 <sup>8</sup> Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the ROMANS.

C H A P. I.

1 Paul, commending to the Romans his calling, greeteth them, <sup>8</sup> and professeth his concern for, and desire of coming to see, them. 16 He sheweth that the gospel is for the justification of all mankind through faith, <sup>18</sup> and having premised that sinners in general are obnoxious to God's wrath, he describeth at large the corruptions of the Gentile world.

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, <sup>8</sup> called to be an apostle, <sup>9</sup> separated unto the gospel of God,

2 (<sup>8</sup> Which he had promised afore <sup>9</sup> by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, <sup>8</sup> which was <sup>9</sup> made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

4 And <sup>8</sup> declared to be the Son of God with power, according <sup>9</sup> to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom <sup>8</sup> we have received grace and apostleship, <sup>9</sup> for <sup>8</sup> obedience to the faith among all nations, <sup>9</sup> for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, <sup>8</sup> called to be saints: <sup>9</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, <sup>8</sup> I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that <sup>9</sup> your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For <sup>8</sup> God is my witness, <sup>9</sup> whom I serve <sup>11</sup> with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that <sup>8</sup> without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey <sup>8</sup> by the will of God to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that <sup>8</sup> I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together <sup>11</sup> with you by <sup>9</sup> the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that <sup>8</sup> oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but <sup>8</sup> was let hitherto,) that I might have some <sup>9</sup> fruit <sup>11</sup> among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 <sup>8</sup> I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For <sup>8</sup> I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for <sup>8</sup> it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; <sup>9</sup> to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

1 ch. 2. 2.

17 For<sup>e</sup> therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, <sup>b</sup> The just shall live by faith.

18 <sup>1</sup> For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because <sup>k</sup> that which may be known of God is manifest <sup>11</sup> in them; for <sup>1</sup> God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For<sup>m</sup> the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; <sup>11</sup> so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but <sup>n</sup> became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 <sup>o</sup> Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible <sup>p</sup> God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 <sup>1</sup> Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, <sup>1</sup> to dishonour their own bodies <sup>1</sup> between themselves:

25 Who changed <sup>1</sup> the truth of God <sup>1</sup> into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature <sup>11</sup> more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto <sup>1</sup> vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 <sup>1</sup> And even as they did not like <sup>11</sup> to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to <sup>11</sup> a reprobate mind, to do those things <sup>1</sup> which are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, <sup>11</sup> without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who, <sup>1</sup> knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things <sup>b</sup> are worthy of death, not only do the same, but <sup>11</sup> have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAP. II.

1 They that condemn sin in others, and are guilty of the like themselves, cannot escape God's judgment; 6 which will be according to every man's deserts, without distinction of Jew or Gentile.

14 The Gentiles are not left without a rule of conduct. 17 The Jew, who boasteth of greater light, is doubly criminal in sinning against it; 25 nor will circumcision profit him, except he keep the law.

Therefore thou art <sup>1</sup> inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: <sup>b</sup> for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart <sup>1</sup> treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 <sup>1</sup> Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and <sup>1</sup> do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath;

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew <sup>1</sup> first, and also of the <sup>1</sup> Gentile;

10 <sup>1</sup> But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the <sup>1</sup> Gentile:

11 For <sup>11</sup> there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 (For <sup>1</sup> not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, || their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts || the mean while accusing or else excusing one another ;)

16 ° In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men ° by Jesus Christ ° according to my gospel.

17 Behold, ° thou art called a Jew, and ° retest in the law, ° and makest thy boast of God,

18 And ° knowest his will, and || ° ap- provest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law ;

19 And ° art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, 20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, ° which hast the form of know- ledge and of the truth in the law.

21 ° Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself ? thou that preacheest a man should not steal, dost thou steal ?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adul- tery ? thou that abhorrest idols, ° dost thou commit sacrilege ?

23 Thou that ° makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God ?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is ° written.

25 ° For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law : but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore ° if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision ?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, ° judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law ?

28 For ° he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly ; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh :

29 But he is a Jew, ° which is one inwardly ; and ° circumcision is that of the heart, ° in the spirit, and not in the letter ; ° whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 The Jew's prerogative : 3 which is not vacated by the unbelief of some ; 5 nor is God's justice impeached in punishing their sinfulness. 9 The law itself convinceth the Jews also universally of sin ; 20 so that no flesh is justified by the deeds of the law ; 21 but all indiscriminately by God's grace through faith in Christ : 31 yet without annulling the obligations of the law.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew ? or what profit is there of circum- cision ?

2 Much every way : chiefly, because that ° unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if ° some did not believe ? ° shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect ?

4 ° God forbid : yea, let ° God be true, but ° every man a liar ; as it is written, ° That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say ? Is God unrighteous who taketh ven- geance ? ( ° I speak as a man )

6 God forbid : for then ° how shall God judge the world ?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory ; why yet am I also judged as a sinner ?

8 And not rather, ( as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say, )

° Let us do evil, that good may come ? whose damnation is just.

9 What then ? are we better than they ? No, in no wise : for we have before ° proved both Jews and Gentiles, that ° they are all under sin ;

10 As it is written, ° There is none right- eous, no, not one :

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable ; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 ° Their throat is an open sepulchre ; with their tongues they have used deceit ; ° the poison of asps is under their lips :

14 ° Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness :

15 ° Their feet are swift to shed blood :

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways :

17 And the way of peace have they not known :

18 ° There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things so- ever ° the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law : that ° every mouth may be stopped, and ° all the world may be- come || guilty before God.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Abraham himself was justified by faith: 9 which was imputed to him for righteousness before circumcision, that he might be the common father of believers, whether circumcised or not. 13 The promise was not given him through the law, else had it been void from the very nature of the law; but being of faith by grace is sure to all the destined seed, and not to those of the law only. 18 The acceptableness of Abraham's faith; 23 which stands recorded not for his sake only, but for the sake of all who shall profess a like faith in God through Christ.

WHAT shall we then say that Abraham, our father as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what faith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, 7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old,

23 Now * it was not written for his and * was raised again for our justification.

C H A P. V.

1 *Being justified by faith, we have peace with God : 2 we glory in our hopes ; 3 and in present afflictions ; 6 from the past experience of God's love looking with more assurance for final salvation : 11 we glory in God also, to whom we are reconciled by Christ. 12 As sin and death came upon all men by Adam, so the grace of God, which justifieth unto life, cometh more abundantly unto all mankind through Christ.
20 Under the law sin abounded unto death ;
but grace bath much more abounded unto life.*

Therefore * being justified by faith, we have <sup>b</sup> peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ :

2 * By whom also we have access by faith into this grace <sup>d</sup> wherein we stand, and * rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but, ' we glory in tribulations also : * knowing that tribulation worketh patience ;

4 <sup>b</sup> And patience, experience ; and experience, hope :

5 <sup>i</sup> And hope maketh not ashamed ; * because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, || in due time <sup>i</sup> Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die : yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But * God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved <sup>o</sup> from wrath through him.

10 For <sup>p</sup> if, when we were enemies, <sup>a</sup> we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved <sup>i</sup> by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also <sup>i</sup> joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the || atonement.

12 Wherefore, as <sup>i</sup> by one man sin entered into the world, and <sup>i</sup> death by sin ; and so death passed upon all men,
|| for that all have sinned :

13 (For until the law sin was in the world : but <sup>i</sup> sin is not imputed when there is no law :

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, <sup>i</sup> who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded <sup>i</sup> unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift : for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if || by one man's offence death reigned by one ; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore, as || by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation ; even so || by the righteousness of one the free gift came <sup>a</sup> upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover <sup>b</sup> the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much <sup>c</sup> more abound :

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

C H A P. VI.

1 Though justified by grace, we may not live in sin ; since the very figure of baptism requireth us to die with Christ unto sin, that we may lead a new life of holiness unto God. 14 The dispensation of grace freeth us from the dominion of sin ; but we are still the servants of sin, if we obey it ; therefore being freed from sin, we are bound unto holiness. 21 The end and wages of sin is death ; but the fruit of holiness through God's grace is eternal life.

WHAT shall we say then? * Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that <sup>c</sup> so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are <sup>e</sup> buried with him by baptism into death: that <sup>f</sup> like as Christ was raised up from the dead by <sup>g</sup> the glory of the Father, <sup>h</sup> even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 <sup>i</sup> For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that <sup>k</sup> our old man is crucified with him, that <sup>l</sup> the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For <sup>m</sup> he that is dead is <sup>n</sup> freed from sin.

8 Now <sup>o</sup> if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that <sup>p</sup> Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, <sup>q</sup> he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, <sup>r</sup> he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be <sup>s</sup> dead indeed unto sin, but <sup>t</sup> alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 <sup>u</sup> Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your <sup>v</sup> members as <sup>w</sup> instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but <sup>x</sup> yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For <sup>y</sup> sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, <sup>z</sup> because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that <sup>a</sup> to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart <sup>b</sup> that form of doctrine <sup>c</sup> which was delivered you.

18 Being then <sup>d</sup> made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were <sup>e</sup> the servants of sin, ye were free <sup>f</sup> from righteousness.

21 <sup>g</sup> What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for <sup>h</sup> the end of those things is death.

22 But now <sup>i</sup> being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For <sup>j</sup> the wages of sin is death; but <sup>k</sup> the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C H A P. VII.

1 No law having power over a person longer than he liveth, 4 we therefore, being become dead to the law by the body of Christ, are left free to place ourselves under a happier dispensation. 5 For the law through the prevalency of corrupt passions could only serve as an instrument of sin unto death; although it be in itself holy, and just, and good; 14 as is manifest by our reason approving the precepts of it, whilst our depraved nature is unable to put them in practice. 24 The wretchedness of man in such a situation, and God's mercy in his deliverance from it through Christ.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For <sup>a</sup> the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to <sup>b</sup> her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of <sup>c</sup> her husband.

3 So then <sup>d</sup> if, while <sup>e</sup> her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become <sup>f</sup> dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, <sup>g</sup> even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should <sup>h</sup> bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the <sup>i</sup> motions of sins, which were by the law, <sup>j</sup> did work in our members <sup>k</sup> to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, <sup>l</sup> that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve <sup>m</sup> in newness of spirit, and not <sup>n</sup> in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, <sup>h</sup> I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known ¶ lust, except the law had said, <sup>i</sup> Thou shalt not covet.

8 But <sup>k</sup> sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For <sup>l</sup> without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, <sup>m</sup> which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore <sup>n</sup> the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, <sup>o</sup> sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I † allow not: for <sup>p</sup> what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that <sup>q</sup> in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I <sup>r</sup> delight in the law of God after the inward man:

23 But <sup>s</sup> I see another law in <sup>u</sup> my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from ¶ the body of this death?

25 * I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Under the gospel we are free from condemnation, walking after the spirit. 5 The evil of being carnally minded, and the good of being spiritually minded. 9 Christians have God's spirit to guide and assist them; 12 by which if they mortify the flesh, they shall live. 14 For they that are led by the spirit are sons of God, and heirs of glory; 19 whose manifestation the world hath long earnestly looked for, hoping to be rescued thereby from the bondage of corruption; 23 and even they who have the first-fruits of the spirit do still long after it; 24 being hitherto saved by hope only; 26 the spirit in the mean time aiding their infirmities in prayer. 28 Nevertheless the final good of them that fear God is all along pursued, being fore-ordained of God, and brought about according to the course of his providence. 31 The ground and assurance of the Christian's hope.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who <sup>a</sup> walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For <sup>b</sup> the law of <sup>c</sup> the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from <sup>d</sup> the law of sin and death.

3 For <sup>e</sup> what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, <sup>f</sup> God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and ¶ for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, <sup>g</sup> who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For <sup>h</sup> they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit <sup>i</sup> the things of the Spirit.

6 For <sup>k</sup> † to be carnally minded is death; but † to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because † the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, <sup>m</sup> neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that <sup>n</sup> the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not <sup>o</sup> the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of <sup>p</sup> him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, <sup>q</sup> he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies ¶ by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 <sup>r</sup> Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For <sup>s</sup> if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do <sup>t</sup> mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For <sup>u</sup> as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

1 Paul professeth an unfeigned sorrow for the Jewish nation: 6 but proveth by instances from scripture that the promise of Abraham did not necessarily include all his descendants: 14 asserting that there is no unrighteousness in God's bestowing his unmerited bounty on whom he pleaseth: 19 and that he was unquestionably free to suspend his judgments, where deserved, either for the more signal display of his power in taking vengeance on some, or of his mercy in calling others to glory. 25 The calling of the Gentiles, and rejection of the Jews, foretold. 30 Accordingly the Gentiles have attained the righteousness of faith; which the Jews refused. 32 The cause of such refusal.

1 Say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

6 <sup>o</sup> Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For <sup>p</sup> they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 <sup>q</sup> Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In <sup>r</sup> Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but <sup>s</sup> the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, <sup>t</sup> At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when <sup>u</sup> Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of <sup>x</sup> him that calleth;)

12 It was said unto her, <sup>y</sup> The elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, <sup>z</sup> Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? <sup>a</sup> Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, <sup>b</sup> I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For <sup>c</sup> the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For <sup>d</sup> who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? <sup>e</sup> Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the <sup>f</sup> potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make <sup>g</sup> one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew <sup>h</sup> his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long suffering <sup>i</sup> the vessels of wrath <sup>j</sup> fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known <sup>k</sup> the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had <sup>m</sup> afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, <sup>n</sup> not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, <sup>o</sup> I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved which was not beloved.

26 <sup>p</sup> and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Esaias also cried concerning Israel, <sup>q</sup> Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, <sup>r</sup> a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish <sup>s</sup> the work, and cut it short in righteousness: <sup>t</sup> because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, <sup>u</sup> except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, <sup>v</sup> we had been as Sodom, and been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? <sup>w</sup> That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, <sup>x</sup> even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel, <sup>y</sup> which followed after the law of righteousness, <sup>z</sup> hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For <sup>a</sup> they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, <sup>b</sup> Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and <sup>c</sup> whosoever believeth on him shall not be <sup>d</sup> ashamed.

CHAP. X.

1 Paul's prayer for Israel, who were misled by blind zeal. 4 The difference between justification by the law and by faith explained from scripture. 11 Salvation open to all that believe, both Jews and Gentiles. 14 The necessity of preaching to the Gentiles inferred. 19 God's acceptance of the Gentiles known before to the Jews; 21 as also their own refusal of his offered mercy.

B Rethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record <sup>e</sup> that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of <sup>f</sup> God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own <sup>g</sup> righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For <sup>a</sup> Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses described the righteousness which is of the law, <sup>a</sup> That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, <sup>a</sup> Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what faith it? <sup>a</sup> The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That <sup>b</sup> if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, <sup>a</sup> Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For <sup>b</sup> there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for <sup>c</sup> the same Lord over all <sup>m</sup> is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 <sup>n</sup> For whosoever shall call <sup>o</sup> upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear <sup>p</sup> without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, <sup>a</sup> How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But <sup>r</sup> they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, <sup>a</sup> Lord, who hath believed † our || report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, <sup>a</sup> their sound went into all the earth, <sup>a</sup> and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, <sup>a</sup> I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a <sup>b</sup> foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, <sup>a</sup> I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, <sup>a</sup> All day long

I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAP. XI.

1 God hath not so far cast off all Israel, but that a remnant is saved by grace, not by works. 7 The judicial blindness of the rest is prophesied of in scripture. 11 The consequence both of their fall and conversion with regard to the Gentile world. 17 The Gentiles are cautioned not to insult the Jews, but to make a proper use of the example both of God's goodness and severity. 23 The Jews may, and shall in time, believe and be saved. 33 God's judgments and ways are unsearchable.

I Say then, <sup>a</sup> Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For <sup>b</sup> I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which <sup>c</sup> he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith † of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 <sup>d</sup> Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what faith the answer of God unto him? <sup>e</sup> I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And <sup>f</sup> if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? <sup>g</sup> Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were || blinded

8. (According as it is written, <sup>a</sup> God hath given them the spirit of || slumber, <sup>b</sup> eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And David saith, <sup>a</sup> Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompence unto them:

10 <sup>m</sup> Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather <sup>a</sup> through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the || diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as * I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and <sup>1</sup> might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if <sup>1</sup> the first fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if <sup>1</sup> some of the branches be broken off, <sup>1</sup> and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in || among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 <sup>1</sup> Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. <sup>1</sup> Be not highminded, but <sup>2</sup> fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, <sup>1</sup> if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise <sup>2</sup> thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, <sup>1</sup> if they abide not in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be <sup>1</sup> wise in your own conceits; that <sup>2</sup> || blindness in part is happened to Israel, <sup>1</sup> until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, * There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27 <sup>1</sup> For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are <sup>1</sup> beloved for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are <sup>1</sup> without repentance.

30 For as ye <sup>1</sup> in times past have not || believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not || believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For <sup>1</sup> God hath || concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

34 <sup>1</sup> For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or <sup>2</sup> who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or <sup>1</sup> who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For <sup>1</sup> of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: <sup>1</sup> to † whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

1 Paul exhorteth to holiness and conformity to God's will: and to think soberly of the gifts allotted every man respectively. 4 We are all members of one body in Christ, 6 and should diligently exercise our several gifts for the common benefit. 9 Sundry practical duties recommended. 19 Revenge is specially forbidden, and to do good for evil enjoined.

I <sup>1</sup> Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, <sup>1</sup> that ye <sup>2</sup> present your bodies <sup>4</sup> a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And <sup>1</sup> be not conformed to this world: but <sup>1</sup> be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may <sup>2</sup> prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, <sup>1</sup> through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, <sup>1</sup> not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think † soberly, according as God hath dealt <sup>1</sup> to every man the measure of faith.

4 For <sup>1</sup> as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So <sup>2</sup> we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 <sup>1</sup> Having then gifts differing <sup>2</sup> according to the grace that is given to us, whether <sup>1</sup> prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or <sup>1</sup> he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or <sup>1</sup> he that exhorteth, on exhortation:

he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation.

Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour prefer-ing one another;

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

13 Distributing to the necessity of saints;

given to hospitality.

14 Bless them which persecute you:

bles, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 Recompense to no man evil for evil.

Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath:

for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink:

for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

1 Subjection to magistrates enforced. 7 We must render to all their dues: 8 only love is a debt

we must always owe, and virtually containeth

the whole law. 11 Rioting, drunkenness, and other works of darkness, must be put away, as much out of season under the gospel.

LET every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God:

and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power; do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also:

for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues:

tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness,

Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour:

therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep:

for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

not to despise or censure one another in matters of indifference. 7 Christ's right to our best

HIM that <sup>a</sup> is weak in the faith receive ye, but || not to doubtful disputations.2 For one believeth that he <sup>b</sup> may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and <sup>c</sup> let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.4 <sup>d</sup> Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.5 <sup>e</sup> One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be || fully persuaded in his own mind.6 He that <sup>f</sup> regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for <sup>g</sup> he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.7 For <sup>h</sup> none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For <sup>i</sup> to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be <sup>k</sup> Lord both of the dead and living.10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for <sup>l</sup> we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.12 So then <sup>m</sup> every one of us shall give account of himself to God.13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that <sup>n</sup> no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, <sup>o</sup> that there is nothing † unclean of itself: but <sup>p</sup> to him that esteemeth any thing to be † unclean, to him it is unclean.15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not † charitably. <sup>q</sup> Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.16 <sup>r</sup> Let not then your good be evil spoken of:17 <sup>r</sup> For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.18 For he that in these things serveth Christ <sup>s</sup> is acceptable to God, and approved of men.19 <sup>t</sup> Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith <sup>v</sup> one may edify another.20 <sup>u</sup> For meat destroy not the work of God. <sup>v</sup> All things indeed are pure; <sup>w</sup> but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.21 It is good neither to eat <sup>x</sup> flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. <sup>y</sup> Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.23 And he that || doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for <sup>z</sup> whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAP. XV.

1 We ought, in condescension to the weak, to give up our own will for our neighbour's good, after the example of Christ. 4 The intent of the scriptures. 5 Paul prayeth for unanimity among Christians, 7 exhorteth to receive one the other, as Christ did all, both Jews, and Gentiles; 13 and wisheth them all joy, peace, and hope. 14 He apologiseth for his freedom in admonishing them, as he was the apostle of the Gentiles; 17 and sheweth the success and extensiveness of his labours. 22 He excuseth his not coming to them before, and promiseth them a visit on his return from Jerusalem. 30 *He requesteth their prayers.*WE <sup>a</sup> then that are strong ought to bear the <sup>b</sup> infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.2 <sup>c</sup> Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good <sup>d</sup> to edification.3 <sup>e</sup> For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, <sup>f</sup> The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.4 For <sup>g</sup> whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.5 <sup>h</sup> Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another || according to Christ Jesus:6 That ye may <sup>i</sup> with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.7 Wherefore <sup>k</sup> receive ye one another, <sup>l</sup> as Christ also received us to the glory of God.8 Now I say that <sup>m</sup> Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, <sup>n</sup> to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:9 And <sup>o</sup> that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, <sup>p</sup> For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.Anno

10 And again he saith, <sup>a</sup> Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, <sup>a</sup> Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again Esaias saith, <sup>a</sup> There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all <sup>a</sup> joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And <sup>a</sup> I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, <sup>a</sup> filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, <sup>a</sup> because of the grace that is given to me of God, 16 That <sup>a</sup> I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the <sup>a</sup> offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ <sup>a</sup> in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things <sup>a</sup> which Christ hath not wrought by me, <sup>a</sup> to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 19 <sup>a</sup> Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, <sup>a</sup> lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, <sup>a</sup> To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also <sup>a</sup> I have been <sup>a</sup> much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and <sup>a</sup> having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, <sup>a</sup> and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled <sup>a</sup> with your company.

25 But now <sup>a</sup> I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For <sup>a</sup> it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For <sup>a</sup> if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, <sup>a</sup> their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them <sup>a</sup> this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 <sup>a</sup> And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and <sup>a</sup> for the love of the Spirit, <sup>a</sup> that ye strive together with me in <sup>a</sup> your prayers to God for me;

31 <sup>a</sup> That I may be delivered from them that <sup>a</sup> do not believe in Judea; and that <sup>a</sup> my service which <sup>a</sup> I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 <sup>a</sup> That I may come unto you with joy <sup>a</sup> by the will of God, and may with you be <sup>a</sup> refreshed.

33 Now <sup>a</sup> the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Paul commendeth Phebe to the Christians at Rome, 3 and sendeth salutations to many by name. 17 He warneth them to take heed of those who cause divisions and offences. 21 After sundry salutations, 25 he concludeth with praise to God.

I Commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at <sup>a</sup> Cenchrea:

2 <sup>a</sup> That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet <sup>a</sup> Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet <sup>a</sup> the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Epenetus, who is <sup>a</sup> the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also <sup>a</sup> were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord. 9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' <sup>a</sup> household.

The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the CORINTHIANS.

Anno
59.

CHAP. I.

1 After saluting the church at Corinth, 4 and thanking God for his grace toward them, 10 Paul exhorteth them to unity, 11 and reproveth their dissensions. 17 The plain doctrine of the gospel, how foolish soever in the eyes of the world, is the power and wisdom of God to the salvation of believers. 26 God, to take away human boasting, hath not called the wise, the mighty, the noble; but the foolish, the weak, the despised among men. 30 Christ is our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption.

PAUL, <sup>a</sup> called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ <sup>b</sup> through the will of God, and <sup>c</sup> Sothenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, <sup>d</sup> to them that <sup>e</sup> are sanctified in Christ Jesus, <sup>f</sup> called to be saints, with all that in every place <sup>g</sup> call upon the name of Jesus Christ <sup>h</sup> our Lord, <sup>i</sup> both their's and our's:

3 <sup>k</sup> Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 <sup>l</sup> I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, <sup>m</sup> in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as <sup>n</sup> the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; <sup>o</sup> waiting for the <sup>p</sup> coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 <sup>q</sup> Who shall also confirm you unto the end, <sup>r</sup> that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 <sup>s</sup> God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto <sup>t</sup> the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>u</sup> that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no <sup>v</sup> divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, <sup>a</sup> that every one of you faith, I am of Paul; and I of <sup>a</sup> Apollos; and I of <sup>a</sup> Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 <sup>a</sup> Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but <sup>a</sup> Crispus and <sup>b</sup> Gaius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of <sup>c</sup> Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: <sup>a</sup> not with wisdom of <sup>b</sup> words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to <sup>a</sup> them that perish <sup>b</sup> foolishness; but unto us <sup>c</sup> which are saved it is the <sup>d</sup> power of God.

19 For it is written, <sup>a</sup> I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 <sup>a</sup> Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? <sup>b</sup> hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 <sup>a</sup> For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the <sup>a</sup> Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, <sup>a</sup> unto the Jews a stumbling block, and unto the Greeks <sup>b</sup> foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ <sup>a</sup> the power of God, and <sup>b</sup> the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that <sup>a</sup> not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But <sup>a</sup> God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and <sup>a</sup> things which are not, <sup>b</sup> to bring to nought things that are:

29 <sup>a</sup> That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us <sup>a</sup> wisdom, and <sup>b</sup> righteousness, and <sup>c</sup> sanctification, and <sup>d</sup> redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, <sup>a</sup> He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul declareth that he used not human learning and eloquence in preaching the gospel to his converts, that their faith, being built on the testimony of the spirit, and on miracles, might be solely ascribed to God. 6 The gospel doth contain God's wise, but secret, counsel for bringing men to glory; which no natural abilities could discover, but the Spirit of God only, by which it was revealed to the apostles. 14 Upon this account both the doctrine and its teachers are held in disesteem by the mere natural man, who is not duly qualified to judge of and discern them.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, <sup>a</sup> came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you <sup>b</sup> the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, <sup>a</sup> save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And <sup>a</sup> I was with you <sup>b</sup> in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching <sup>a</sup> was not with <sup>b</sup> enticing words of man's wisdom, <sup>c</sup> but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not <sup>a</sup> stand in the wisdom of men, but <sup>b</sup> in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them <sup>a</sup> that are perfect: yet not <sup>b</sup> the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, <sup>c</sup> that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, <sup>a</sup> which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 <sup>a</sup> Which none of the princes of this world knew: for <sup>b</sup> had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, <sup>a</sup> Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But <sup>a</sup> God hath revealeth them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, <sup>a</sup> save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Paul sheweth that he could not instruct the Corinthians in the higher doctrines of Christianity because of their carnal mind; 3 which temper discovered itself in their factions. 5 The most eminent preachers of the gospel are but instruments employed by God in building his church.

10 Paul hath laid the only true foundation, Christ Jesus; and others must take heed what they build thereon. 16 Christians are God's temple, not to be defiled. 18 Worldly wisdom is foolishness with God. 21 They that are Christ's must not glory in men.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are your's;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

CHAP. IV.

1 Paul sheweth in what account such as he should be held, of whose fidelity it should be left to God to judge. 6 He dissuadeth the Corinthians from valuing themselves in one teacher above another, since all had their respective distinctions from God. 8 To their self-sufficient vanity he opposeth his own despised and afflicted state; 14 warning them, as their only father in Christ, and urging them to follow him. 17 For the same cause he sent Timotheus, and meant soon to follow in person, when he would enquire into the authority of such as opposed him.

LET a man so account of us, as of <sup>a</sup> the ministers of Christ, <sup>b</sup> and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's † judgment : yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself ; <sup>c</sup> yet am I not hereby justified : but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 <sup>d</sup> Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, <sup>e</sup> who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts : and <sup>f</sup> then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, <sup>g</sup> I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes ; <sup>h</sup> that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you <sup>i</sup> be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who † maketh thee to differ from another ? and <sup>k</sup> what hast thou that thou didst not receive ? now if thou didst receive <sup>l</sup> it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it ?

8 Now ye are full, <sup>m</sup> now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us : and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth <sup>n</sup> us the apostles last, <sup>o</sup> as it were appointed to death : for <sup>p</sup> we are made a † spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 <sup>q</sup> We are <sup>r</sup> fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ ; <sup>s</sup> we are weak, but ye are strong ; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 <sup>t</sup> Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and <sup>u</sup> are naked, and <sup>v</sup> are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace ;

12 <sup>w</sup> And labour, working with our own hands : <sup>x</sup> being reviled, we bless ; being persecuted, we suffer it :

13 Being defamed, we intreat : <sup>y</sup> we are made as the filth of the earth, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but <sup>z</sup> as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet <sup>aa</sup> have ye not many fathers : for <sup>ab</sup> in Christ Jesus I have be- gotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, <sup>b</sup> be ye fol- lowers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you <sup>c</sup> Timotheus, <sup>d</sup> who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you <sup>e</sup> into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I <sup>f</sup> teach every where <sup>g</sup> in every church.

18 <sup>h</sup> Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 <sup>i</sup> But I will come to you shortly, <sup>k</sup> if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For <sup>l</sup> the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye ? <sup>m</sup> shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness ?

CHAP. V.

1 Paul reproveth a scandalous incest committed and protected from censure in the church at Corinth ; 3 and by his authority in Christ excommunicateth the offender. 6 The necessity of purging out the old leaven. 9 Christians guilty of no- torious crimes are not to be comforted with.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as <sup>a</sup> named among the Gentiles, <sup>b</sup> that one should have his <sup>c</sup> father's wife.

2 <sup>d</sup> And ye are puffed up, and have not rather <sup>e</sup> mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 <sup>f</sup> For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have <sup>g</sup> judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, <sup>h</sup> with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 <sup>i</sup> To deliver such an one unto <sup>j</sup> Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 <sup>k</sup> Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that <sup>l</sup> a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump ?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even <sup>m</sup> Christ our <sup>n</sup> passover <sup>o</sup> is sacrificed for us :

8 Therefore <sup>p</sup> let us keep <sup>q</sup> the feast, <sup>r</sup> not with old leaven, neither <sup>s</sup> with the leaven of malice and wickedness ; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Corinthians are reproved for bringing their controversies before heathen judges, which they ought to decide among themselves. 7 There would be no occasion for lawsuits, if men acted up to the principles of the gospel, 9 which exclude from the kingdom of God all notorious transgressors of the moral law. 12 All lawful things are not expedient ; 15 but fornication is a gross offence against our bodies, which are members of Christ, temples of the Holy Ghost, and not our own to dispose of otherwise than to God's glory.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints ?

2 Do ye not know that <sup>a</sup> the saints shall judge the world ? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters ?

3 Know ye not that we shall <sup>b</sup> judge angels ? how much more things that pertain to this life ?

4 <sup>a</sup> If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you ? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren ?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. <sup>a</sup> Why do ye not rather take wrong ? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded ?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, <sup>a</sup> and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God ? Be not deceived : <sup>a</sup> neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were <sup>a</sup> some of you : <sup>b</sup> but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 <sup>a</sup> All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not <sup>a</sup> expedient : all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 <sup>a</sup> Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats : but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body <sup>a</sup> is not for fornication, but <sup>a</sup> for the Lord ; <sup>a</sup> and the Lord for the body.

14 And <sup>a</sup> God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us <sup>a</sup> by his own power.

15 Know ye not that <sup>a</sup> your bodies are the members of Christ ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot ? God forbid.

16 What ? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body ? for <sup>a</sup> two, faith he, shall be one flesh.

17 <sup>a</sup> But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 <sup>a</sup> Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body ; but he that committeth fornication sinneth <sup>a</sup> against his own body.

19 What ? <sup>a</sup> know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, <sup>a</sup> and ye are not your own ?

20 For <sup>a</sup> ye are bought with a price : therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAP. VII.

1 Marriage is to be used as a remedy against fornication. 10 Christ hath forbidden to dissolve the bond thereof. 12 Directions how to act where one of the parties is an unbeliever. 17 Every man must abide in and fulfil the duties of the state wherein he was called. 25 Directions concerning the marriage of virgins, respecting the distress of the times ; 39 and concerning the second marriage of widows.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me : <sup>a</sup> It is good for a <sup>a</sup> ver. 8, 26. man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let Anno DOMINI every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3<sup>b</sup> Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5<sup>c</sup> Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that <sup>a</sup> Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, <sup>a</sup> and not of commandment.

7 For <sup>f</sup> I would that all men were <sup>e</sup> even as I myself. But <sup>b</sup> every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, <sup>i</sup> It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But <sup>b</sup> if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, <sup>i</sup> yet not I, but the Lord, <sup>m</sup> Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, <sup>a</sup> not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else <sup>e</sup> were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us <sup>p</sup> + to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt <sup>a</sup> save thy husband? or + how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And <sup>f</sup> so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him <sup>a</sup> not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision: <sup>a</sup> let him not be circumcised.

19 <sup>a</sup> Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but <sup>a</sup> the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is <sup>a</sup> the Lord's + freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is <sup>a</sup> Christ's servant.

23 <sup>a</sup> Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, <sup>b</sup> let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins <sup>c</sup> I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one <sup>a</sup> that hath obtained mercy of the Lord <sup>e</sup> to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present || distress, I say, <sup>a</sup> that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But <sup>a</sup> this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not <sup>a</sup> abusing it: for <sup>a</sup> the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. <sup>a</sup> He that is unmarried careth for the things + that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman <sup>a</sup> careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The preference of charity to knowledge. 4 An idol is nothing in the esteem of those who have right notions of one God, and of one Lord Jesus Christ. 7 But it is sin in those, who by an indiscreet use of their knowledge, in eating meats offered to idols, tempt weaker consciences to offend.

NOW <sup>a</sup> as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have <sup>b</sup> knowledge. <sup>c</sup> Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And <sup>d</sup> if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, <sup>e</sup> the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that <sup>f</sup> an idol is nothing in the world, <sup>g</sup> and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are <sup>h</sup> called Gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But <sup>i</sup> to us there is but one God, the Father, <sup>k</sup> of whom are all things, and we <sup>l</sup> in him; and <sup>m</sup> one Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>n</sup> by whom are all things, and we by him.

9 But <sup>a</sup> take heed lest by any means this <sup>b</sup> liberty of your's become <sup>c</sup> a stumbling-block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in <sup>d</sup> the idol's temple, shall not <sup>e</sup> the conscience of him which is weak be <sup>f</sup> emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And <sup>g</sup> through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But <sup>h</sup> when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, <sup>i</sup> if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAP. IX.

1 Paul vindicateth his apostolical character, 3 and right to a maintenance from the churches; 15 though he relinquished that right for the furtherance of the gospel, not content with doing only his indispensable duty; 19 but voluntarily subjecting himself in many points, where he was otherwise free, in order thereby to win over more converts to Christ. 24 Those who contend for a corruptible crown use much labour and abstinence; 26 so doth the apostle strive for one that is incorruptible.

AM I not an apostle? am I not free? <sup>a</sup> have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? <sup>b</sup> are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for <sup>c</sup> the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 <sup>d</sup> Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, <sup>e</sup> a <sup>f</sup> wife, as well as other apostles, and as <sup>g</sup> the brethren of the Lord, and <sup>h</sup> Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, <sup>i</sup> have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who <sup>j</sup> goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who <sup>k</sup> planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who <sup>l</sup> feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, <sup>m</sup> Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that <sup>n</sup> he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 ° If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? ° Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, ° lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 ° Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things || live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so ° hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But ° I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for ° it were better for me to die; than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for ° necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, ° I have a reward: but if against my will, ° a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, ° when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I ° abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be ° free from all men, yet have ° I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And ° unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 ° To ° them that are without law, as without law, (° being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 ° To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: ° I am made all things to all men, ° that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? ° So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that ° striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we ° an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, ° not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 ° But I keep under my body, and ° bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be ° a castaway.

CHAP. X.

1 The Jews who came out of Egypt had all sacraments typical of our's, yet many of them perished through sin. 6 Their examples should serve, as they were intended, for our admonition. 13 God will not suffer his servants to be tempted beyond their strength. 14 Christians must flee idolatry, and not by partaking of idol sacrifices own fellowship with devils. 23 Even in the use of things lawful we should consult the good of others, 31 and refer all we do to God's glory, 32 careful to give none offence, after the apostle's own example.

Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under ° the cloud, and all passed through ° the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same ° spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same ° spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that || followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they ° were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were † our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as ° they also lusted.

7 ° Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, ° The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 ° Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and ° fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as ° some of them also tempted, and ° were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as ° some of them also murmured, and ° were destroyed of ° the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for || ensamples: and ° they are written for our admonition, ° upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore ° let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but || such as is common to man: but ° God is faithful, ° who will not suffer you

25 * Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake :

26 For * the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go ; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not * for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake : for * the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof :

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other : for * why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience ?

30 For if I by || grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that * for which I give thanks ?

31 * Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 * Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the † Gentiles, nor to * the church of God :

33 Even as * I please all men in all things, * not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP. XI.

1 Paul exhorteth the Corinthians to follow him, as he did Christ. 2 He praiseb them for observing the rules he had given them ; 3 and forbiddeth men to pray or prophesy with heads covered, and women with heads uncovered ; the covering of the head being a token of subjection. 17 He blameth them for abuses in their religious assemblies, particularly for their divisions, 20 and profanation of the Lord's supper: 23 He remindeth them of the first institution thereof, and sheweth the danger of partaking of it unworthily.

BE * ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, * that ye remember me in all things, and * keep the || ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that * the head of every man is Christ ; and * the head of the woman is the man ; and * the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or * prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But * every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head : for that is even all one as if she were * shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn : but if it be * a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as * he is the image and glory of God : but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For * the man is not of the woman ; but the woman of the man.

9 * Neither was the man created for the woman ; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman * to have || power on her head * because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless * neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman ; * but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves : is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered ?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him ?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her : for her hair is given her for a || covering.

16 But <sup>a</sup> if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, <sup>a</sup> neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, <sup>a</sup> I hear that there be || divisions among you ; and I partly believe it.

19 For <sup>a</sup> there must be also || heresies among you, <sup>a</sup> that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, || this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper : and one is hungry, and <sup>a</sup> another is drunken.

22 What ? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in ? or despise ye <sup>a</sup> the church of God, and <sup>b</sup> shame || them that have not ? What shall I say to you ? shall I praise you in this ? I praise you not.

23 For <sup>a</sup> I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, <sup>a</sup> That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread :

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat : this is my body, which is broken for you : this do || in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood : this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, || ye do shew the Lord's death <sup>a</sup> till he come.

27 <sup>a</sup> Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But <sup>a</sup> let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh || damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For <sup>a</sup> if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, <sup>a</sup> we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man <sup>a</sup> hunger, let him eat at <sup>a</sup> home ; that ye come not together unto || condemnation. And the rest <sup>a</sup> will I set in order when <sup>a</sup> I come.

C H A P. XII.

1 Paul teacheth that none can own Christ but by the Holy Ghost ; 4 whose gifts are diverse, 7 and dealt out to different persons to profit withal. 12 As many members make up one natural body, so Christians in general form one mystical body : 14 and as every member is equally a part of the natural body, and hath a necessary function allotted it ; 27 so is it with Christ's body, the church ; to the several members of which God hath assigned different gifts and offices for the general good.

NOW <sup>a</sup> concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know <sup>a</sup> that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these <sup>a</sup> dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, <sup>a</sup> that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus <sup>a</sup> accursed : and <sup>a</sup> that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now <sup>a</sup> there are diversities of gifts, but <sup>a</sup> the same Spirit.

5 <sup>a</sup> And there are differences of || administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God <sup>a</sup> which worketh all in all.

7 <sup>a</sup> But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit <sup>a</sup> the word of wisdom ; to another <sup>a</sup> the word of knowledge by the same Spirit ;

9 <sup>a</sup> To another faith by the same Spirit ; to another <sup>a</sup> the gifts of healing by the same Spirit ;

10 <sup>a</sup> To another the working of miracles ; to another <sup>a</sup> prophecy ; to another discerning of spirits ; to another <sup>a</sup> divers kinds of tongues ; to another the interpretation of tongues :

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, <sup>a</sup> dividing to every man severally <sup>a</sup> as he will.

12 For <sup>a</sup> as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body : <sup>a</sup> so also is Christ.

13 For <sup>a</sup> by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, <sup>a</sup> whether we be Jews or † Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

1 All gifts, how excellent soever, without cha-ritiy are nothing worth. 4 The praises of charity, 13 and it's preference to faith and hope.

Anno DOMINI 59.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all myteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Prophecy for its greater tendency to edification is preferred before speaking with tongues.

2 Tongues not understood, like indistinct musical sounds, are of no service to the hearers.

3 All gifts should be referred to edification.

4 Tongues are of use for the conviction of unbelievers; but in the assemblies of the church prophecy is more useful.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man † understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I wold that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words † easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: <sup>c</sup> I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing <sup>c</sup> with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen <sup>c</sup> at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, <sup>a</sup> be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice <sup>a</sup> be ye children, but in understanding be † men.

21 <sup>k</sup> In the law it is † written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, <sup>m</sup> will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophecy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report <sup>n</sup> that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, <sup>o</sup> hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. <sup>o</sup> Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and <sup>a</sup> let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, <sup>a</sup> let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And <sup>a</sup> the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of † confusion, but of peace, <sup>a</sup> as in all churches of the saints.

John 4. 6.

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAP. XV.

1 From the truth of Christ's resurrection Paul inferreth the necessity of our own. 20 Christ, the firstfruits, being raised, shall be followed in due order by those that are his; 24 till having subdued all enemies he shall give up the kingdom to God the father. 29 If there be no resurrection of the dead, in vain is it for any one to risk his life, as the apostle did, continually. 35 The manner of the resurrection. 51 The change which shall be wrought at the last day in the bodies both of the dead and the living. 58 An exhortation to steadfast faith and perseverance in our duty.

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory that what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If || after the manner of men <sup>a</sup> I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage it me, if the dead rise not? <sup>o</sup> let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

34 <sup>a</sup> Awake to righteousness, and sin not; <sup>r</sup> for some have not the knowledge of God: <sup>a</sup> I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, 'How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?'

36 Thou fool, <sup>a</sup> that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 * So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 <sup>r</sup> It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam <sup>a</sup> was made a living soul; <sup>a</sup> the last Adam was made <sup>a</sup> a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 <sup>a</sup> The first man is of the earth, <sup>a</sup> earthy: the second man is the Lord <sup>a</sup> from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: <sup>a</sup> and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And <sup>a</sup> as we have borne the image of the earthy, <sup>b</sup> we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that <sup>a</sup> flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; <sup>a</sup> We shall not all sleep, <sup>a</sup> but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: <sup>a</sup> for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and <sup>a</sup> this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, <sup>o</sup> Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 <sup>a</sup> O death, where is thy sting? O || grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and <sup>a</sup> the strength of sin is the law.

57 <sup>a</sup> But thanks be to God, which giveth us <sup>a</sup> the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 <sup>a</sup> Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know <sup>a</sup> that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Paul directeth the Corinthians how to proceed in their collections for the relief of the brethren at Jerusalem. 5 He mentioneth his design of visiting them, 10 and commendeth Timothy, who was coming to them. 13 After some seasonable admonitions, 19 he closeth the epistle with divers salutations.

NOW concerning <sup>a</sup> the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 <sup>b</sup> Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, <sup>a</sup> whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your † liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 <sup>d</sup> And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, <sup>a</sup> when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may <sup>a</sup> bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, <sup>a</sup> if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For <sup>a</sup> a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and <sup>a</sup> there are many adversaries.

The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul saluteth the Corinthians; 3 and bleisseth God for the comforts and deliverances given him, not solely for his own sake, but for the comfort and encouragement of others also. 8 He telleth them of a deliverance he had lately had from a great danger in Asia, and expresseth his trust in God's protection for the future through their prayers. 12 He calleth both his own conscience and theirs to witness his sincerity in preaching the gospel; 15 and excuseth his not coming to them, as not proceeding from lightness, 23 but from lenity toward them.

PAUL, <sup>a</sup> an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, <sup>b</sup> with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 <sup>c</sup> Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 <sup>d</sup> Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble by the comfort, wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as <sup>e</sup> the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ

6 And whether we be afflicted, <sup>f</sup> it is for your consolation and salvation, which <sup>g</sup> is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that <sup>h</sup> as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of <sup>i</sup> our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, inasmuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the <sup>j</sup> sentence of death in ourselves, that we should <sup>k</sup> not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 <sup>l</sup> Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also <sup>m</sup> helping together by prayer for us, that <sup>n</sup> the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and <sup>o</sup> godly sincerity, <sup>p</sup> not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

Anno
60.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, <sup>a</sup> that we are your rejoicing, even as <sup>a</sup> ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence <sup>a</sup> I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have <sup>a</sup> a second || benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and <sup>a</sup> to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose <sup>a</sup> according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our || word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For <sup>a</sup> the son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, <sup>a</sup> but in him was yea.

20 <sup>a</sup> For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and <sup>a</sup> hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who <sup>b</sup> hath also sealed us, and <sup>c</sup> given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover <sup>a</sup> I call God for a record upon my soul, <sup>a</sup> that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for <sup>a</sup> that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for <sup>a</sup> by faith ye stand.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul having shewn a motive of tenderness for not coming to Corinth, as also for writing his former epistle, 6 declareth himself satisfied with the censure inflicted on the incessuous person, and desireth them to forgive and comfort him, 10 as he himself had forgiven him in Christ's name. 12 His uneasiness for not finding Titus at Troas had caused him to go forthwith into Macedonia. 14 He blesteth God for the successfulness of his labours every where, 17 professing his sincerity and disinterestedness before God.

BUT I determined this with myself, <sup>a</sup> that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, <sup>b</sup> I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; <sup>a</sup> having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; <sup>a</sup> not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But <sup>a</sup> if any have caused grief, he hath not <sup>a</sup> grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this || punishment, which was inflicted <sup>a</sup> of many.

7 <sup>a</sup> So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be <sup>a</sup> obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it || in the person of Christ;

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, <sup>a</sup> when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and <sup>a</sup> a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 <sup>a</sup> I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest <sup>a</sup> the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, <sup>a</sup> in them that are saved, and <sup>a</sup> in them that perish:

16 <sup>a</sup> To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And <sup>a</sup> who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which || corrupt the word of God: but as <sup>a</sup> of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we || in Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 To obviate the imputation of vain glory, Paul sheweth that the gifts and graces of the Corinthians were a sufficient commendation of his ministry, 4 the efficacy of which he ascribeth entirely to God. 6 He proveth the superior excellency of the gospel ministry to that of the law; 12 and thereupon justifieth his plain speaking, as under a dispensation of greater light and liberty than that of Moses.

Col. 3. 20.

DO we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which was done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IV.

1 Paul declareth his unwearied zeal and integrity in preaching the gospel; 3 so that if any see not the truth of it, it must be owing to their corrupt hearts, not to want of clear light. 7 The weakness and sufferings he was exposed to redounded to the praise of God's power. 12 That which animated him in undergoing them for the church's sake was the assurance of a more exceeding and eternal reward.

Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then, death worketh in us, but life in you:

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that <sup>c</sup> he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For <sup>d</sup> all things are for your sakes, that <sup>e</sup> the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet <sup>f</sup> the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For <sup>g</sup> our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 <sup>h</sup> While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul declareth that in assured hope of a blessed immortality hereafter he was indifferent to life, and laboured only to approve himself to Christ: 10 that knowing the general judgment that would follow, and the terrors of it, he was solicitous to persuade men: 12 that this was said not by way of boasting, but purely to furnish the Corinthians with a reply in his justification against false pretenders: 14 that moved by the love of Christ, he was become dead to all former regards; 17 and all things being now made new by God in Christ reconciling the world to himself, 20 he, as ambassador for Christ, besought men to embrace the offered reconciliation.

FOR we know that if <sup>a</sup> our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this <sup>b</sup> we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that <sup>c</sup> being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but <sup>d</sup> clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now <sup>e</sup> he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also <sup>f</sup> hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For <sup>g</sup> we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and <sup>h</sup> willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we <sup>i</sup> labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 <sup>j</sup> For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; <sup>k</sup> that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore <sup>l</sup> the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but <sup>m</sup> we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For <sup>n</sup> we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion <sup>o</sup> to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory <sup>p</sup> in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For <sup>q</sup> whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that <sup>r</sup> if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, <sup>s</sup> that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 <sup>t</sup> Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, <sup>u</sup> yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man <sup>v</sup> be in Christ, <sup>w</sup> he is <sup>x</sup> a new creature: <sup>y</sup> old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, <sup>z</sup> who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that <sup>a</sup> God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath <sup>b</sup> committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are <sup>c</sup> ambassadors for Christ, as <sup>d</sup> though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For <sup>e</sup> he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made <sup>f</sup> the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

1 Paul intreateth the Corinthians not to frustrate God's grace: 3 setting forth his own inoffensive, painful, and patient, demeanour in the discharge of his ministry: 11 of which he telleth them he spake more freely out of the great love he bare them; 13 challenging the like affection from them in return. 14 He dissuadeth from any intimate connexions with unbelievers. 16 Christians are the temples of the living God.

WE then, as <sup>a</sup> workers together with him, <sup>b</sup> beseech you also <sup>c</sup> that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, ' I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 ' Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things † approving ourselves ' as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 ' In stripes, in imprisonments, || in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 ' By the word of truth, by ' the power of God, by ' the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and ' yet well known; ' as dying, and, behold, we live; ' as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, ' our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ' ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, ( ' I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 ' Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for ' what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ' ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, ' I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 ' Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, 18 ' And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

C H A P. VII.

1 Paul exhorteth the Corinthians to purity of life, 2. and to receive him, who had done nothing to forfeit their esteem: 3. he repeateth the assurance of his love for them, and sheweth what comfort he had received in all his troubles from the report which Titus had brought of their good dispositions toward him: 8 so that upon the whole he did not repent of having grieved them a little by letter, considering the good effects which that godly sorrow had produced. 13 Above all be rejoiced to observe the good impressions which their behaviour, so answerable to his former boasts of them, had left in the mind of Titus.

HAVING ' therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, ' we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for ' I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 ' Great is my boldness of speech toward you, ' great is my glorying of you: ' I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, ' when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but ' we were troubled on every side; ' without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless ' God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by ' the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, ' though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry || after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For ' godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: ' but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, <sup>p</sup> but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit <sup>2</sup> was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his † inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth <sup>r</sup> the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoyce therefore that <sup>a</sup> I have confidence in you in all things.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Paul extolletb the liberal contributions of the Macedonian churches for the relief of the brethren in Judea: 6 and recommendeth the like charity to the Corinthians, as well beseeiming their other graces, 9 enforced by Christ's example, 10 consistent with the alacrity they had already expressed therein, 13 and a precedent which might in time be of use to themselves.

16 He letteth them know the willingness of Titus to come and further this good work among them; and commendeth him to their love, together with the brethren, men of special worth, who were sent with him on the same errand.

Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and <sup>a</sup> their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their † liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us <sup>b</sup> the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Inasmuch that <sup>c</sup> we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same || grace also.

7 Therefore, as <sup>e</sup> ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see <sup>e</sup> that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup> that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor; that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein <sup>b</sup> I give my advice: for † this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be † forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For † if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, <sup>m</sup> He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted <sup>n</sup> the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him <sup>o</sup> the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also <sup>p</sup> chosen of the churches to travel with us with this || grace, which is administered by us <sup>q</sup> to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 <sup>r</sup> Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which || I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are <sup>s</sup> the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our <sup>t</sup> boasting on your behalf.

CHAP. X.

1 Paul intreateth the Corinthians not to leave him cause to exert against them that spiritual power, with which he was armed, and meant to chastise those, who undervalued his person and apostolical character. 12 He pointeth out the difference between those, who for want of looking beyond themselves were arrogant and vain, intruding into, and taking merit from, the labours of others, and himself, who kept strictly within the province allotted him by God, and avoiding selfcommendation, sought honour from the commendation of Christ.

CHAP. XI.

1 Paul unwillingly entereth upon a commendation of himself, out of jealousy lest the Corinthians should be perverted by false apostles from the pure doctrine of Christ. 5 He sheweth that he was in all respects equal to the chiefest apostles; 7 that he declined being chargeable to them not for want of love toward them, but to cut off occasion from those deceitful workers of taking shelter under his example: 16 that he was not inferior to those, whom they so patiently submitted to, in any of their boasted prerogatives; 23 but as a minister of Christ, in labours and sufferings for the gospel's sake, was abundantly their superior.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in <sup>a</sup> my folly: and indeed || bear with me.

2 For I am <sup>b</sup> jealous over you with godly jealousy: for <sup>c</sup> I have espoused you to one husband, <sup>d</sup> that I may present you <sup>e</sup> as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as <sup>f</sup> the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds <sup>g</sup> should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or <sup>h</sup> another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear || with him.

5 For I suppose <sup>i</sup> I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, <sup>o</sup> I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me <sup>p</sup> the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself <sup>q</sup> from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, <sup>r</sup> no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? <sup>s</sup> because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, <sup>t</sup> that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such <sup>u</sup> are false apostles, <sup>v</sup> deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into <sup>w</sup> an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the <sup>x</sup> ministers of righteousness; <sup>y</sup> whose end shall be according to their works.

16 <sup>z</sup> I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool || receive me, that I may boast myself a little.
17 That which I speak, <sup>a</sup> I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, <sup>b</sup> in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, <sup>c</sup> seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, <sup>d</sup> if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, <sup>e</sup> as though we had been weak. Howbeit <sup>f</sup> whereinssoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? <sup>g</sup> so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; <sup>h</sup> in labours more abundant, <sup>i</sup> in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, <sup>j</sup> in deaths oft.

32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascus with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

1 Paul sheweth that, though he had been favoured with visions and revelations, yet for commendation of his apostleship he chose rather to glory in his infirmities: 11 blaming the Corinthians, who had seen in him all the signs of an apostle, for forcing him to such vain boasting. 14 He telleth them of his design of visiting them again with the same disinterestedness and fatherly affection as before. 16 He justifieth himself from any crafty extortion by his messengers; 20 and expresseth his fears, lest, both to his sorrow and theirs, he should find many notorious disorders still unredressed among them.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ about fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein you were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burthenome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdosome to you: for I seek not your's, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burthen you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I <sup>1</sup> ch. 2. 1, 4. <sup>1</sup> will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many <sup>m</sup> which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and <sup>n</sup> fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

THIS is <sup>a</sup> the third time I am coming to you. <sup>b</sup> In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

<sup>2</sup> I told you before, and foretel you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them <sup>d</sup> which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, <sup>e</sup> I will not spare:

God. For <sup>i</sup> we also are weak <sup>j</sup> in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

<sup>5</sup> Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, <sup>k</sup> how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be <sup>l</sup> reprobates?

<sup>7</sup> Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do <sup>m</sup> that which is honest, though <sup>n</sup> we be as reprobates.

<sup>8</sup> For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

<sup>9</sup> For we are glad, <sup>o</sup> when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, <sup>p</sup> even your perfection.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

<sup>3</sup> Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us <sup>f</sup> from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

<sup>5</sup> To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>7</sup> Which is not another; but there be some <sup>h</sup> that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

<sup>8</sup> But though <sup>i</sup> we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

<sup>9</sup> As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you, <sup>j</sup> than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For ° do I now ° persuade men, or God? or ° do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 ° But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For ° I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but ° by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that ° beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and ° wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my † equals in mine own nation, ° being more exceedingly zealous ° of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, ° who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 ° To reveal his Son in me, that ° I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with ° flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years ° I † went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But ° other of the apostles say I none, save ° James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, ° behold, before God, I lie not.

21 ° Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face ° unto the churches of Judea which ° were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

C H A P. II.

1 Paul sheweth for what purpose after many years he went to Jerusalem; 3 that Titus, who went with him, was not circumcised, and that or purpose to assert the freedom of the Gentile converts from the bondage of the law; 6 that no new knowledge was added to him in conference with the three chief apostles, but that he received from them a public acknowledgment of his divine mission to the Gentiles; 11 that he openly withstood Peter for dissimulation with respect to Gentile communion, 14 expostulating with him, why he, who believed that justification came by the faith of Christ, acted as though it came by the works of the law; 21 which was in effect to frustrate the grace of God.

THEN fourteen years after ° I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, ° and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but † privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means ° I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of ° false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our ° liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, ° that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that ° the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of those ° who seemed to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: ° God accepteth no man's person: for they who seemed to be somewhat ° in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, ° when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision ° was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, ° the same was ° mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be ° pillars, perceived ° the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; ° the same which I also was forward to do.

11 ° But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, ° he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to ° the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter ° before them all, ° If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 <sup>2</sup> We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 <sup>b</sup> Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but <sup>c</sup> by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for <sup>d</sup> by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I <sup>f</sup> through the law <sup>g</sup> am dead to the law, that I might <sup>h</sup> live unto God.

20 I am <sup>i</sup> crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh <sup>k</sup> I live by the faith of the Son of God, <sup>l</sup> who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for <sup>m</sup> if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAP. III.

1 Paul asketh what had moved the Galatians to depend on the law, having already received the spirit through faith. 6 As Abraham was justified by faith, so they who are of faith inherit his blessing. 10 The law brought men under a curse, and could not justify. 13 Christ hath freed us from the curse, and laid open the blessing to all believers. 15 Supposing that the law justified, God's covenant with Abraham would be void. 19 But the law was only a temporary provision against sin till Christ's coming, and in no wise contrary to God's promises: 23 serving as a schoolmaster to prepare men for Christ. 25 But faith being come, the law is at an end, and all believers are without distinction become children of God, and heirs of the promise.

O Foolish Galatians, <sup>a</sup> who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey <sup>b</sup> the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye <sup>c</sup> the Spirit by the works of the law, <sup>d</sup> or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? <sup>e</sup> having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 <sup>f</sup> Have ye suffered <sup>g</sup> so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore <sup>h</sup> that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, <sup>i</sup> doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as <sup>j</sup> Abraham believed God, and it was <sup>k</sup> accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that <sup>l</sup> they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And <sup>m</sup> the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, <sup>n</sup> saying, <sup>o</sup> In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, <sup>p</sup> Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But <sup>q</sup> that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, <sup>r</sup> it is evident: for,

12 And <sup>t</sup> the law is not of faith: but, <sup>u</sup> The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 <sup>v</sup> Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, <sup>w</sup> Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 <sup>x</sup> That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive <sup>y</sup> the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; <sup>z</sup> Though it be but a man's <sup>aa</sup> covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now <sup>ab</sup> to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is <sup>ac</sup> Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, <sup>ad</sup> which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, <sup>ae</sup> that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if <sup>af</sup> the inheritance be of the law, <sup>ag</sup> it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then <sup>ah</sup> serveth the law? <sup>ai</sup> It was added because of transgressions, till <sup>aj</sup> the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was <sup>ak</sup> ordained by angels in the hand <sup>al</sup> of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, <sup>am</sup> but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But <sup>m</sup> the scripture hath concluded <sup>n</sup> all under sin, <sup>o</sup> that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore <sup>p</sup> the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, <sup>q</sup> that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye <sup>r</sup> are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For <sup>s</sup> as many of you as have been baptized into Christ <sup>t</sup> have put on Christ.

28 <sup>u</sup> There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all <sup>x</sup> one in Christ Jesus.

29 And <sup>y</sup> if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and <sup>z</sup> heirs according to the promise.

CHAP. IV.

1 The Jews were for a while held under the law, as an heir under his guardian till he be of age.

4 But Christ came to redeem those that were under the law, and to give both to Jew and Gentile the adoption, and consequently the freedom, of sons. 8 Paul therefore reproveth the Galatians, who from serving idols had been received of God, for falling back to the bondage of legal observances. 11 He expresseth his fears and tender regard for them, and calleth to mind their former respect and good will to him, from which he admonisheth them not to be seduced in his absence. 21 He allegorically describeth the Jewish and Christian churches under the types of Agar and Sara, and inferreth that we, being children of the freewoman, are free.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, <sup>a</sup> were in bondage under the <sup>b</sup> elements of the world:

4 But <sup>c</sup> when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, <sup>d</sup> made <sup>e</sup> of a woman, <sup>f</sup> made under the law,

5 <sup>g</sup> To redeem them that were under the law, <sup>h</sup> that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth <sup>i</sup> the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; <sup>j</sup> and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, <sup>k</sup> when ye knew not God, <sup>l</sup> ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, <sup>m</sup> after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, <sup>n</sup> how turn ye <sup>o</sup> again to <sup>p</sup> the weak and beggarly <sup>q</sup> elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 <sup>r</sup> Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, <sup>s</sup> lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am <sup>t</sup> as ye are: <sup>u</sup> ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how <sup>v</sup> through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you: <sup>w</sup> at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me <sup>x</sup> as an angel of God, <sup>y</sup> even as Christ Jesus.

15 <sup>z</sup> Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, <sup>a</sup> because I tell you the truth?

17 They <sup>b</sup> zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude <sup>c</sup> you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 <sup>d</sup> My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for <sup>e</sup> I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, <sup>f</sup> the one by a bondmaid, <sup>g</sup> the other by a freewoman:

23 But he <sup>h</sup> who was of the bondwoman <sup>i</sup> was born after the flesh; <sup>j</sup> but he of the freewoman <sup>k</sup> was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two <sup>l</sup> covenants; the one from the mount † Sina, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and || answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But S Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, <sup>b</sup> Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are <sup>a</sup> the children of promise.

29 But as then <sup>a</sup> he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, <sup>1</sup> even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith <sup>m</sup> the scripture? <sup>a</sup> Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for <sup>o</sup> the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, <sup>p</sup> but of the free.

C H A P. V.

1 Paul exhorteth the Galatians to maintain their Christian liberty, 2 and sheweth that by being circumcised they would forfeit their hopes in Christ. 7 He disclaimeth the preaching of circumcision himself, and condemneth it in others. 13 He adviseth them not to abuse their liberty, but to serve one another in love, which comprehendeth the whole law. 16 The opposition between the flesh and the spirit: 19 The works of the flesh: 22 The fruits of the spirit. 25 Advice to walk in the spirit, and not in vain-glorious emulation.

STAND fast therefore in <sup>a</sup> the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again <sup>b</sup> with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that <sup>c</sup> if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, <sup>d</sup> that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 <sup>e</sup> Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; <sup>f</sup> ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit <sup>g</sup> wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For <sup>h</sup> in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but <sup>i</sup> faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye <sup>k</sup> did run well; <sup>l</sup> || who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him <sup>m</sup> that calleth you.

9 <sup>n</sup> A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 <sup>o</sup> I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but <sup>p</sup> he that troubleth you <sup>q</sup> shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 <sup>r</sup> And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, <sup>s</sup> why do I yet suffer persecution? then is <sup>t</sup> the offence of the cross ceased.

12 <sup>u</sup> I would they were even cut off <sup>v</sup> which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only <sup>w</sup> use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but <sup>x</sup> by love serve one another.

14 For <sup>y</sup> all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; <sup>z</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, <sup>a</sup> Walk in the Spirit, and <sup>b</sup> ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For <sup>c</sup> the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: <sup>d</sup> so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But <sup>e</sup> if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now <sup>f</sup> the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, 21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that <sup>g</sup> they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But <sup>h</sup> the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, <sup>i</sup> gentleness, <sup>j</sup> goodness, <sup>k</sup> faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: <sup>l</sup> against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's <sup>m</sup> have crucified the flesh with the <sup>n</sup> affections and lusts.

25 <sup>o</sup> If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 <sup>p</sup> Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

C H A P. VI.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After saluting the Ephesians, 3 Paul blesteth God for his spiritual blessings on those whom he had chosen in Christ, and predestinated to the adoption of children; 7 for our redemption by his grace, according to his revealed purpose of gathering together all in one under Christ; 11 for the inheritance already obtained by those who first trusted in Christ; 13 and for the spirit given to after believers, as an earnest of the same. 15 He declareth his continual thankfulness to God for their faith, and his prayers that God would perfect them in the knowledge of those things, which concerned their state in Christ, 20 whom God had raised up, and exalted to be the supreme head of his body the church.

3 <sup>a</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly <sup>b</sup> places in Christ:

CHAP. II.

Anno
64.

1 Paul setteth before the Ephesians their former corrupt beathen state, 4 and God's rich mercy in their deliverance. 8 We are saved by grace, not of works, yet so as to be created in Christ unto good works. 11 They who were once strangers, and far from God, are now brought near by Christ's blood, who having abolished the ritual law, the ground of distinction between Jew and Gentile, hath united both in one body, and gained them equal access to the Father. 19 So that the Gentiles are henceforth equally privileged with the Jews, and together with them constitute an holy temple for the habitation of God's Spirit.

AND <sup>a</sup> you <sup>b</sup> hath he quickened, <sup>c</sup> who were dead in trespasses and sins ;

2 <sup>d</sup> Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to <sup>e</sup> the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in <sup>f</sup> the children of disobedience :

3 <sup>g</sup> Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in <sup>h</sup> the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling <sup>i</sup> the desires of the flesh and of the mind ; and <sup>j</sup> were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, <sup>k</sup> who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 <sup>l</sup> Even when we were dead in sins, hath <sup>m</sup> quickened us together with Christ, (<sup>n</sup> by grace ye are saved ;)

6 And hath raised <sup>o</sup> us up together, and made <sup>p</sup> us sit together <sup>q</sup> in heavenly places in Christ Jesus :

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in <sup>r</sup> his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 <sup>s</sup> For by grace are ye saved <sup>t</sup> through faith ; and that not of yourselves : <sup>u</sup> it is the gift of God :

9 <sup>v</sup> Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are <sup>w</sup> his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, <sup>x</sup> which God hath before <sup>y</sup> ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore <sup>z</sup> remember, that ye <sup>aa</sup> being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called <sup>ab</sup> the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands ;

12 <sup>ac</sup> That at that time ye were without Christ, <sup>ad</sup> being aliens from the common-

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

CHAP. III.

1 Paul, in bonds for preaching Christ to the Gentiles, sheweth that the mystery of their calling, heretofore hidden, had been revealed to him, 7 that by his ministry God's gracious purpose might be universally known, and the Gentiles be assured of their acceptance by faith. 13 He desireth his Ephesian converts not to be discouraged at his sufferings on their account; 14 and prayeth that God would strengthen their faith and knowledge of the infinite love of Christ. 20 He giveth glory to God for his power in the church by Christ Jesus.

FOR this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 (If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; as I wrote afore in few words;

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ,

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto the holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask

C H A P. IV.

1 Paul exhorteth to those virtues which become the Christian calling, particularly to unity: 7 declaring that Christ gave his gifts differently, that his body the church might be built up and perfected in the true faith by the cooperation of the several members with one another, and with him their head. 17 He calleth men off from the vain and impure conversation of the beaten world, 22 to renounce the old, and to put on the new man: 25 to discard lying, 26 and sinful anger; 28 to leave off dishonest practices, and to gain by honest labour what they have occasion for; 29 to use no corrupt talk, 30 nor grieve God's spirit; 31 to put away all expressions of ill will, and to practice mutual kindness and forgiveness.

I Therefore, * the prisoner || of the Lord, beseech you that ye * walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 * With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit * in the bond of peace.

4 * There is one body, and * one Spirit, even as ye are called in one * hope of your calling;

5 * One Lord, * one faith, * one baptism,

6 * One God and Father of all, who is above all, and * through all, and in you all.

7 But * unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, * When he ascended up on high, * he led || captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 * (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?)

10 He that descended is the same also
* that ascended up far above all heavens,
* that he might || fill all things.)

11 * And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, * evangelists;
and some, * pastors and * teachers;

12 * For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, * for the edifying of * the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come || in the unity of the faith, * and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto * a perfect man, unto the measure of the || stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more * children, * tossed to and fro, and carried about with every * wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, * whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But * || speaking the truth in love,
* may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 * From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that * ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, * in the vanity of their mind,

18 * Having the understanding darkened,
* being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the * || blindness of their heart:

19 * Who being past feeling * have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 * If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye * put off concerning * the former conversation * the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And * be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye * put on the new man, which after God * is created in righteouf-ness and || true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, * speak every man truth with his neighbour: for * we are members one of another.

26 * Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 * Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more:
but rather * let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have || to give * to him that needeth.

29 * Let no corrupt communication proceeded out of your mouth, but * that which is good || to the use of edifying, * that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And * grieve not the holy Spirit of God, * whereby ye are sealed unto day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, * with all malice :

32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, * forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

C H A P. V.

1 Paul exhorteth to the imitation of God, and of the love of Christ : 3 to avoid fornication and all uncleanness, 5 which exclude from the kingdom of God, and draw down God's wrath on unbelievers : 7 with whose works of darkness Christians, that have better light to inform and influence them, should have no fellowship : 15 to walk with prudence and circumspection ; 18 not to drink wine to excess, but to be filled with the spirit, singing psalms, and giving thanks to God ; 21 and being in due subordination to one another. 22 The duty of wives toward their husbands, 25 and of husbands toward their wives, enforced by the example of Christ and his church.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children ;

2 And walk in love, * as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints ;

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient : but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words : for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord : walk as children of light :

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth ;)

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light : for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess ; but be filled with the Spirit ;

19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord ;

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ ;

21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church : and he is the saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it ;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing ; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh ; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church :

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

CHAP. VI.

1 The relative duties of children, 4 and parents; 5 of servants, 9 and masters. 10 Paul exhorteth the brethren to resist spiritual enemies by putting on the whole armour of God, 18 and by perseverance in prayer, which he requireth for all saints, and particularly for himself, that he might preach the gospel with due boldness. 21 He commendeth Tychicus, 23 and concludeth with good wishes to all sincere Christians.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, as forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul saluteth the Philippians, 3 and testifieth his thankfulness to God for their uninterrupted fellowship in the gospel: 8 his affection for them, 9 and prayers for their spiritual improvement. 12 He informeth them that his bonds at Rome had turned out to the advancement of the gospel, which many were thereby induced to preach, though with different views: 21 that considering how serviceable his life might be to the cause of Christ, though for himself it were happier to die, he was doubtful in his choice: 25 but that he knew he should soon be at liberty to visit them again for

ch. 4. 23.

Or,

for

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons :

2<sup>b</sup> Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3<sup>c</sup> I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5<sup>d</sup> For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now ;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun<sup>e</sup> a good work in you || will perform it<sup>f</sup> until the day of Jesus Christ :

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because || I have you<sup>g</sup> in my heart ; inasmuch as both in<sup>h</sup> my bonds, and in<sup>i</sup> the defence and confirmation of the gospel, <sup>k</sup> ye all are || partakers of my grace.

8 For<sup>l</sup> God is my record, <sup>m</sup> how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, <sup>n</sup> that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all || judgment ;

10 That<sup>o</sup> ye may || approve things that || are excellent ; <sup>p</sup> that ye may be sincere and without offence<sup>q</sup> till the day of Christ ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, <sup>r</sup> which are by Jesus Christ, <sup>s</sup> unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel ;

13 So that my bonds || in Christ are manifest <sup>t</sup> in all || the palace, and || in all other places ;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and<sup>u</sup> strife ; and some also of good will :

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds :

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for<sup>v</sup> the defence of the gospel.

18 What then ? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached ; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation<sup>w</sup> through your prayer, and the supply of<sup>x</sup> the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 According to my<sup>y</sup> earnest expectation and my hope, that<sup>z</sup> in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that<sup>a</sup> with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour : yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For<sup>b</sup> I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to<sup>c</sup> depart, and to be with Christ ; which is far better :

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And<sup>d</sup> having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith ;

26 That<sup>e</sup> your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only<sup>f</sup> let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ : that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, <sup>g</sup> that ye stand fast in one spirit, <sup>h</sup> with one mind<sup>i</sup> striving together for the faith of the gospel ;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries : <sup>j</sup> which is to them an evident token of perdition, <sup>k</sup> but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you<sup>l</sup> it is given in the behalf of Christ, <sup>m</sup> not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake ;

30<sup>n</sup> Having the same conflict<sup>o</sup> which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul earnestly recommendeth to the Philippians mutual love and union, 3 lowliness of mind,

4 and that charitable condescension for the good of others, exemplified in the life and death of Christ, 9 for which God had exalted him to be Lord of all. 12 He exhorteth them to carefulness in working out their own salvation, 14 to obey the will of God cheerfully and universally, that so they might distinguish themselves from the rest of the world by a bright example of virtue ; 16 and by their steadiness give him cause to rejoice in the success of his labours, who would gladly lay down his life to serve them. 19 He hopeth to send Timothy to them shortly, whom he greatly commendeth ; 21 as he doth the affection and zeal of Epaphroditus, whom he sendeth with this epistle.

2<sup>c</sup> Fulfil ye my joy, <sup>d</sup> that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3<sup>e</sup> Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but <sup>f</sup> in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4<sup>g</sup> Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5<sup>h</sup> Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, <sup>i</sup> being in the form of God, <sup>k</sup> thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7<sup>l</sup> But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form <sup>m</sup> of a servant, and <sup>n</sup> was made in the <sup>o</sup> likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and <sup>p</sup> became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also <sup>q</sup> hath highly exalted him, and <sup>r</sup> given him a name which is above every name:

10<sup>s</sup> That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And <sup>t</sup> that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, <sup>u</sup> as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with <sup>v</sup> fear and trembling.

13 For <sup>w</sup> it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things <sup>x</sup> without murmurings and <sup>y</sup> disputings:

16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if <sup>e</sup> I be <sup>f</sup> offered upon the sacrifice <sup>g</sup> and service of your faith, <sup>h</sup> I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 || But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send <sup>i</sup> Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man <sup>j</sup> || likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all <sup>k</sup> seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, <sup>l</sup> that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But <sup>m</sup> I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you <sup>n</sup> Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and <sup>o</sup> fellow-soldier, <sup>p</sup> but your messenger, and <sup>q</sup> he that ministered to my wants.

26<sup>r</sup> For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and <sup>s</sup> || hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, <sup>t</sup> to supply your lack of service toward me.

C H A P. III.

1 Paul exhorteth to rejoice in the Lord, and to beware of the false teachers of the circumcision: 4 shewing that as a Jew he had better grounds of confidence than they; 7 but that he disclaimed them all, trusting only to the justification which is of God by faith, and hoping to partake of the resurrection through Christ.

12 He acknowledgeth his present imperfection, and that he was still anxiously striving for the prize: 15 exhorting others to be likeminded, 17 and to follow his example; 18 for many were enemies to the gospel, being earthly minded; 20 but his conversation and views were heavenly.

FINALLY, my brethren, <sup>u</sup> rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2<sup>v</sup> Beware of dogs, beware of <sup>w</sup> evil workers, <sup>x</sup> beware of the concision.

3 For we are <sup>y</sup> the circumcision, <sup>z</sup> which worship God in the spirit, and <sup>a</sup> rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though <sup>b</sup> I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more :

6 <sup>a</sup> Concerning zeal, <sup>a</sup> persecuting the church ; <sup>a</sup> touching the righteousness which is in the law, <sup>a</sup> blameless.

7 But <sup>a</sup> what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss <sup>a</sup> for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord : for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having <sup>a</sup> mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but <sup>a</sup> that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith :

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and <sup>a</sup> the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death ;

11 If by any means I might <sup>a</sup> attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already <sup>a</sup> attained, either were already <sup>b</sup> perfect : but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended : but this one thing I do, <sup>a</sup> forgetting those things which are behind, and <sup>a</sup> reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 <sup>a</sup> I press toward the mark for the prize of <sup>a</sup> the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be <sup>a</sup> perfect, <sup>a</sup> be thus minded : and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, <sup>a</sup> let us walk <sup>a</sup> by the same rule, <sup>a</sup> let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, <sup>a</sup> be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as <sup>a</sup> ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are <sup>a</sup> the enemies of the cross of Christ :

20 For <sup>a</sup> our conversation is in heaven ;

21 <sup>a</sup> Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, <sup>a</sup> according to the working whereby he is able <sup>a</sup> even to subdue all things unto himself.

C H A P. IV.

1 Paul exciteth to steadfastness in Christ, 2 and after some particular admonitions, 3 exhorteth generally to religious joy, 5 moderation, 6 trust in God with prayer, 8 and to every branch of moral goodness. 10 He testifieth his joy in the care shewn by the Philippians for his supply in prison, though being always content he was above want ; 15 and commendeth their former liberality to him, not for his own sake, but for the good that would redound to them from it. 18 He acknowledgeth the receipt of their late bounty, assuring them that God would both accept and reward it. 20 He giveth glory to God, and concludeth with salutations, and a blessing.

Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and <sup>a</sup> longed for, <sup>b</sup> my joy and crown, so <sup>a</sup> stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, <sup>a</sup> that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which <sup>a</sup> laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in <sup>a</sup> the book of life.

4 <sup>a</sup> Rejoice in the Lord alway : and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. <sup>a</sup> The Lord is at hand.

6 <sup>a</sup> Be careful for nothing ; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And <sup>a</sup> the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are <sup>a</sup> honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, <sup>a</sup> whatsoever things are of good report ; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 <sup>a</sup> Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do : and <sup>a</sup> the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last <sup>a</sup> your care of me <sup>a</sup> hath flourished again ; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

 11 Not that I speak in respect of want : for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, 1 therewith to be content.
 12 1 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound : every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.
 13 I can do all things 1 through Christ which strengtheneth me.
 14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that 1 ye did communicate with my affliction.
 15 Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, 1 no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.
 16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift : but I desire 1 fruit that may abound to your account.
 18 But 1 I have all, and abound : I am full, having received 1 of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, 1 an odour of a sweet smell, 2 a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.
 19 But my God 1 shall supply all your need 1 according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.
 20 1 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
 21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren 1 which are with me greet you.
 22 All the saints salute you, 1 chiefly they that are of Cesar's household.
 23 1 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After saluting the saints at Colosse, 3 Paul testifieth his thankfulness to God for the good account he had heard of their faith and love; 9 and his continual prayers for their improvement in spiritual knowledge, right practice, and thanksgiving to God for the benefits of redemption by his son. 15 He sheweth them the exalted nature and mediatorial office of Christ, 21 by whom they, who were once enemies, were now reconciled, if they continued true to the gospel, 23 whereof he Paul was made a minister to preach it to the Gentiles.

PAUL, 1 an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To the saints 1 and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse : 1 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 1 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 1 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of 1 the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope 1 which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel ;

6 Which is come unto you, 1 as it is in all the world; and 1 bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew 1 the grace of God in truth :

7 As ye also learned of 1 Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you 1 a faithful minister of Christ ;

8 Who also declared unto us your 1 love in the Spirit.

9 1 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire 1 that ye might be filled with 1 the knowledge of his will 1 in all wisdom and spiritual understanding ;

10 1 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord 1 unto all pleasing, 1 being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God ;

11 1 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, 1 unto all patience and longsuffering 1 with joyfulness ;

12 1 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of 1 the inheritance of the saints in light :

13 Who hath delivered us from 1 the power of darkness, 1 and hath translated us into the kingdom of 1 his dear Son :

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins :

15 Who is 1 the image of the invisible God, 1 the firstborn of every creature :

16 For 1 by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or 1 dominions, or principalities, or powers : all things were created 1 by him, and for him :

17 1 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

C H A P. II.

1 Paul testifieth his sollicitude for the churches which had not seen him, that they might be united in love, and attain a perfect knowledge of the Christian revelation, 4 not being seduced from their steadfastness in the faith, 8 nor corrupted through philosophy and human traditions. 9 He sheweth that they were already complete in Christ, having attained the true circumcision figured in baptism; 13 that God bad quickened them with Christ, and both abolished the law of ordinances, that was against them, 15 and also spoiled principalities and powers. 16 He therefore urgeth them not to submit to legal ordinances, which were but a shadow of Christ; nor to the worship of angels, and other vain practices of human devising.

FOR I would that ye knew what great <sup>o</sup> conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 <sup>p</sup> That their hearts might be comforted, <sup>q</sup> being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, <sup>r</sup> to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 <sup>s</sup> In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, <sup>t</sup> lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For <sup>u</sup> though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding <sup>v</sup> your order, and the <sup>w</sup> steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 <sup>x</sup> As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, <sup>y</sup> so walk ye in him:

7 <sup>z</sup> Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 <sup>a</sup> Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after <sup>b</sup> the tradition of men, after the <sup>c</sup> rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For <sup>d</sup> in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 <sup>e</sup> And ye are complete in him, <sup>f</sup> which is the head of all <sup>g</sup> principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are <sup>h</sup> circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in <sup>i</sup> putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

13 <sup>o</sup> And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 <sup>p</sup> Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; meat, or in drink, or in respect<sup>h</sup> of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

15 And <sup>q</sup> having spoiled <sup>r</sup> principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them <sup>s</sup> in it.

17<sup>1</sup> Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

18<sup>k</sup> Let no man be beguile you of your reward† in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 And not holding<sup>m</sup> the head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be<sup>a</sup> dead with Christ from<sup>o</sup> the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, 21 (<sup>q</sup> Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23<sup>1</sup> Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAP. III.

1 The apostle exhorteth to be heavenly minded, 5 to mortify carnal lusts, and to put away all malice and ill dealing in respect of one another, as becometh Christians; 12 he recommendeth brotherly kindness, charity, and other general duties. 18 The relative duties of wives, 19 and husbands: 20 of children, 21 and parents: 22 and of servants toward their masters.

IF ye then<sup>a</sup> be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3<sup>a</sup> For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4<sup>a</sup> When Christ, who is<sup>f</sup> our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5<sup>h</sup> Mortify therefore<sup>i</sup> your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6<sup>a</sup> For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on<sup>o</sup> the children of disobedience:

7<sup>p</sup> In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8<sup>q</sup> But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9<sup>a</sup> Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

11 Where there is neither<sup>a</sup> Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.

12<sup>b</sup> Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long suffering;

13<sup>c</sup> Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14<sup>d</sup> And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18<sup>e</sup> Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19<sup>f</sup> Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20<sup>g</sup> Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21<sup>h</sup> Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22<sup>i</sup> Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23<sup>j</sup> And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24<sup>k</sup> Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul setteth forth in what manner he had preached the gospel to the Thessalonians, 13 and they had received and suffered for it. 17 He sheweth his desire of coming to them, and the cause which had hitherto prevented him; 19 testifying his joy and satisfaction in them.

FOR<sup>a</sup> yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain :

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at<sup>b</sup> Philippi, <sup>c</sup> we were bold in our God<sup>d</sup> to speak unto you the gospel of God<sup>e</sup> with much contention.

3<sup>f</sup> For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile :

4 But as<sup>g</sup> we were allowed of God<sup>h</sup> to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak ; <sup>i</sup> not as pleasing men, but God, <sup>k</sup> which trieth our hearts.

5 For<sup>l</sup> neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness ; <sup>m</sup> God is witness :

6<sup>n</sup> Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when<sup>o</sup> we might have <sup>p</sup> been<sup>q</sup> burdensome, <sup>r</sup> as the apostles of Christ.

7 But<sup>s</sup> we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children :

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing<sup>t</sup> to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also<sup>u</sup> our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail : for<sup>v</sup> labouring night and day, <sup>w</sup> because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10<sup>x</sup> Ye are witnesses, and God also, <sup>y</sup> how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe :

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12<sup>z</sup> That ye would walk worthy of God, <sup>aa</sup> who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God<sup>ab</sup> without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it<sup>ac</sup> not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of Ephes. 4: 1. Phil. 1: 27. Col. 1: 10. ch. 4: 1. 1 Cor. 1: 9. ch. 5: 24. 2 Thes. 2: 14. 2 Tim. 1: 9. ch. 1: 3. d Matth. 10: 40. Gal. 4: 14. 2 Pet. 3: 2.

of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for<sup>ad</sup> ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, <sup>ae</sup> even as they have of the Jews :

15<sup>af</sup> Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and<sup>ag</sup> their own prophets, and have<sup>ah</sup> persecuted us ; and they please not God, <sup>ai</sup> and are contrary to all men :

16<sup>aj</sup> Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, <sup>ak</sup> to fill up their sins alway : <sup>al</sup> for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time<sup>am</sup> in preience, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly<sup>an</sup> to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again ; but<sup>ao</sup> Satan hindered us.

19 For<sup>ap</sup> what is our hope, or joy, or<sup>aq</sup> crown of<sup>ar</sup> rejoicing ? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ<sup>as</sup> at his coming ?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAP. III.

1 The apostle sheweth that out of his great care for the Thessalonians he had sent Timothy to comfort and strengthen them in the faith; 6 whose good report of them had been a great consolation to him in his distresses. 9 He testifieth his thankfulness to God, and earnest desire to see them; 11 praying God to guide him to them, and for their increase in love and holiness unto the end.

2 And sent<sup>aw</sup> Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith :

3<sup>ax</sup> That no man should be moved by these afflictions : for yourselves know that<sup>ay</sup> we are appointed thereunto.

4<sup>az</sup> For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation ; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, <sup>ba</sup> when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, <sup>bb</sup> left by some means the tempter have tempted you, and<sup>bc</sup> our labour be in vain.

6<sup>bd</sup> But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, <sup>be</sup> as we also to see you :

7 Therefore, brethren, <sup>bf</sup> we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith :

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God ;

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith ?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you :

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

CHAP. IV.

1 Paul exhorteth the Thessalonians to proceed in their endeavours to please God by a holy and just conversation. 9 He commendeth their love to one another, intreating them to abound in it, 11 and quietly to follow their respective callings.
13 And that they might not sorrow for the dead, as men without hope, he briefly describeth the resurrection of the just, and Christ's second coming.

Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please
God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication :

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour ;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God :

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter : because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto un-cleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you : for ye yourselfes are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia : but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more ;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you ;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God : and the dead in Christ shall rise first :

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air : and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 The apostle proceedeth to shew that Christ's coming will be sudden, exhorting Christians to watch and be sober, so as not to be taken by surprize. 12 He beseecheth them to respect their spiritual guides ; 14 and giveth divers other precepts ; 23 concluding with a prayer and salutations.

BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety ; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child ; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day shall overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and

8 But let us, who are of the day, be ſober, <sup>m</sup> putting on the breſtplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of ſalvation.

9 For <sup>n</sup> God hath not appointed us to wrath, <sup>o</sup> but to obtain ſalvation by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, 10 <sup>p</sup> Who died for us, that, whether we wake or ſleep, we ſhould live together with him.

11 <sup>q</sup> Wherefore || comfort yourſelves together, and edify one another, even as alſo ye do.

12 And we beſeech you, brethren, <sup>r</sup> to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admoniſh you;

13 And to eſteem them very highly in love for their work's ſake. <sup>s</sup> And be at peace among yourſelves.

14 Now we || exhort you, brethren, <sup>t</sup> warn them that are || unruly, <sup>u</sup> comfort the feeble minded, <sup>v</sup> ſupport the weak, <sup>w</sup> be patient toward all men.

The Second Epiſtle of PAUL the Apoſtle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

Anno
54.

1 The ſalutation. 3 Paul certiſieth the Theſſalonians of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience; 6 of the righteous judgment of God in puniſhing their enemies, and recompenſing their ſufferings; 11 and of his prayers that God would fulfil his gracious purpoſe in them.

PAUL, <sup>a</sup> and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Theſſalonians <sup>b</sup> in God our Father and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

2 <sup>c</sup> Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 <sup>d</sup> We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, becauſe that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that <sup>e</sup> we ourſelves glory in you in the churches of God <sup>f</sup> for your patience and faith <sup>g</sup> in all your perſecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is <sup>h</sup> a manifeſt token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, <sup>i</sup> for which ye alſo ſuffer:

6 <sup>k</sup> Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompenſe tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled <sup>l</sup> reſt with us, when <sup>m</sup> the Lord Jeſus ſhall be revealed from heaven with <sup>n</sup> his mighty angels,

8 <sup>o</sup> In flaming fire || taking vengeance on them <sup>p</sup> that know not God, and <sup>q</sup> that obey not the goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

9 <sup>r</sup> Who ſhall be puniſhed with everlaſting deſtruction from the preſence of the Lord, and <sup>s</sup> from the glory of his power;

10 <sup>t</sup> When he ſhall come to be glorified in his ſaints, <sup>u</sup> and to be admired in all them that believe (becauſe our teſtimony among you was believed) in that day.

C H A P. II.

1 Paul warneth the Theſſalonians againſt a groundleſs ſurmiſe that the day of Chriſt was near at hand; 3 ſhewing that it would be preceded by a great apoſtaſy, and that the man of ſin would be firſt revealed, and by his wicked impoſtures draw many into perdition. 13 He repeateth his good hopes concerning them, 15 exhorting them to ſtand faſt in his doctrine, and praying God to comfort and ſtabliſh them in all goodneſs.

C H A P. III.

1 The Apoſtle deſireth the Theſſalonians to pray for him, 3 teſtifying his confidence in them, 5 and praying God to direct them. 6 He cenſureth the idle and diſorderly, and requireth others to abſtain from their company: 16 concluding with prayer and ſalutation.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free courſe, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from unreaſonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who ſhall ſtabliſh you, and keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Chriſt.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Chriſt, that ye withdraw yourſelves from every brother that walketh diſorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourſelves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourſelves diſorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 Not becauſe we have not power, but to make ourſelves an enſample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither ſhould he eat.

The First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

Anno DOMINI 63.

1 The salutation. 3 Timothy is put in mind of the charge before given him by Paul. 5 The end of the commandment is charity, from which some had turned aside to teach the law which they understood not. 8 The scope of the law was to condemn wickedness, which is the design of the gospel also. 12 Paul blesteth God for calling him to the ministry notwithstanding his great demerit, whereby all penitent sinners that believe are assured of mercy through Christ. 18 He urgeth Timothy to a due discharge of his trust, warning him of some who had deserted the truth, of whom Hymeneus and Alexander had been delivered by him unto Satan.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ * by the commandment * of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, * which is our hope;

2 Unto * Timothy, * my own son in the faith: * Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, * when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some * that they teach no other doctrine, 4 * Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, * which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now * the end of the commandment is charity * out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some * having swerved have turned aside unto * vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; * understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that * the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 * Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary * to sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of * the blessed God, * which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, * who hath enabled me, * for that he counted me faithful, * putting me into the ministry;

13 * Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because * I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 * And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant * with faith * and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 * This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that * Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause * I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long suffering, * for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto * the King eternal, * immortal, * invisible, * the only wise God, * be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge * I commit unto thee, son Timothy, * according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest * war a good warfare;

CHAP. II.

1 Paul exhorteth to pray and give thanks for all men, for kings and magistrates especially. 4 God willet the salvation of all men. 7 Paul's commission to teach the Gentiles. 8 He directeth how women should be attired; 11 permitteth them not to teach; 15 but promisseth that they shall be saved in childbearing on certain conditions.

I Exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

1 The office of a bishop is to be esteemed a good work. 2 The qualifications requisite in a bishop, 8 and in deacons. 14 Why Paul wrote these instructions to Timothy. 16 The important truths of the Christian revelation.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, nor covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, nor greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

what rules to regulate his conduct, so as to save both himself and his hearers.

NOW the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2<sup>o</sup> Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3<sup>o</sup> Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little:
but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is,
and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

1 Directions to Timothy how to admonish persons of different conditions. 3 Concerning widows.

17 Elders, if they do well, are to be doubly honoured; 19 and are not to be censured without full proof; and then openly and impartially.

22 A caution not to ordain any one precipitately.

23 Advice respecting Timothy's health.

24 Some men's characters are more easily discerned than those of others.

REbuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busy bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt

CHAPTER VI.

1 The duty of servants. 3 Those who teach not according to the apostle's doctrine are to be avoided, as corrupters of Christianity. 6 The gain of godliness with content. 9 The evil of covetousness. 11 What Timothy is to flee, and what to follow and perform. 17 A charge to the rich not to be proud and confident in their riches, but to be beneficent and liberal. 20 Timothy is enjoined to adhere to the true faith, and to shun profane and vain controversies.

LET as many * servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, * that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, * because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are || faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. * These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man * teach otherwise, and consent * not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, * and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is || proud, * knowing nothing, but || dotting about * questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmising,

5 * || Perverse disputings of * men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, * supposing that gain is godliness: * from such withdraw thyself.

6 But * godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For * we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And * having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

9 But * they that will be rich fall into temptation * and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, * which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 * For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have || erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 * But thou, * O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 * Fight the good fight of faith, * lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, * and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 * I give thee charge in the sight of God, * who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, * who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good || confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, * until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:

15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is * the blessed and only Potentate, * the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

16 * Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; * whom no man hath seen, nor can see: * to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, * nor trust in * uncertain riches, but in * the living God, * who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do good, that * they be rich in good works, * ready to distribute, || * willing to communicate;

19 * Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may * lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, * keep that which is committed to thy trust, * avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

21 Which some professing * have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

The Second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

Anno DOMINI 66.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul affectionately saluteth Timothy, 3 assuring him of his constant prayers for him, and remembrance of that sincere faith which had been derived to Timothy from his mother and grandmother. 6 He exhorteth him to stir up the gift of God which was in him; 8 and not to be ashamed of the testimony of the gospel, but to be ready to suffer for it according to his example: 13 and to hold fast the form of sound words which he had learned. 15 He putteth him in mind of the general defection of the converts in Asia, 16 and commendeth Onesiphorus for his repeated kindness toward him.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began;

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

1 Timothy is exhorted to constancy and perseverance in the discharge of his duty, as a good soldier of Christ, looking for a certain reward of his fatigues and sufferings; 15 to divide the word of truth rightly, and to shun profane and vain babblings. 17 The dangerous error of Hymeneus and Philetus. 19 The foundation of God standeth sure. 20 Of vessels honourable and dishonourable. 22 Timothy is taught what to see, and what to follow, and how the servant of Christ must behave toward all men.

THOU therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

The apostle foretelleth the evil characters that should appear in the last days. 6 He describeth the enemies of the truth: 10 propoundeth unto Timothy his own example, 14 and exhorteth him to abide in the doctrine he had learned, commending unto him the manifold use of the holy scriptures.

THIS know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their also was.

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAP. IV.

1 Paul giveth Timothy a solemn charge to do his duty with all care and diligence; 6 certifieth him of his approaching end, and of the glorious prospect he had in view. 9 He desireth him to hasten his coming, and to bring Mark with him, and certain other things: 14 warneth him to beware of Alexander: 16 informeth him what had befallen him at his first apology: 19 and concludeth with salutations, and a benediction.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

2 That the aged men be sober, grave; temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

men to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

CHAP. III.

1 Christians are admonished to be subject to civil powers, and of a peaceable and quiet demeanour.

3 They are saved from their sins by God's mercy through Christ, but must maintain good works.

9 Genealogies and contentions about the law are to be avoided; 10 and obstinate heretics to be rejected. 12 Paul appointeth Titus when and where to come to him; 14 recommendeth acts of mercy to Christians; 15 and concludeth with salutations and a benediction.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

The Epistle of PAUL to PHILEMON.

Anno DOMINI 64.

1 The salutation. 4 Paul declareth his joy in hearing of the love and faith of Philemon; 8 earnestly intreating him to receive into his favour his once fugitive servant Onesimus, now become a faithful Christian. 22 He desireth him to provide a lodging for himself, who was in expectation of a speedy release; 23 and concludeth with salutations and a benediction.

PAUL, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to injoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.

GOD, who at sundry times and <sup>a</sup> in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath <sup>b</sup> in these last days <sup>c</sup> spoken unto us by his Son, <sup>d</sup> whom he hath appointed heir of all things, <sup>e</sup> by whom also he made the worlds;

3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and <sup>f</sup> upholding all things by the word of his power, <sup>g</sup> when he had by himself purged our sins, <sup>h</sup> sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as <sup>i</sup> he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they:

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, <sup>j</sup> Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, <sup>k</sup> I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in <sup>l</sup> the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, <sup>m</sup> And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And <sup>n</sup> of the angels he saith, <sup>o</sup> Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son be saith, <sup>p</sup> Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of <sup>q</sup> righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, <sup>r</sup> hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, <sup>s</sup> Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

11 They shall perish; but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, <sup>t</sup> Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be <sup>u</sup> heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

1 The obligation we are under to give more earnest heed to the gospel doctrine. 5 The dominion of the world to come was not granted to angels, but to the Son of man, whom it becometh to undergo a previous course of humiliation and suffering.

Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should <sup>v</sup> let them slip.

2 For if the word <sup>w</sup> spoken by angels was stedfast, and <sup>x</sup> every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; <sup>y</sup> which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was <sup>z</sup> confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, <sup>a</sup> both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and <sup>b</sup> gifts of the Holy Ghost, <sup>c</sup> according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection<sup>k</sup> the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, <sup>l</sup>What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him || a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8<sup>m</sup> Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now <sup>n</sup> we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, <sup>o</sup> who was made a little lower than the angels || for the suffering of death, <sup>p</sup> crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death <sup>q</sup> for every man.

10<sup>r</sup> For it became him, <sup>r</sup> for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make <sup>s</sup> the captain of their salvation <sup>t</sup> perfect through sufferings.

11 For <sup>u</sup> both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified <sup>v</sup> are all of one: for which cause <sup>w</sup> he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, <sup>x</sup> I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, <sup>y</sup> I will put my trust in him. And again, <sup>z</sup> Behold I and the children <sup>a</sup> which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he <sup>b</sup> also himself likewise took part of the same; <sup>c</sup> that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who <sup>d</sup> through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily <sup>e</sup> he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him <sup>f</sup> to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be <sup>g</sup> a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18<sup>h</sup> For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ is shewed to be more worthy than Moses: 7 we must be careful therefore not to follow the example of the obstinate and unbelieving Israelites in the wilderness.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of <sup>i</sup> the heavenly calling, consider <sup>j</sup> the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that <sup>k</sup> appointed him, as also <sup>l</sup> Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as <sup>m</sup> he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but <sup>n</sup> he that built all things is God.

5<sup>o</sup> And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as <sup>p</sup> a servant, <sup>q</sup> for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as <sup>r</sup> a son over his own house; <sup>s</sup> whose house are we, <sup>t</sup> if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as <sup>u</sup> the Holy Ghost saith, <sup>v</sup> To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I swear in my wrath, <sup>w</sup> They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, <sup>x</sup> if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, <sup>y</sup> To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16<sup>z</sup> For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, <sup>a</sup> whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And <sup>b</sup> to whom swore he that they should not enter in his rest, <sup>c</sup> but to them that believed not?

19<sup>d</sup> So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

must bold fast our profession, and come boldly unto the throne of grace.

LET us therefore fear, left, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but † the word preached did not profit them, || not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3<sup>b</sup> For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, ° As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest:
although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, ° And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, ° and they to whom || it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 (Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, ° To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if || Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a || rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.)

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall ° after the same example of || unbelief.

12 For the word of God is ° quick, and powerful, and ° sharper than any ° two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is ° a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13<sup>m</sup> Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked ° and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have ° a great high priest, ° that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, ° let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but ° was in all points tempted like as we are, ° yet without sin.

16<sup>u</sup> Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

1 Concerning the office of high priests taken from among men: 5 wherewith Christ's priesthood is compared, and it's privileges set forth: 11 a farther account of which is deferred, and for what reason.

FOR every high priest taken from among men ° is ordained for men ° in things pertaining to God, ° that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2<sup>d</sup> Who || can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that ° he himself also is compass-ed with infirmity.

3 And ° by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4<sup>u</sup> And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as ° was Aaron.

5<sup>i</sup> So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, ° Thou art my Son, to day have
I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place,
° Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had ° offered up prayers and supplications ° with strong crying and tears unto him ° that was able to save him from death, and was heard || ° in that he feared;

8<sup>i</sup> Though he were a Son, yet learned he ° obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And ° being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest ° after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom ° we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are ° dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be ° the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of ° milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk † is unskilful in the word of righteousness:
for he is ° a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are || of full age, even those who by reason || of use have their senses exercised ° to discern both good and evil.

to be treated of. 4 The guilt and danger of apostasy. 10 Charitable deeds will not be forgotten of God. 11 An exhortation diligently to imitate the faith and patience of those who inherit the promises. 13 The promise of God to Abraham a sure ground of hope.

Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

C H A P. VII.

Christ, a priest after the order of Melchisedec, is proved to be of a more excellent order than that of Aaron, 1 from the character of Melchisedec, and his confessed superiority to Abraham and Levi; 11 from the imperfection of the Levitical priesthood, which induced the necessity of a change to one more perfect; 20 from the confirmation of Christ's priesthood by an oath; 23 from the unchangeableness, 26 and spotless innocence, of the person.

FOR this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, 'Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, || but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made || without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, °The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath || an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them || to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, ° and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, ° and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, ° who is † consecrated for evermore.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ, our great high priest in the heavens, hath a more excellent ministry than the priests on earth: 6 as he is also the mediator of a better covenant than that which was given to Moses.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, ° who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

( 2 A minister || of ° the sanctuary, and of ° the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore ° it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that || there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and ° shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: ° for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now ° hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better || covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, ° Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will † put my laws into their mind, and write them || in their hearts: and ° I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And ° they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, ° and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

15 <sup>a</sup> And for this cause <sup>b</sup> he is the mediator of the new testament, <sup>c</sup> that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, <sup>d</sup> they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity || be the death of the testator.

17 For <sup>a</sup> a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 <sup>a</sup> Whereupon neither the first testament was || dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, <sup>b</sup> he took the blood of calves and of goats, <sup>c</sup> with water, and || scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 Saying, <sup>a</sup> This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover <sup>b</sup> he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and <sup>c</sup> without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that <sup>a</sup> the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For <sup>b</sup> Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of <sup>c</sup> the true; but into heaven itself, now <sup>d</sup> to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as <sup>e</sup> the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now <sup>f</sup> once <sup>g</sup> in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 <sup>a</sup> And as it is appointed unto men once to die, <sup>b</sup> but after this the judgment:

28 So <sup>c</sup> Christ was once <sup>d</sup> offered to bear the sins <sup>e</sup> of many; and unto them that <sup>f</sup> look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

stead, foretold by the Psalmist: 10 by the offering of which body once for all we obtain perfect remission. 19 An exhortation to stedfastness in the faith, and to love and good works. 26 The danger of a wilful relapse after having received the knowledge of the truth; 32 and of forfeiting the reward of a good beginning for want of perseverance.

FOR the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body I have prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised:

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Therefore ye have not despised me, when I was in prison, nor have ye despised my chains: for ye were as a partaker of my sufferings, and ye have been patient as I have been patient.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, ° which hath great recompence of reward.

36 ° For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ° ye might receive the promise.

37 For ° yet a little while, and ° he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now ° the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them ° who draw back unto perdition; but of them that ° believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAP. XI.

The nature of faith, and it's acceptableness with God, set forth in the examples of many excellent persons of old time.

NOW faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence ° of things not seen.

2 For ° by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that ° the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith ° Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead ° yet speaketh.

5 By faith ° Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith ° Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, ° moved with fear, ° prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of ° the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith ° Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, ° dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, ° the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for ° a city which hath foundations, ° whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also ° Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and ° was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him ° faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and ° him as good as dead, ° so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died † in faith, ° not having received the promises, but ° having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and ° confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things ° declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out; they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed ° to be called their God: for ° he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ° Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises ° offered up his only begotten son,

18 ° Of whom it was said, ° That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God ° was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith ° Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, ° blessed both the sons of Joseph; and ° worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith ° Joseph, when he died, ° made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith ° Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's ° commandment.

24 By faith ° Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 ° Choosing rather to suffer affliction, with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming ° the reproach ° of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto ° the recompence of the reward.

29 By faith ' they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith ' the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith ' the harlot Rahab perished not with them || that believed not, when ' she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of ' Gedeon, and of ' Barak, and of ' Samson, and of ' Jephthae; of ' David also, and ' Samuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, ' obtained promises, ' stopped the mouths of lions, 34 ' Quenched the violence of fire, ' escaped the edge of the sword, ' out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, ' turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 ' Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were ' tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 ' And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover ' of bonds and imprisonment:

37 ' They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: ' they wandered about ' in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

CHAP. XII.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, ' let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and ' let us run ' with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the || author and finisher of our faith; ' who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and ' is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 ' For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, ' lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 ' Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, ' My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For ' whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 ' If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, ' whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather ' be in subjection unto ' the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us || after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, ' that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth ' the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore ' lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 ' And make || straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; ' but let it rather be healed.

14 ' Follow peace with all men, and holiness, ' without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 ' Looking diligently ' lest any man || fail of the grace of God; ' lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 ' Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, ' who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: <sup>a</sup> for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto <sup>a</sup> the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard <sup>a</sup> intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, <sup>a</sup> And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 <sup>a</sup> And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come <sup>a</sup> unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, <sup>a</sup> and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of <sup>a</sup> the firstborn, <sup>a</sup> which are <sup>a</sup> written in heaven, and to God <sup>a</sup> the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men <sup>a</sup> made perfect, 24 And to Jesus <sup>a</sup> the mediator of the new <sup>a</sup> covenant, and to <sup>a</sup> the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things <sup>a</sup> than that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For <sup>a</sup> if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 <sup>a</sup> Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, <sup>a</sup> Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth <sup>a</sup> the removing of those things that <sup>a</sup> are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, <sup>a</sup> let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For <sup>a</sup> our God is a consuming fire.

1 Exhortations to charity, 2 hospitality, 3 pity for the afflicted, 4 chastity, 5 contentment; 7 to regard the preachers of God's word; 9 to avoid strange doctrines; 10 to confess Christ; 15 to offer up our praises to God by him; 16 to do good and to communicate; 17 to obey spiritual rulers; 18 and to pray for the apostle. 20 The epistle endeth with a prayer and salutations.

L E T <sup>a</sup> brotherly love continue.

2 <sup>a</sup> Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby <sup>a</sup> some have entertained angels unawares.

3 <sup>a</sup> Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: <sup>a</sup> but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and <sup>a</sup> be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, <sup>a</sup> I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, <sup>a</sup> The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 <sup>a</sup> Remember them which <sup>a</sup> have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: <sup>a</sup> whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation:

8 Jesus Christ <sup>a</sup> the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 <sup>a</sup> Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; <sup>a</sup> not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 <sup>a</sup> We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For <sup>a</sup> the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, <sup>a</sup> suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing <sup>a</sup> his reproach.

14 <sup>a</sup> For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 <sup>a</sup> By him therefore let us offer <sup>a</sup> the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, <sup>a</sup> the fruit of our lips <sup>a</sup> giving thanks to his name.

16 <sup>a</sup> But to do good and to communicate forget not: for <sup>a</sup> with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 <sup>a</sup> Obey them that <sup>a</sup> have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for <sup>a</sup> they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

The general Epistle of JAMES.

CHAP. I.

Anno DOMINI cir. 60.
 1 The apostle's address to the dispersed Jews. 2 He recommendeth patience and joy in afflictions, 5 and prayer with faith. 9 He giveth advice to the poor and to the rich. 12 The reward of those that are proof under trial. 13 Our own lusts, and not God, tempt us to sin. 17 God is the unchangeable author of all good to his creatures. 19 We must receive the word with purity and meekness, and not only hear, but do it. 26 The necessity of governing the tongue. 27 The essential duties of true religion.
JAMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.
 2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;
 3° Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.
 4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.
 5° If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.
 6° But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
 7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.
 8° A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.
 9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:
 10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.
 11 John 5. 14. 15. Mark 11. 24. 1 Tim. 2. 8. ch. 4. 8. || Or, glory. || Job 14. 2. Ps. 37. 2. & 90. 5. 6. & 102. 11. & 103. 15. Isai. 40. 6. 1 Cor. 7. 31. ch. 4. 14. 1 Pet. 1. 24. 1 John 2. 17.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12° Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17° Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18° Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, 1 Cor. 15. 2. Eph. 1. 13. Tit. 2. 11. Heb. 2. 3. 1 Pet. 1. 9. Math. 7. 21. Luke 6. 46. & 11. 28. Rom. 2. 13. 1 John 3. 7. Luke 6. 47, &c. See ch. 2. 14, &c.

and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But <sup>b</sup> whoso looketh into the perfect <sup>a</sup> law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, <sup>c</sup> this man shall be blessed in his || deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and <sup>d</sup> bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before
God and the Father is this, <sup>e</sup> To visit the fatherless and widows in their afflic-tion, <sup>f</sup> and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAP. II.

1 It is not agreeable to the christian profession to regard the rich, and despise the poor. 10 The guilt of any one breach of the law. 13 The obligation to mercy. 14 Faith without works is dead. 20 We are justified, as Abraham and Rahab were, by works, and not by faith only.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>a</sup> the Lord of glory, with <sup>b</sup> respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your <sup>c</sup> assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that wear-eth the gay clothing, and say unto him,
Sit thou here || in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Harken, my beloved brethren, <sup>a</sup> Hath not God chosen the poor of this world
not God chosen the poor of this world
<sup>b</sup> rich in faith, and heirs of || the kingdom
<sup>c</sup> which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But <sup>d</sup> ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, <sup>e</sup> and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, <sup>a</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But <sup>b</sup> if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, <sup>c</sup> he is guilty of all.

11 For || he that said, <sup>a</sup> Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by <sup>b</sup> the law of liberty.

13 For <sup>c</sup> he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and
<sup>d</sup> mercy || rejoiceth against judgment.

14 <sup>e</sup> What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 <sup>f</sup> If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And <sup>g</sup> one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body;
what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being <sup>h</sup> alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith || without thy works, <sup>i</sup> and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God;
thou doest well: <sup>j</sup> the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, <sup>k</sup> when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 || Seest thou <sup>l</sup> how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, <sup>m</sup> Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called <sup>n</sup> the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also <sup>o</sup> was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the || spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

1 We must not rashly take upon ourselves to reprove others. 2 The importance, difficulty, and duty, of governing the tongue. 13 True wisdom will shew itself in meekness, peaceableness, and charity, in opposition to strife and envying.

MY brethren, <sup>a</sup> be not many masters, <sup>b</sup> knowing that we shall receive the greater || condemnation.

2 For <sup>c</sup> in many things we offend all.

is a perfect man; and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, ' we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

6 And <sup>the</sup> tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that <sup>it</sup> defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the <sup>the</sup> course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every <sup>kind</sup> of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of <sup>the</sup> mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, <sup>it</sup> full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, <sup>which</sup> are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same <sup>place</sup> sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

14 But if ye have <sup>bitter</sup> envying and strife in your hearts, <sup>glory</sup> not, and lie not against the truth.

17 But <sup>the</sup> wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, <sup>without</sup> partiality, <sup>and</sup> without hypocrisy.

18 <sup>And</sup> the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAP. IV.

1 Our evil lusts and passions tend to breed quarrels among ourselves, and to set us at enmity with God. 7 The way to overcome them, and recover God's favour. 11 Against detraction and censoriousness. 13 We must not presume on the future, but commit ourselves to God's providence.

FROM whence come wars and <sup>fightings</sup> among you? come they not hence, even of your <sup>lusts</sup> <sup>that</sup> war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye <sup>kill</sup>, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 <sup>Ye</sup> ask, and receive not, <sup>because</sup> ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your <sup>lusts</sup>.

4 <sup>Ye</sup> adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that <sup>the</sup> friendship of the world is enmity with God? <sup>whosoever</sup> therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, <sup>The</sup> spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth <sup>to</sup> envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, <sup>God</sup> resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. <sup>Resist</sup> the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 <sup>Draw</sup> nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. <sup>Cleanse</sup> your hands, ye sinners; and <sup>purify</sup> your hearts, ye <sup>double</sup> minded.

9 <sup>Be</sup> afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 <sup>Humble</sup> yourselves in the <sup>fight</sup> of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 <sup>Speak</sup> not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of <sup>his</sup> brother, <sup>and</sup> judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, <sup>who</sup> is able to save and to destroy: <sup>who</sup> art thou that judgest another?

13 <sup>Go</sup> to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? <sup>It is</sup> even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, <sup>If</sup> the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: <sup>all</sup> such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore <sup>to</sup> him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

ing judgments. 7 The brethren are exhorted to patience after the example of the prophets and of Job: 12 to abstain from swearing; 13 to pray in affliction and sickness, and sing psalms in prosperity: 16 to acknowledge mutually their faults, and to pray for one another: 19 and to endeavour to reclaim sinners.

GO<sup>a</sup> to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and <sup>b</sup> your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. <sup>c</sup> Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, <sup>d</sup> the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and <sup>e</sup> the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 <sup>f</sup> Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 <sup>g</sup> Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 <sup>h</sup> Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive <sup>i</sup> the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: <sup>j</sup> for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 <sup>k</sup> Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge <sup>l</sup> standeth before the door.

10 <sup>m</sup> Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, <sup>n</sup> we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of <sup>o</sup> the patience of Job, and have seen <sup>p</sup> the end of the Lord; that <sup>q</sup> the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, <sup>r</sup> swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? <sup>s</sup> let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, <sup>t</sup> anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; <sup>u</sup> and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess <sup>v</sup> your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. <sup>w</sup> The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man <sup>x</sup> subject to like passions as we are, and <sup>y</sup> he prayed <sup>z</sup> earnestly that it might not rain: <sup>a</sup> and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And <sup>b</sup> he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, <sup>c</sup> if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way <sup>d</sup> shall save a soul from death, and <sup>e</sup> shall hide a multitude of sins.

The First Epistle general of P E T E R.

CHAP. I.

1 The apostle's address to the strangers elect in Christ, dispersed throughout the lesser Asia. 3 He bleisseth God for having raised them to the hope of a blessed immortality. 10 He sheweth that their salvation in Christ had been foretold by the prophets of old; 13 and exhorteth them to a vigilant and holy conversation, suitable to their calling, and redemption by the blood of Christ; 22 and to mutual love.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers <sup>a</sup> scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 <sup>b</sup> Elect <sup>c</sup> according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, <sup>d</sup> through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and <sup>e</sup> sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: <sup>f</sup> Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 <sup>g</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which <sup>h</sup> according to his <sup>i</sup> abundant mercy <sup>j</sup> hath begotten us again unto a lively hope <sup>k</sup> by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 <sup>l</sup> To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, <sup>m</sup> and that fadeth not away, <sup>n</sup> reserved in heaven <sup>o</sup> for you, through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6° Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now<sup>p</sup> for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:
7° That<sup>t</sup> the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though<sup>t</sup> it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:
8° Whom having not seen, ye love; <sup>x</sup> in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:
9° Receiving<sup>r</sup> the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.
10° Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:
11° Searching what, or what manner of time<sup>a</sup> the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand<sup>b</sup> the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.
12° Unto whom it was revealed, that<sup>a</sup> not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with<sup>c</sup> the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; <sup>i</sup> which things the angels desire to look into.
13° Wherefore<sup>a</sup> gird up the loins of your mind, <sup>b</sup> be sober, and hope† to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you<sup>i</sup> at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
14° As obedient children, <sup>b</sup> not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:
15° But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;
16° Because it is written, <sup>a</sup> Be ye holy; for I am holy.
17° And if ye call on the Father, <sup>a</sup> who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, <sup>b</sup> pass the time of your<sup>i</sup> sojourning here in fear:
18° Forasmuch as ye know<sup>t</sup> that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation<sup>a</sup> received by tradition from your fathers;
19° But<sup>t</sup> with the precious blood of Christ, <sup>a</sup> as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20° Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest<sup>r</sup> in these last times for you,
21° Who by him do believe in God, <sup>a</sup> that raised him up from the dead, and<sup>a</sup> gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.
22° Seeing ye<sup>b</sup> have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned<sup>c</sup> love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:
23° Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, <sup>c</sup> by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.
24° For<sup>t</sup> all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:
25° But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. <sup>b</sup> And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.
1° The apostle exhorteth the Christian converts to lay aside all uncharitableness. 4° He sheweth their privileges through Christ the chief corner stone. 11° He beseecheth them to abstain from fleshly lusts, and by their good conversation to promote God's glory among the Gentiles. 13° He enforceth obedience to magistrates; 18° and teacheth servants to obey their masters, and to suffer patiently for well doing, after the example of Christ.
Wherefore<sup>a</sup> laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,
2° As newborn babes, desire the sincere<sup>c</sup> milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:
3° If so be ye have<sup>a</sup> tasted that the Lord is gracious.
4° To whom coming, as unto a living stone, <sup>a</sup> disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,
5° Ye also, as lively stones, || are built up<sup>a</sup> a spiritual house, <sup>a</sup> an holy priesthood, to offer up<sup>i</sup> spiritual sacrifices, <sup>a</sup> acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
6° Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.
7° Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, <sup>a</sup> the stone which the builders

C H A P. III.

1 The apostle teacheth the duty of wives and husbands; 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, and to return good for evil: 14 to suffer boldly for righteousness' sake, and to give a reason of their hope with meekness and fear; taking especial care to suffer, as Christ did, for well-doing, and not for evil-doing. 19 The preaching of Christ by his spirit to the old world. 21 After what manner Christian baptism saveth us.

Likewise, <sup>a</sup> ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, <sup>a</sup> they also may without the word <sup>a</sup> be won by the conversation of the wives;

2<sup>a</sup> While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3<sup>b</sup> Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be <sup>a</sup> the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, <sup>a</sup> calling him lord: whose <sup>a</sup> daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7<sup>c</sup> Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, <sup>a</sup> as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; <sup>a</sup> that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, <sup>a</sup> be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, <sup>a</sup> || love as brethren, <sup>a</sup> be pitiful, be courteous:

9<sup>d</sup> Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, <sup>a</sup> that ye should inherit a blessing.

good days, ' let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile :
 11 Let him ' eschew evil, and do good ;
 ' let him seek peace, and ensue it.
 12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, " and his ears are open unto their prayers : but the face of the Lord is † against them that do evil.
 13 * And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good ?
 14 † But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye : and * be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled ;
 15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts : and * be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and || fear :
 16 <sup>b</sup> Having a good conscience ; * that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.
 17 For it is better, if ' the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.
 18 For Christ also hath <sup>d</sup> once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, * being put to death <sup>f</sup> in the flesh, but * quickened by the Spirit :
 19 By which also he went and <sup>b</sup> preached unto the spirits <sup>i</sup> in prison ;
 20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while <sup>i</sup> the ark was a preparing, " wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.
 21 <sup>a</sup> The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of <sup>a</sup> the filth of the flesh, <sup>b</sup> but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) <sup>a</sup> by the resurrection of Jesus Christ :
 22 Who is gone into heaven, and <sup>i</sup> is on the right hand of God ; * angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAP. IV.

1 The apostle exhorteth to cease from sin, in regard of Christ's having suffered for it, and of a future judgment. 7 From the approaching end of all things he urgeth to sobriety, watchfulness, and prayer ; 8 to charity, 9 hospitality, 10 and a right use of spiritual gifts. 12 Sundry motives of comfort under persecution.

As much then * as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind : for <sup>b</sup> he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin ;

2 * That he no longer <sup>a</sup> should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, * but to the will of God.

3 <sup>f</sup> For the time past of our life may suffice us <sup>a</sup> to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries :

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, <sup>b</sup> speaking evil of you :

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready <sup>i</sup> to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause <sup>a</sup> was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But <sup>i</sup> the end of all things is at hand : * be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 <sup>a</sup> And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves : for * charity || shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 <sup>b</sup> Use hospitality one to another <sup>a</sup> without grudging.

10 <sup>i</sup> As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, * as good stewards of <sup>i</sup> the manifold grace of God.

11 <sup>a</sup> If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God ; * if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth : that <sup>y</sup> God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ ; <sup>a</sup> to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning <sup>a</sup> the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you :

13 <sup>b</sup> But rejoice, inasmuch as * ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings ; <sup>a</sup> that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 <sup>a</sup> If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye ; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you : <sup>i</sup> on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But * let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, <sup>b</sup> or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed ; <sup>i</sup> but let him glorify God on this behalf.

C H A P. V.

1 The elders are exhorted to feed the flock of Christ conscientiously, looking to the chief Shepherd for a reward. 5 The younger are required to submit to the elder, and all to practise humility toward each other; 6 with resignation to God; 8 to be sober, watchful, and steadfast in the faith, resisting the devil. 10 The epistle is concluded with a prayer and benediction.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also<sup>a</sup> an elder, and<sup>a</sup> a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also<sup>a</sup> a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2<sup>a</sup> Feed the flock of God || which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, <sup>a</sup> not by constraint, but willingly; <sup>a</sup> not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as ||<sup>a</sup> being lords over<sup>b</sup> God's heritage, but<sup>a</sup> being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when<sup>a</sup> the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive<sup>a</sup> a crown of glory <sup>a</sup> that fadeth not away.

The Second Epistle general of P E T E R.

C H A P. I.

1 The apostle, saluting the Christians, admonisheth them of the gifts and promises of the gospel, and their tendency to promote a godly life. 5 He exhorteth them to add to their faith such virtues as would make it fruitful; 10 and thereby to make their calling and election sure. 12 He is careful to remind them hereof, knowing his dissolution to be near; 16 and urgeth the evidence of what he had seen and heard in the holy mount in confirmation of Christ's second coming, together with the word of prophecy, which be recommendeth to their regard.

SIMON Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained<sup>a</sup> like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2<sup>a</sup> Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, <sup>a</sup> through the knowledge of him<sup>a</sup> that hath called us || to glory and virtue:

4<sup>a</sup> Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be<sup>a</sup> partakers of the divine nature, <sup>a</sup> having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, <sup>a</sup> giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue<sup>a</sup> knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and<sup>a</sup> to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be † barren † nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things † is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was † purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence † to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, † ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore † I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, † though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, † as long as I am in this tabernacle, † to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 † Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as † our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed † cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but † were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory,

† This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in † the holy mount.

19 We have also † a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto † a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and † the day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that † no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For † the prophecy came not † in old time by the will of man: † but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

1 The apostle foretelleth the appearance of false teachers, the impiety of them and their followers, and the judgments that would overtake them. 7 The godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom. 10 The wicked principles and manners of these seducers described. 20 The mischief of relapsing into sin.

with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

C H A P. III.

1 The apostle declareth it to be the design of both his epistles to remind the brethren of Christ's coming to judgment, in opposition to scoffers.

8 No argument can be drawn against it from the delay, which is designed to leave men room for repentance. 10 He describeth the day of the Lord, and exhorteth to holiness of life in expectation of it. 15 He sheweth that Paul had taught the like in his epistles: 17 and concludeth with advice to beware of seduction, and to grow in christian grace and knowledge.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, 12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that the long suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever, Amen.

Prov. 28.

1 The apostle professeth to declare what he had formerly seen and known of the Word of life, to the end that others might have fellowship with him. 5 The substance of his doctrine is, That to have fellowship with God, we must be holy as he is holy; and that if we confess our sins, we shall be forgiven through the blood of Christ.

THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that our joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our advocate with the Father, and a propitiation for the sins of the whole world.

3 Rightly to know God is to keep his commandments: 7 the chief of which is to love one another. 12 The apostle addresseth Christians of all ages severally, 15 and warneth them against an inordinate love of this world: 18 and against deceivers, who were many. 20 He sheweth the means they had of knowing the truth, and of distinguishing false teachers; and pointeth out their obligation to abide in the truth which they had been taught. 29 He that doeth righteousness is born of God.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him:

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the last time:

and as ye have heard that <sup>a</sup> antichrist shall come, <sup>e</sup> even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know <sup>b</sup> that it is the last time.

19. <sup>i</sup> They went out from us, but they were not of us; for <sup>k</sup> if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, <sup>l</sup> that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But <sup>m</sup> ye have an unction <sup>n</sup> from the Holy One, and <sup>o</sup> ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 <sup>p</sup> Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 <sup>q</sup> Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] <sup>r</sup> he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, <sup>s</sup> which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, <sup>t</sup> ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 <sup>u</sup> And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you <sup>v</sup> concerning them that seduce you.

27 But <sup>w</sup> the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and <sup>x</sup> ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing <sup>y</sup> teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in <sup>z</sup> him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, <sup>a</sup> when he shall appear, <sup>b</sup> we may have confidence, <sup>c</sup> and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 <sup>d</sup> If ye know that he is righteous, <sup>e</sup> ye know that <sup>f</sup> every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAP. III.

1 It is a mark of God's singular love toward us, that we are now called his sons, and designed for farther happiness hereafter: 3 and therefore we must obediently keep his commandments, 11 and love one another with true brotherly kindness and actual beneficence.

BEhold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that <sup>a</sup> we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, <sup>b</sup> because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, <sup>c</sup> now are we the sons of God, and <sup>d</sup> it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, <sup>e</sup> we shall be like him; for <sup>f</sup> we shall see him as he is.

3 <sup>g</sup> And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for <sup>h</sup> sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know <sup>i</sup> that he was manifested <sup>j</sup> to take away our sins; and <sup>k</sup> in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: <sup>l</sup> whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, <sup>m</sup> let no man deceive you: <sup>n</sup> he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 <sup>o</sup> He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, <sup>p</sup> that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 <sup>q</sup> Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for <sup>r</sup> his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: <sup>s</sup> whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, <sup>t</sup> neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For <sup>u</sup> this is the <sup>v</sup> message that ye heard from the beginning, <sup>w</sup> that we should love one another.

12 Not as <sup>x</sup> Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if <sup>y</sup> the world hate you.

14 <sup>z</sup> We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. <sup>a</sup> He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 <sup>b</sup> Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that <sup>c</sup> no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But <sup>d</sup> who so hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, <sup>e</sup> how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, <sup>f</sup> let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know <sup>g</sup> that we are

CHAP. IV.

1 The apostle warneth to try by certain rules the spirits that pretend to come from God. 7 He presseth the obligation of mutual love upon Christians from the example and commandment of God.

Beloved, <sup>a</sup> believe not every spirit, but <sup>b</sup> try the spirits whether they are of God: because <sup>c</sup> many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And <sup>o</sup> every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and <sup>r</sup> even now already is it in the world.

4<sup>s</sup> Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than <sup>t</sup> he that is in the world.

5<sup>1</sup> They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and <sup>k</sup> the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: <sup>1</sup> he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we <sup>m</sup> the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7<sup>n</sup> Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not <sup>o</sup> knoweth not God; for <sup>p</sup> God is love.

9<sup>q</sup> In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, <sup>r</sup> that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, <sup>s</sup> not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son <sup>t</sup> to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, <sup>u</sup> (if God so loved us,) we ought also to love one another.

12<sup>x</sup> No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and <sup>y</sup> his love is perfected in us.

13<sup>z</sup> Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And <sup>a</sup> we have seen and do testify that <sup>b</sup> the Father sent the Son <sup>c</sup> to be the Saviour of the world.

15<sup>d</sup> Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. <sup>e</sup> God is love; and <sup>f</sup> he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is <sup>g</sup> our love made perfect, that <sup>h</sup> we may have boldness in the day of judgment: <sup>i</sup> because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth <sup>j</sup> is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20<sup>k</sup> If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God <sup>l</sup> whom he hath not seen?

21 And <sup>m</sup> this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1 He that loveth God loveth God's children, and keepeth his commandments. 4 A true faith will enable us to overcome the world. 6 The witnesses of our faith. 11 God hath given to believers eternal life through his Son: 14 and will hear and grant their petitions made according to his will. 18 God's children are distinguished from the world by abstaining from sin, and by a right knowledge. 21 A caution against idolatry.

Whosoever <sup>a</sup> believeth that <sup>b</sup> Jesus is the Christ is <sup>c</sup> born of God: <sup>d</sup> and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3<sup>e</sup> For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and <sup>f</sup> his commandments are not grievous.

4 For <sup>g</sup> whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but <sup>b</sup> he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came <sup>1</sup> by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. <sup>k</sup> And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, <sup>1</sup> the Word, and the Holy Ghost: <sup>m</sup> and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive <sup>n</sup> the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: <sup>o</sup> for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God <sup>p</sup> hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God <sup>q</sup> hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 <sup>r</sup> And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and <sup>s</sup> this life is in his Son.

12 <sup>t</sup> He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 <sup>u</sup> These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; <sup>v</sup> that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have <sup>w</sup> in him, that, <sup>x</sup> if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and <sup>y</sup> he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. <sup>z</sup> There is a sin unto death: <sup>a</sup> I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 <sup>b</sup> All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that <sup>c</sup> whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God <sup>d</sup> keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 <sup>e</sup> And we know that we are of God, and <sup>f</sup> the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and <sup>g</sup> hath given us an understanding, <sup>h</sup> that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. <sup>i</sup> This is the true God, <sup>j</sup> and eternal life.

1 The apostle testifieth his regard and good wishes for a certain pious matron and her children, and his joy in their good behaviour: 5 he exhorteth them to persevere in Christian love and belief, that they lose not their full reward: 10 and to have nothing to do with those seducers that bring not the true doctrine of Christ. 12 He hopeth to see them shortly, and concludeth with salutations.

THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, <sup>a</sup> whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known <sup>b</sup> the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 <sup>c</sup> Grace <sup>d</sup> be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, <sup>e</sup> in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children <sup>f</sup> walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, <sup>g</sup> not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, <sup>h</sup> that we love one another.

6 And <sup>i</sup> this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, <sup>j</sup> as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For <sup>k</sup> many deceivers are entered into the world, <sup>l</sup> who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. <sup>m</sup> This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

8 <sup>n</sup> Look to yourselves, <sup>o</sup> that we lose not those things which we <sup>p</sup> have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 <sup>q</sup> Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, <sup>r</sup> neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 <sup>s</sup> Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and <sup>t</sup> speak <sup>u</sup> face to face, <sup>v</sup> that <sup>w</sup> our joy may be full.

1 The apostle, after a kind salutation to Gaius, testifieth his joy in his piety, 5 commending his hospitality toward the preachers of the gospel. 9 He censureth Diotrefes, and threateneth him for his ambitious opposition. 11 The ill example of such is not to be followed. 12 He beareth testimony to the good character of Demetrius. 13 He hopeth to see Gaius shortly, and concludeth with salutations.

2 Beloved, I || wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

they went forth, <sup>a</sup> taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrefes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, <sup>a</sup> follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. <sup>b</sup> He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius <sup>c</sup> hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; <sup>d</sup> and ye know that our record is true.

13 <sup>e</sup> I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak † face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

1 After a general address, Jude exhorteth Christians to constancy in the received faith. 4 He foretelleth the punishment of certain false teachers crept into the church, and describeth their evil doctrine and manners. 20 He exhorteth true Christians to persevere in the right faith, and in the love of God; 22 and to seek the reformation of others. 24 He concludeth with ascribing glory to God.

JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and <sup>a</sup> brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and <sup>b</sup> preserved in Jesus Christ, and <sup>c</sup> called: 2 Mercy unto you, and <sup>d</sup> peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you <sup>e</sup> of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that <sup>f</sup> ye should earnestly contend for, the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 <sup>g</sup> For there are certain men crept in unawares, <sup>h</sup> who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, <sup>i</sup> turning <sup>k</sup> the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and <sup>l</sup> denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that <sup>m</sup> the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward <sup>n</sup> destroyed them that believed not.

6 And <sup>o</sup> the angels which kept not their <sup>p</sup> first estate, but left their own habitation, <sup>q</sup> he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness <sup>r</sup> unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as <sup>s</sup> Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after <sup>t</sup> strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 <sup>u</sup> Likewise also these <sup>v</sup> filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and <sup>w</sup> speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet <sup>x</sup> Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, <sup>y</sup> durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, <sup>z</sup> The Lord rebuke thee.

know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainfaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints, 15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having mens' persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

1 The preface. 4 John's salutation to the seven churches of Asia. 7 The coming of Christ; 8 his eternal majesty. 9 John relateth his vision of the son of man with the seven stars and the seven golden candlesticks.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like unto fine brads, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

What John was commanded to write in commendation or reproof to the angels of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira.

UNTO the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou suffereſt that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a propheteſs, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the mornin star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

What John was commanded to write in commendation or reproof to the angels of the churches of 1 Sardis, 7 Philadelphia, 14 and Laodicea.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch,
I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garment;
and they shall walk with me in white:
for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked;

22 * He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. IV.

I John seeth the throne of God in heaven, 4 encompassed with four and twenty elders, 6 and four beasts full of eyes before and behind. 8 The continual adoration and worship offered by the beasts and elders before him that sat on the throne.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and * the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, * Come up hither, * and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately * I was in the spirit: and, behold, * a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: * and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 * And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, * clothed in white raiment; * and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded * lightnings and thunderings and voices: * and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are * the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was * a sea of glass like unto crystal: * and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before * and behind.

7 * And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them * fix wings about him; and they were full of eyes * within: and † they rest not day and night, saying, 'Holy, holy, holy, * Lord

God Almighty, * which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts gave glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, * who liveth for ever and ever,

10 * The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, * and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, * and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 * Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: * for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAP. V.

The book sealed with seven seals, which no man is worthy to open. 4 John weeping thereat is comforted. 6 The Lamb that was slain taketh the book to open it. 8 The beasts and the elders praise him that had redeemed them with his blood. 11 The angels join with them in ascribing glory to God and to the Lamb.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne * a book written within and on the backside, * sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man * in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, * the Lion of the tribe of Juda, * the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, * and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood * a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and * seven eyes, which are * the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand * of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, * the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them * harps, and golden vials full of * odours, * which are the prayers of saints.

9 And * they sung a new song, saying, * Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: * for thou wast slain, and * hast redeemed us to God by thy blood * out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, 'Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

1 The opening of six of the seals in order, and what followed thereupon.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, 'one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, 'I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, 'I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, || A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, 'I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him. And power was given || unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal,

I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, 'How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

CHAP. VII.

1 John seeth four angels holding the four winds; 2 and another angel coming to seal the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed out of each of the tribes of Israel. 9 An innumerable multitude out of all other nations stand before the throne in white robes, with palms in their hands, praising God and the Lamb. 11 The angels, elders, and beasts, worship and glorify God. 13 One of the elders sheweth John who they are that are clad in white robes, and what is their blessedness for ever.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, ' Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have ' sealed the servants of our God ' in their foreheads. 4 ' And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed ' an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, ' a great multitude, which no man could number, ' of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, ' clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, ' Salvation to our God ' which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 ' And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 ' Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in ' white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, ' These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have ' washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall ' dwell among them.

16 ' They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; ' neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne ' shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: ' and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

Anno
96.

1 The seventh seal opened. 2 Seven angels receive seven trumpets. 3 An angel presenteth the prayers of the saints with incense on the golden altar before the throne. 6 Four of the angels sound their trumpets, and great plagues severally follow.

AND ' when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 ' And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; ' and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should ' offer it with ' the prayers of all saints upon ' the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And ' the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it ' into the earth: and ' there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, ' and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, ' and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast ' upon the earth: and the third part ' of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, ' and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: ' and the third part of the sea ' became blood;

9 ' And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, ' and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, ' and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 ' And the name of the star is called Wormwood: ' and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 ' And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

AND the fifth angel sounded, <sup>a</sup> and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of <sup>b</sup> the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; <sup>c</sup> and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke <sup>d</sup> locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, <sup>e</sup> as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them <sup>f</sup> that they should not hurt <sup>g</sup> the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not <sup>h</sup> the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, <sup>i</sup> but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days <sup>j</sup> shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And <sup>k</sup> the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; <sup>l</sup> and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, <sup>m</sup> and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and <sup>n</sup> their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was <sup>o</sup> as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: <sup>p</sup> and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king over them, <sup>q</sup> which is <sup>r</sup> the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is A-

12 || One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter. || That is to say, a destroyer. <sup>ch. 8. 13.</sup>

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound <sup>a</sup> in the great river Euphrates. <sup>ch. 16. 12.</sup>

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared <sup>b</sup> for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. || Or, at.

16 And <sup>c</sup> the number of the army <sup>d</sup> of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: <sup>e</sup> and I heard the number of them. <sup>Pr 68. 17. Dan. 7. 10. 7 Ezek. 98. 4. ch. 7. 4.</sup>

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: <sup>f</sup> and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. <sup>a 1 Chron. 12. 8. Isai. 5. 28, 29.</sup>

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: <sup>b</sup> for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt. <sup>b Isai. 9. 15.</sup>

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues <sup>c</sup> yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship <sup>d</sup> devils, <sup>e</sup> and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: <sup>d Deut. 31. 29. e Lev. 17. 7. mies; and power was given unto him || to continue <sup>a</sup> forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, <sup>a</sup> and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him <sup>p</sup> to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: <sup>a</sup> and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, <sup>r</sup> whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain <sup>a</sup> from the foundation of the world.

9 <sup>r</sup> If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 <sup>a</sup> He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: <sup>a</sup> he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword.

Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast <sup>z</sup> coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, <sup>a</sup> whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And <sup>b</sup> he doeth great wonders, <sup>c</sup> so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And <sup>d</sup> deceiveth them that dwell on the earth <sup>e</sup> by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, <sup>f</sup> and did live.

15 And he had power to give † life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, <sup>g</sup> and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he caused all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, <sup>h</sup> † to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or <sup>i</sup> the name of the beast, <sup>k</sup> or the number of his name.

18 <sup>i</sup> Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count <sup>m</sup> the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and fix.

C H A P. XIV.

1 The Lamb with his company standing on mount Sion; 6 an angel preacheth the gospel; 8 another proclaimeth the fall of Babylon; 9 and a third the punishment of them that worship the beast. 13 The blessedness of those that die in the Lord. 14 The harvest of the world. 17

The vintage and winepress of God's wrath.

AND I looked, and, lo, <sup>a</sup> a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him <sup>b</sup> an hundred forty and four thousand, <sup>c</sup> having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, <sup>d</sup> as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of <sup>e</sup> harpers harping with their harps:

3 And <sup>f</sup> they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song <sup>g</sup> but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; <sup>h</sup> for they are virgins. These are they <sup>i</sup> which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These † were redeemed from among men, <sup>j</sup> being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And <sup>m</sup> in their mouth was found no guile: for <sup>n</sup> they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel <sup>o</sup> fly in the midst of heaven, <sup>p</sup> having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, <sup>q</sup> and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, <sup>r</sup> Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: <sup>s</sup> and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, <sup>t</sup> Babylon is fallen, is fallen, <sup>u</sup> that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, <sup>v</sup> If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same <sup>w</sup> shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is <sup>x</sup> poured out without mixture into <sup>y</sup> the cup of his indignation; and <sup>z</sup> he shall be tormented with <sup>aa</sup> fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And <sup>ab</sup> the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 <sup>ac</sup> Here is the patience of the saints: <sup>ad</sup> here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud <sup>1</sup> like unto the Son of man, <sup>2</sup> having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel <sup>1</sup> came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, <sup>2</sup> Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest <sup>3</sup> of the earth is || ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, <sup>2</sup> which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, <sup>3</sup> Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into <sup>1</sup> the great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And <sup>2</sup> the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, <sup>3</sup> even unto the horse bridles, <sup>4</sup> by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

C H A P. XV.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues.
2 The song of them which overcome the beast.
5 The seven angels receive the seven golden vials full of the wrath of God.

AND <sup>1</sup> I saw another sign in heaven, a great and marvellous, <sup>2</sup> seven angels having the seven last plagues; <sup>3</sup> for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were <sup>1</sup> a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, <sup>2</sup> and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, <sup>3</sup> having the harps of God.

3 And they sing <sup>1</sup> the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, <sup>2</sup> Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; <sup>3</sup> just and true are thy ways, thou King of <sup>4</sup> saints.

4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for <sup>1</sup> thou only art holy: for <sup>2</sup> all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, <sup>1</sup> the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 <sup>2</sup> And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, <sup>3</sup> clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 <sup>1</sup> And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, <sup>2</sup> who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And <sup>1</sup> the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

C H A P. XVI.

1 The seven angels are commanded to pour out their vials on the earth. 2 Great plagues follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh suddenly as a thief: blessed are they that watch.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying <sup>1</sup> to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials <sup>2</sup> of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial <sup>1</sup> upon the earth; and <sup>2</sup> there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men <sup>3</sup> which had the mark of the beast, and upon them <sup>4</sup> which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial <sup>1</sup> upon the sea; and <sup>2</sup> it became as the blood of a dead man: <sup>3</sup> and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial <sup>1</sup> upon the rivers and fountains of waters; <sup>2</sup> and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, <sup>1</sup> Thou art righteous, O Lord, <sup>2</sup> which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For <sup>1</sup> they have shed the blood <sup>2</sup> of saints and prophets, <sup>3</sup> and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, <sup>1</sup> Lord God Almighty, <sup>2</sup> true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial <sup>1</sup> upon the sun; <sup>2</sup> and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were <sup>1</sup> scorched with great heat, and <sup>2</sup> blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: <sup>3</sup> and they repented not <sup>4</sup> to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial <sup>1</sup> upon the seat of the beast; <sup>2</sup> and his kingdom was full of darkness; <sup>3</sup> and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

13 And I saw three unclean <sup>f</sup> spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of <sup>g</sup> the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of <sup>h</sup> the false prophet.

15 ¶ Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, <sup>m</sup> lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 <sup>n</sup> And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, <sup>o</sup> It is done.

18 And <sup>p</sup> there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; <sup>q</sup> and there was a great earthquake, <sup>r</sup> such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And <sup>s</sup> the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon <sup>t</sup> came in remembrance before God, <sup>u</sup> to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And <sup>v</sup> every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 <sup>w</sup> And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and <sup>x</sup> men blasphemed God because of <sup>y</sup> the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

1 John's vision of the great whore, sitting upon the scarlet coloured beast, arrayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand. 5 Her name. 6 She is drunken with the blood of saints. 7 The interpretation of the mystery of the beast, and of his seven heads and ten horns; 18 and of the woman.

AND there came <sup>a</sup> one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; <sup>b</sup> I will shew unto thee the judgment of <sup>c</sup> the great whore <sup>d</sup> that sitteth upon many waters:

2 <sup>e</sup> With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and <sup>f</sup> the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit <sup>g</sup> into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit <sup>h</sup> upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of <sup>i</sup> names of blasphemy, <sup>j</sup> having seven heads and <sup>k</sup> ten horns.

6 And I saw <sup>u</sup> the woman drunken <sup>v</sup> with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of <sup>w</sup> the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carried her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and <sup>x</sup> shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and <sup>y</sup> go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth <sup>z</sup> shall wonder, <sup>aa</sup> whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And <sup>ab</sup> here is the mind which hath wisdom. <sup>ac</sup> The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, <sup>ad</sup> and goeth into perdition.

12 And <sup>ae</sup> the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 <sup>af</sup> These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: <sup>ag</sup> for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: <sup>ah</sup> and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

teth, <sup>a</sup> are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, <sup>a</sup> these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate <sup>a</sup> and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and <sup>a</sup> burn her with fire.

17 <sup>a</sup> For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, <sup>a</sup> until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest <sup>a</sup> is that great city, <sup>a</sup> which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 A mighty angel declareth the fall of Babylon.

4 God's people commanded to depart out of her.

8 Her judgment. 9 The kings of the earth, 11 and the merchants, 17 and mariners, lament over her. 20 The saints are excited to rejoice over her. 21 A millstone cast into the sea denoteth her irrecoverable fall.

AND <sup>a</sup> after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; <sup>b</sup> and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, <sup>a</sup> Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and <sup>a</sup> is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and <sup>a</sup> a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations <sup>a</sup> have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, <sup>a</sup> and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the <sup>a</sup> abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, (saying, <sup>b</sup> Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 <sup>a</sup> For her sins have reached unto heaven, and <sup>a</sup> God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 <sup>a</sup> Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: <sup>a</sup> in the cup which she hath filled <sup>a</sup> fill to her double.

7 <sup>a</sup> How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a <sup>a</sup> queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come <sup>a</sup> in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and <sup>a</sup> she shall be utterly burned with fire: <sup>a</sup> for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And <sup>a</sup> the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, <sup>a</sup> shall bewail her, and lament for her, <sup>a</sup> when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, <sup>a</sup> Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! <sup>a</sup> for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And <sup>a</sup> the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 <sup>b</sup> The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all <sup>a</sup> thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and <sup>a</sup> slaves, and <sup>a</sup> souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 <sup>a</sup> The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, <sup>a</sup> that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 <sup>a</sup> For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And <sup>a</sup> every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 <sup>a</sup> And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, <sup>a</sup> What city is like unto this great city!

19 And <sup>a</sup> they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! <sup>a</sup> for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 <sup>a</sup> Rejoice over her, <sup>a</sup> thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for <sup>a</sup> God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, <sup>a</sup> Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and <sup>a</sup> shall be found no more at all.

22 <sup>a</sup> And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his saints. 6 The triumph because of the marriage of the Lamb. 10 The angel, who shewed John these things, refuseth to be worshipped. 11 The vision of the Word of God sitting upon a white horse, and followed by his armies. 17 The fowls called to feast on the flesh of those that took part with the beast. 20 The beast and false prophet cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, and the rest slain.

AND after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: 2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen: Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 2 The new Jerusalem. 3 The blessedness of God's people; 8 The judgment of the wicked. 9 A description of the heavenly Jerusalem.

AND I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and forcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me * that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, 11 * Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had * twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 * On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and * in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me * had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 * And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper: the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: * and the street of the city was pure gold, as it was transparent glass.

22 * And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 * And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 * And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 * And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for * there shall be no night there.

26 * And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And * there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's * book of life.

C H A P. XXII.

1 The river and tree of life: 3 The glorious state of the servants of God. 8 John is forbidden by the angel to worship him; 10 and commanded to seal up the prophecy. 12 Christ's coming and eternity. 14 The blessedness of them that do God's commandments: 18 Nothing must be added to or taken from this prophecy. 21 The concluding benediction.

AND he shewed me * a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 * In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there * the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were * for the healing of the nations.

3 And * there shall be no more curse: * but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And * they shall see his face; and * his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 * And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun, for * the Lord God giveth them light: * and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, * These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets * sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 * Behold, I come quickly: * blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, * I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, * See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 * And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: * for the time is at hand.

11 * He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let

THE END.

An INDEX to the HOLY BIBLE; or an Account of the most remarkable Passages in the Books of the OLD and NEW TESTAMENT: pointing to the Time wherein they happened, and to the Places of Scripture wherein they are recorded.

		The first Age of the World.				The third Age of the World.
Before CHRIST	Genesis I, & II.	I N the beginning God created the heaven and the earth, &c. and last of all man after his own image. Man falls from his first state, but is promised a Saviour of the seed of the woman. The world first peopled after Adam and Eve had left paradise. About this time Cain and Abel offer sacrifice, and Abel is murdered by his brother. Seth born. Enos born. About this time men begin to call upon the name of the Lord. Cainan born. Mahalaleel born. Jared born. Enoch, the seventh from Adam, born. Methuselah born. Lamech, the father of Noah, born. Adam dieth, aged 930 years. Enoch in the 365th year of his age taken up to God. Seth dieth, aged 912 years. Noah, the father and Patriarch of the new world after the flood, born. Enos, the third from Adam, dieth, aged 905 years. Cainan dieth, aged 910 years. Mahalaleel, the fifth from Adam, dieth, aged 895 years. Jared, the sixth from Adam, dieth, aged 962 years. God commands Noah to preach repentance, and to build the ark, 120 years before the flood. To Noah, aged 500 years, is born Japheth, and two years after, Shem. Lamech, the ninth from Adam, dieth, aged 777 years. He is the first man whom the Scriptures mention to have died a natural death before his father. Methuselah dieth a little before the flood, in the 969th year of his age. He was the oldest man. The flood comes upon the earth in the 600th year of Noah's age.		Before CHRIST	Genesis XI. 4, 6.	About this time the posterity of Nimrod begin to build the city and tower of Babel, so called from the confusion of languages which God sent among the workmen. Reu born. Mizraim, the grandson of Ham, leads colonies into Egypt, and layeth the foundation of a kingdom, which lasted 1663 years; whence Egypt is called the land of Ham, and the Egyptian Pharaohs boasted themselves to be the sons of ancient kings. Serug born. Nahor born. Terah, Abram's father, born. Peleg, the sixth from Noah, dieth: Nahor, the ninth from Noah, dieth: Noah dieth, aged 950 years, 350 years after the flood: Abram born, he was 75 years of age when his father Terah died, aged 205 years; so that Terah begat not Abram in the 70th year of his age, but Nahor and Haran, and in the 130th year of his age begat Abram. See Act. VII. 4. Sarai Abram's wife, (called also Iscah): Haran Abram's brother's daughter, born ten years after her husband. Reu, the seventh from Noah, dieth: Serug, the eighth from Noah, dieth. About this time Chedorlaomer king of Elam subdueth the kings of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zebouim, and Bela; who serve him 12 years. Terah with his family leaveth Ur of the Chaldeans, and dwells at Haran.

		The second Age of the World.				The third Age of the World.
		T HE flood cealeth, and Noah, with his family, and the creatures he carried in with him, comes out of the ark, and offers a burnt offering. At the same time God makes a covenant with Noah and his seed, promising never more to destroy the world by water; as a token whereof he placeth the rainbow in the cloud. The same year Noah begins to plant vines, and is drunk. Arphaxad born. Salah born. Eber born. Peleg born: so called, because in his days the earth was divided. About this time Nimrod begins to exalt himself, by laying the first foundation of the Assyrian monarchy. Nineve, the metropolis of Assyria, built.				ABRAM, after his father's decease, in the 75th year of his age, is commanded by God to enter upon the land of Canaan, which God promiseth to give unto his seed, and that in his seed ( viz. Christ Jesus our Lord) all the families of the earth should be blessed. In the year following a famine in the land of Canaan forceth Abram with his family to go into Egypt. From this first coming into Egypt to the departure of the children of Israel out of it are reckoned 430 years. Abram and Lot in this same year return into Canaan; but the land not being sufficient for both their flocks, they part asunder. Lot goeth to Sodom. God reneweth his promise to Abram; he removeth to Hebron, and there buildeth an altar. Bera the king of Sodom with four other kings rebel against Chedorlaomer, but are overcome by him in the valley of Siddim. Lot being taken prisoner, Abram rescueth him, slayeth Chedorlaomer and his confederates, and in his return is blessed by Melchisedec king of Salem, and priest of God, to whom Abram gives tithe. The rest of the spoils, his partners having had their portions, he restoreth to the king of Sodom. Abram complaineth for want of an heir:

Before CHRIST	Genesis	God promiseth him a son, and a multiplying of his seed. Canaan is promised again, and confirmed by a sign.	Before CHRIST	Genesis	Judah, from whom the Jews receive their denomination.
1913.	XV.		1755.	XXIX.	Rachel, having been long barren, at length beareth Joseph: Jacob, desiring to depart, is persuaded by Laban to serve six years more for some part of his flock.
1911.	XVI.	Sarai, being barren, giveth Hagar her handmaid to Abram.	1745.	XXX.	Jacob, after he had been twenty years in Mesopotamia, sets forward on his journey homewards, without acquainting his father or brothers in law. Rachel stealeth her father's gods, and is pursued by Laban. Jacob by his prudence is reconciled to his brother Esau. He wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, and is called Israel.
1910.	15.	Ishmael, Hagar's son, born.		XXXI.	About this time Dinah, Jacob's daughter, is deflowered by Sichem the son of Hamor. Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, revenge their sister's quarrel, by putting all the males of Sichem to the sword; for which thing Jacob reproveth them.
1908.	XI. 13.	Arphaxad, the third from Noah, dieth.	1739.	XXXII.	Rachel is delivered of Benjamin on the way betwixt Beth-el, or Beth-lehem, and Ephrath, and dies in childbed. Some think that Job lived about this time.
1897.	XVII. 5.	God maketh a covenant with Abram, and in token of a greater blessing changeth his name into Abraham. As a Seal of this covenant, Circumcision is ordained. Sarai her name also is changed into Sarah, and she is blessed. God promiseth them a son, and commandeth that his name be called Isaac; in him God promiseth to establish his covenant.		XXXIV.	Judah lieth with Tamar his daughter in law in disguise.
	XVIII.	Abraham entertaineth three angels, who renew the promise to him of having a son. God revealeth to Abraham the destruction of Sodom, with whom Abraham intercedes for Lot and his family. See Gen. xix. 29.		XXXV.	Joseph is hated by his brethren, and is sold to merchantmen, Ishmaelites and Midianites, who carry him into Egypt, where he is sold to Potiphar an officer of Pharaoh, and by him made overseer of his house.
	XIX.	Lot is commanded, for the preservation of himself and his family, to get out of Sodom, and to flee to the mountain; but by much intreaty he obtaineth leave to go into Zoar. Sodom, Gomorrah, and all the cities in the vale of Siddim, with all the inhabitants of them, are for the most horrible sins destroyed by fire and brimstone from Heaven. The Dead Sea remains a monument thereof unto this day. Lot's wife for looking back upon Sodom, contrary to God's command, is turned into a pillar of salt; and Lot himself, fearing to continue at Zoar, leaves the plain country, and betakes himself to the mountain, carrying his two daughters with him.	1729.	XXXVIII.	Joseph resisteth the temptations of his master's wife; he is falsely accused by her, and cast into prison. He interpreteth the dreams of Pharaoh's butler and baker, which come to pass according to his interpretation.
1896.	XXI. 2.	Isaac born in the 100th year of Abraham's age. Not long after to Lot are born Moab and Ammon, his sons at the same time, and his grandsons.		XXXV.	Isaac dieth, aged 180 years, and is buried by his sons, Jacob and Esau.
	XIX.		1716.	28.	Joseph interpreteth Pharaoh's two dreams; he giveth Pharaoh counsel, and is made governor of the whole land of Egypt.
1892.	XXI. 9.	Hagar and Ishmael at Sarah's request are cast forth.	1715.	XXI. 25,	Here begin the seven years of plenty in the land of Egypt. About this time Manasseh and Ephraim, Joseph's two sons, are born of Asenath, the daughter of Potipherah, priest of On.
1878.	XI. 15.	Salah, the fourth from Noah, dieth.		47,	Here begin the seven years of famine.
1871.	XXII.	God tempteth Abraham to offer Isaac. Abraham giveth proof of his faith and obedience.		50,	Jacob sendeth his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt; they are imprisoned by Joseph for spies; but are set at liberty on condition of bringing Benjamin; and Simeon is kept as a pledge.
1859.	XXIII.	Sarah dieth at Hebron in Canaan in the 127th year of her age.	1708.	54.	Jacob is with much difficulty persuaded to send Benjamin. Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren, and sendeth for his father by command from Pharaoh.
1856.	XXIV.	Isaac marrieth Rebekah the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Nahor, in the 40th year of his age.	1707.	XLII.	Jacob, having offered sacrifice to God for that his son Joseph is yet alive, goes with all his family into Egypt in the third year of famine, and 130th year of his age. He is seated in the land of Goshen.
1846.	XI. 11.	Shem, the son of Noah, dieth.		1, 2, 3.	Joseph getteth all the money, lands, and cattle, of the Egyptians for bread; only the lands belonging to the Priests he buyeth not.
1837.	XXV.	Jacob and Esau born in the 60th year of their father Isaac's age.		XLIII.	Jacob adopteth Ephraim and Manasseh, and blesteth them; and all his sons: prophesieth the descent of the Messiah from Judah, and dieth, aged 147 years; 17 whereof he lived in Egypt.
1821.	XXV. 7.	Abraham dieth, aged 175 years.		XLV.	He is with great pomp carried into Canaan, and buried in the sepulchre of his father.
1817.	XI. 17.	Heber, the fifth from Noah, dieth: from him Abraham and his posterity were called Hebrews. Gen. xiv. 13.	1706.	XLVI.	Joseph on his death bed prophesieth unto his brethren their return to Canaan; takes an oath of them to carry his bones out of Egypt, and dieth, aged 110 years.
1796.	XXVI.	Esau, aged forty years, marrieth Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bathemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.			The book of Genesis endeth in the death of Joseph, containing the history of 2369 years: next to which in order of time the
1773.	XXV. 17.	Ishmael dieth, aged 137 years.	1704.	XLVII.
1760.	XXVII.	Jacob by his mother's instruction obtaineth the blessing from Isaac his father, which was designed for Esau. Upon which he is forced to flee into Mesopotamia, to shun his brother's rage. Upon the way are foretold unto him in a vision the blessings of his posterity. At length he cometh to his uncle Laban's house, and covenanteth to serve him seven years for his daughter Rachel, but Laban deceiveth him with Leah; the marriage week being completed, Rachel also is given him to wife, upon condition of serving seven years more.	1703.

Before CHRIST			Before CHRIST
1619.	Exodus VI. 16.	book of Job follows, written (as it is generally believed) by Moses.	1491.	Exodus XVI.	Upon the fifteenth of the second month (our June the 4th, being Thursday ) the Israelites come to the wilderness of Zin, which lieth between Elyma and Sinai, where for want of food they murmur against God and their leaders: about the eventide God sends them quails, and the next morning rains upon them manna from heaven; and upon that kind of bread they lived afterward by the space of forty years, even till they came to the borders of the land of Promise. An omer of it is preserved for a memorial.
1577.	I. 8.	Levi dieth in Egypt, aged 137 years; he was grandfather to Moses and Aaron.		XVII. 1.	At Rephidim, which was the eleventh place of their encamping, the people murmur for want of water: Moses gives them water by striking the hard rock in Horeb with his rod.
1574.	VII. 7.	Here begins the bondage of the children of Israel, when a king rose up in Egypt, who knew not Joseph.	8, 9, &c.		The Amalekites falling upon the rear of the Israelites are discomfited by Joshua, whilst Moses holds up his hands to God in prayer.
1573.	I. 15, 22.	Aaron born three years before his brother Moses, 83 years before the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.	XX.		God publisheth his Law contained in the Ten Commandments with a terrible voice from mount Sinai.
1571.	II. 1, 5.	Pharaoh having in vain commanded the Hebrew midwives to destroy all the males of the Israelites, sets forth an edict, charging that they be all cast into the river.	XXI.		The people being in great fear, God gives them sundry other laws, all which being written in the book of the Covenant, Moses proposeth them to the people: which done, rising early in the morning, he builds an altar at the foot of the mountain, and sets up 12 statues, according to the 12 tribes of Israel, and sends 12 young men of the firstborn (whom the Lord hath consecrated to himself as ministers of those holy things, before the Levitical Priesthood was ordained) which offer sacrifice, first for sin, and then for thanksgiving, to the Lord: and when Moses had read the Book of the Covenant, he takes the blood of the calves and goats so offered, and with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, sprinkles the book therewith, and all the people, or those 12 statues representing them; and so performs a solemn Covenant between God and his people.
1531.	II. 11.	Moses is born, who, being hid in the flags by the river's side, is found by Pharaoh's daughter; and becomes her adopted son.	XXII, &c.		Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and 70 Men of the elders of Israel, go up into the mount, and there behold the glory of God: the rest returning, Moses with his servant Joshua abides there still, and waits six days, and upon the seventh day God speaks unto him, and there he continues 40 days and 40 nights (reckoning those six days which he waited for the appearance of the Lord) eating no meat all that while, nor drinking water; ( Deut. LXI. 9. ) where he receives God's command touching the frame of the Tabernacle, the Priests' garments, their consecration; sacrifices, and other things comprised in this and the six following Chapters.
1530.	Josh. XIV. 7.	Moses in the 40th year of his age, having slain an Egyptian, whom he saw contending with an Hebrew, fleeth into Midian, where he marrieth Zipporah the daughter of Reuel, or Jethro, a priest, and liveth with him forty years.	XXIV.		At the end of 40 days God gives Moses the two tables of the Law in stone, made by God's own hand, and written with his own finger; bidding him withal quickly to get him down, for that the people had already made to themselves a molten calf to worship.
1491.	Ex. III. 1, 2, &c.	Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, born.	9, 18.		Moses by prayer pacifieth God, and goes down from the mount, and seeing the people keeping a festival in honour of their idol in the camp, he breaks the tables of the law at the foot of the mount: for which the Jews keep a solemn fast unto this day.
	V.	Whilst Moses keeps his father in law's sheep at mount Horeb, God appeareth to him in a burning bush, and sendeth him to deliver Israel.		XXV, &c.	Moses, having burnt and defaced the idol, puts 3000 of the idolaters to death by the hands of the Levites.
	VII. 7.	Moses and Aaron having declared to Pharaoh the message, on which they are sent unto him from God, are charged by him as heads of a mutiny, and sent away with many bad words; and more grievous labours are forthwith laid upon the Israelites. 	29, 41.	Upon the fifteenth of the same month, at midnight, the firstborn of Egypt being all slain, Pharaoh and his servants make haste to send away the Israelites; and they, the selfsame day wherein they were let go out of bondage, being the complete term of 430 years from the first pilgrimage of their ancestor's, reckoning from Abraham's departure out of Charran, take their journey, and march away, being 600,000 men, beside children, and come to Rameses, from whence, by several encampings they come to the Red sea, the Lord conducting them in a pillar of a cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. They carry Joseph's bones with them.	XXXIV.

At the Red sea Pharaoh with his host overtakes them; Moses divides the waters with his rod, and the children of Israel pass through on dry ground unto the desert of Etham; whom when Pharaoh and his army would needs follow, they are all overwhelmed by the waters coming together at the dawning of the day, whereby the Israelites are wholly freed from the bondage of the Egyptians; whose carcases when they see floating all the sea over, and cast upon the shore, they sing a song of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

clust of a rock, God passeth by, and sheweth him a glimpse of his glory.

God renews his Covenant with his people, and upon certain conditions gives them his Laws again.

In the first six months of this year, the tabernacle, the ark of the covenant, the altar, the table of shewbread, the priests' garments, the holy ointments, the candlestick, and other utensils and vessels belonging to the sacrifices, are finished in the desert at mount Sinai, and are brought unto Moses.

The tabernacle is set up and anointed with holy oil. Aaron and his sons are consecrated for the priesthood.

Nadab and Abihu for offering strange fire are struck dead in the place by fire from heaven.

The princes of the tribes present their offerings toward the dedication of the tabernacle. God speaketh to Moses from the mercy seat.

The second passover is instituted.

Jethro, who is also called Hobab, brings his daughter Zipporah, with her two sons, Gershon and Eliezer, which were left with him, to his son in law Moses: and having congratulated his and the whole people of Israel's deliverance out of bondage, he openly declares his faith and devotion toward the true God. By his advice Moses imparts the government of the people to some others, and ordains magistrates for the deciding of lesser causes.

Moses complains to God of the over great burden of his government; God, to ease him of his charge, gives him for assistance the court of 70 Elders.

The people lust for flesh, God gives them quails in wrath; and sends withal a most grievous plague among them.

God rebukes the sedition of Miriam and Aaron, and maintaineth Moses his right.

From the wilderness of Paran, near Kadesh-barnea, 12 men are sent (among whom are Caleb and Joshua) to discover the land of Canaan. Returning, they bring with them a branch of a vine, with a cluster of grapes upon it; ten of the twelve so sent speak ill of the country, declare it barren, and magnify the cities for their strength, and the giantly stature of the inhabitants.

The people, terrified with this relation, are about to return into Egypt, from which Caleb and Joshua endeavouring to dissuade them are like to be stoned. At this God is so provoked, that he threatens to destroy them; but is prevailed upon by Moses his prayers to spare them. Nevertheless he denounceth that all who are now 20 years old and upward (except Caleb and Joshua) shall die in the wilderness. The men who raised the evil report are all destroyed by sudden death. Some endeavouring to enter upon the promised land, contrary to the command of God, are smitten by the Amalekites and Canaanites.

In this place, viz. Kadesh-barnea, the Israelites continue many days; but that in some places they continued many years, appeareth, for that in the space of 37 years there are but 17 encampings mentioned.

To their long continuance in Kadesh, and the encampings from thence, all that we find delivered in the xvth and four next ensuing Chapters of Numbers seems to refer; as how mutiny against Moses and Aaron, were swallowed alive into the earth, and 250 of their associates; and how the people, murmuring against Moses and Aaron for the calamity which had befallen their brethren, were destroyed by God to the number of 14,700 men; and how 12 rods being brought by 12 princes, and laid in the sanctuary, Aaron's rod only budded, and brought forth almonds, and was laid up before the Ark, for a memorial to those who should afterwards be given to rebellion.

In these 37 years' the Israelites by 17 encampings having compassed the hill country of Seir and Edom, they come to the wilderness of Zin in the first month of the 40th year after their departure out of Egypt.

Here Miriam, the Sister of Moses and Aaron, dieth.

The people again for want of water murmur against Moses and Aaron, whom when God had commanded to call water out of the rock only by speaking to it, Moses, being moved in his mind through impatience and diffidence of the thing, speaks something, whatever it was, unadvisedly with his lips, and strikes the rock thrice with Aaron's rod, and thereby draws water from it; but for transgressing God's command they are both debarred from entering into the land of Canaan.

In the fifth month of this year Aaron dieth at Mosera, on the top of mount Hor, at the age of 123 years, leaving his son Eleazar his successor in the high priesthood.

The people murmuring are plagued with fiery serpents, whereof many die; upon their repentance God commands that a brazen serpent be made, and lifted up upon a pole, that as many as look on it may live.

About the latter end of this year, all those who at Kadesh-barnea joined against God being wholly extinct and dead, the Israelites pass over Zared, and come to the borders of Moab at Ar, and at length they arrive at Bamoth, a valley in the country of the Moabites, and pitch at mount Pisgah.

Sihon king of the Amorites, refusing them passage through his country, is slain, and the Israelites possess his land.

Og the king of Basan, coming out against Israel, is destroyed with all his people, not one left alive, and his country possessed by the Israelites.

After these victories the Israelites set forward, and encamp in the plains of Moab.

Balak king of Moab, considering what the Israelites had done to the Amorites, fears, lest under pretence of passing through his country they should possess themselves of his whole kingdom; takes council with the princes of the Midianites his neighbours, and sends for Balaam a soothsayer out of Mesopotamia to come and curse the Israelites, promising him great rewards for his labour; purposing afterwards to make war upon them.

Balaam, forewarned of God, refuseth at first to come; but being sent for a second time, he importuneth God to let him go, and goes with a purpose indeed to curse Israel; but God, offended thereat, makes the dumb ass of this wizard, on which he rode, speaking in a man's voice, to reprove his folly.

Balaam twice offers sacrifice, and would fain have cursed Israel, to gratify Balak therein; but being forced thereto by the Spirit of God, instead of cursing, he blesteth them altogether; foretelling what felicity attended them, and what calamities should befall their enemies.

By his advice the women of Moab and Midian are set on work to turn the Israelites away to idolatry. Wherefore God commands Moses first to take all the ringleaders of this disorder, and to hang them up before the sun, and then gives order to the judges to put to death all such as had joined themselves to Baal-peor. Last of all God sends a plague upon the people, whereof die 23,000 men in one day: which added to them which were hanged and killed with the sword amount in all to 24,000.

Phinehas the son of Eleazar, by killing Zimri, the chief of his father's family, and Cozbi the daughter of Zur, a prince of the Midianites, appeaseth the wrath of God, and the plague ceaseth. God therefore setteth the high priesthood for ever upon the house of Phinehas, and commands that war be made upon the Midianites.

Moses and Eleazar, by God's command, in the plain of Moab, near unto Jordan, over against Jericho, number the people from twenty years old and upwards, and find them to be 601,730 men, beside the Levites, whose number, reckoning them from one month old and upwards, come to 23,000; and then Moses receives command for the parting the land of promise among the Israelites.

The daughters of Zelophehad have their father's land parted among them, for want of issue male; this occasions the law for succession in heritages to be made.

God signifies to Moses that he shall die; and Joshua thereupon is declared to be his successor; upon whom Moses lays his hands, and gives him instructions. Several laws are made.

Twelve thousand of the Israelites under the command of Phinehas vanquish the Midianites, and put to the sword all the males among them with their five princes, and among them Zur, the father of Cozbi, and Balaam the wizard; but they save the women alive; at which Moses is wroth, and commands that every male child, and all the women, except such as be virgins, be killed.

The lands which belonged to Sihon and Og, namely, all from the river Arnon to mount Hermon, Moses divides, and gives to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh; so that their possessions lay on this side Jordan; nevertheless they assist the rest of the tribes in all their wars, till they have subdued the Canaanites, and possessed the promised land.

Moses commands the people, that in their passage over Jordan they shall set up great stones, and engrave the Ten Commandments on them, with the form of blessing upon mount Gerizim, and of cursing on mount Ebal; exhorting them to observe the law of God, by setting before their eyes the benefits that would ensue thereon.

He also renews the covenant made by God with them and their children on mount Horeb, and again persuades them to keep that covenant by all the blessings and curses, which would undoubtedly follow the keepers or breakers of it: yet with a promise of pardon and deliverance, if at any time, having broken it, they shall repent them of their sin; and tells them further, that God had therefore thus declared his will unto them, to the end that none hereafter offending shall pretend ignorance.

Moses, having written this law, delivers it to the priests the sons of Levi, and the elders of the people, to be kept; the same day also he writes his most excellent song, and teaches the same to the children of Israel to be sung; and having finished the book of the law, he takes order to have it laid up in the side of the ark.

Moses, now drawing near to his end, blesteth every tribe in particular by way of prophecy, save only the tribe of Simeon.

In the 12th month of this year he goes up to mount Nebo, and from thence beholds the land of promise, and there dieth, aged 120 years; the body of Moses God translates out of the place where he died into a valley of the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor, and there burieth it; nor doth any man know the place where he laid it unto this day. The Israelites mourn for him 30 days.

Here ends the Pentateuch, or five books of Moses, containing the history of 2552 years and an half, from the beginning of the world; and the book of Joshua begins with the 41st year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

Joshua, being confirmed in his government by God, sends forth spies from Shittim to the city of Jericho, who, being harboured by Rahab, are privily sent away, when search is made for them.

Upon the tenth day of the first month, (April 30) to wit, the same day that the Paschal Lamb was to be chosen out of the flock, the Israelites under the conduct of Joshua, a type of Jesus Christ, go up out of the river Jordan into the promised land of Canaan, a type of a more heavenly country. They pass through the river on dry ground, the waters being for that present divided; for a memorial of which miraculous passage Joshua sets up 12 stones in the very channel of Jordan, and taking 12 other stones out of the midst thereof sets them up at Gilgal, the place where they next encamp.

The day following Joshua renews the use of circumcision, which had been omitted 40 years.

Upon the 14th day of the same month, in the evening, the Israelites celebrate their first passover in the land of Canaan.

Next day after the Passover Manna ceaseth. Our Lord Jesus, Captain of his Father's host, appears to Joshua, the typical Jesus, before Jericho, with a drawn sword in his hand, and promiseteth there to defend his people.

Jericho, the ark of the Lord having been carried round about it, is taken the seventh day, the walls thereof falling down at the sound of the priests' trumpets; all the inhabitants are put to the sword, except Rahab and her family.

The Israelites besiege Ai, and are smitten by their enemies, God having abandoned them for sacrilege committed by Achan;

Before CHRIST 1451.	Josh. VII.	Achan's sin being discovered by the casting of lots, and himself found guilty, he is stoned to death, and together with his children and cattle, burned with fire. In this time of anarchy and confusion, when every man did that which seemed right in his own eyes, all those disorders were committed, which are reported in the five last chapters of the Book of Judges; to wit, the idolatry of Micah, and the children of Dan; the war of the Benjamites, and the cause thereof. God, being highly provoked, gives them up into the hands of Cushan king of Mesopotamia; which first calamity of their's holds them but 8 years.

Joshua commands the sun to stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Ajalon, by the space almost of one whole day, until the Israelites are fully avenged of their enemies. The five kings hide themselves in a cave at Makkedah; from whence they are brought forth, scornfully used, and hanged.	1343.	12,	Othniel dying, the Israelites fall again to sin against God, and are given over into the hands of Eglon king of Moab, who, joining with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, overthrows the Israelites, and takes Jericho; and this second oppression continueth 18 years.

Gideon having pacified the Ephraimites, who complain that they were not called to the battle at first, passeth the river Jordan, and defeats the remainder of the Midianitish army; he chastiseth also the men of Succoth and Penueh, who had refused him victuals in his journey; and slays the two kings of the Moabites, Zebah and Zalmunna. The Philistines take Samson's wife and father in law, and burn them; Samson in revenge slays a great multitude of them, and sits down upon the rock Etam, from whence being taken by 3000 of the Jews, and by them delivered into the hands of the Philistines, he slays of them a thousand men with the jawbone of an ass; in which place he is miraculously refreshed, when thirsty and ready to faint.

XVI.	Samson is betrayed by Delilah his concubine, bereaved of the hair of his Nazariteship, and delivered to the Philistines; who put out his eyes, and bind him with chains of brass. The ark of God is taken, and Hophni and Phinehas, priests, and sons of Eli, are slain. About a month after Jabesh-gilead is besieged by Nahath king of the Amorites, and the siege raised by Saul: whereupon the whole congregation of Israel, coming together at Gilgal, again proclaim Saul king.

David the son of Jesse the Ephrathite born at Beth-lehem-judah 30 years before he succeeded Saul in the kingdom. He was his father's youngest son.

God rejects Saul, and sends Samuel to Beth-lehem, there to anoint David king, whom Saul ever after extremely persecuteth.

Yet Jonathan, Saul's son, loveth him, and oftentimes rescueth him from Saul's cruelty.

David having Saul twice in his power forbears to hurt him.

David, fearing he may sometime or other fall into the hands of Saul, flies to Gath unto king Achish, carrying with him 600 men; and having obtained of him the town of Ziklag to dwell in, he continueth one year and four months in the land of the Philistines: from whence he invadeth the countries of the Geshurites, Gezrites, and Amalekites, and puts to the sword all, both men and women, not leaving one alive to carry the news thereof to king Achish.

Achish, proposing to make war upon the Israelites, takes David along with him in that expedition, to whom, whilst he is upon his march with his 600 men, repair a great many others of the tribe of Manasseh, and join with him.

Saul, seeing the army of the Philistines, is in great fear, and (Samuel being now dead) goes to Endor to consult with a witch there; the woman raiseth an apparition of Samuel, and Saul receives from it that dreadful doom. The Lord will deliver Israel, together with thyself, into the hands of the Philistines.

The princes of the Philistines growing jealous of David, he and his company early the next morning leave the army, and return to Ziklag.

The armies join battle; and the Israelites are defeated; the three sons of Saul are slain, and he himself falls on his own sword.

Three days after an Amalekite brings Saul's crown, and the bracelet that was upon his arm, and presents them to David, professing that, finding him fallen upon his sword, he had killed him outright, and taken the crown from off his head: whereupon David causeth him to be put to death for stretching forth his hand to slay the Lord's anointed, and lamenteth the death of Saul and Jonathan his son in a funeral song.

David, having asked counsel of God, goes up to Hebron with those that are about him, where he is anointed king by the men of Judah, his own tribe, in the 30th year of his age; and there he reigns seven years and six months.

Abner, who was captain of the host to Saul, carries Ishbosheth Saul's son to Mahanaim, and there makes him king over the rest of Israel.

After two years there arise frequent and mortal skirmishes between a party of men on David's side, headed by Joab David's nephew, and another party on Ishbosheth's side, whereof Abner is chief; but the former still grows stronger and stronger.

Abner affronted by Ishbosheth revolteth to David, and deals with the chief men of Israel to transfer the whole kingdom unto him, and this in the hearing of the Benjamites.

He comes to David, and is kindly received; returning he is treacherously murdered by Joab. David much laments his untimely death, and buries him at Hebron.

Baanah and Rechab murder their lord and master Ishbosheth, as he lieth resting himself upon his bed. They bring his head to David, who in detestation of their treason causeth them immediately to be put to death.

The captains and elders of all the tribes coming to Hebron anoint David a third time, and make him king over all Israel.

David with all Israel marcheth to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, and taketh the fort of Zion, and calls it the city of David, and making Jerusalem the seat of his kingdom, reigneth there over all Israel 33 years.

The ark of the covenant, which in the first sabbatical year was brought from Gilgal to Shiloh, is this year, being also a sabbatical year, brought from Kirjath-jearim out of the house of Abinadab, and placed at Zion; 30,000 choice men of Israel attending it, and singing the 68th Psalm.

David now dwelling in his house of cedar, which he had built, and living in a full and perfect peace, imparteth to Nathan the prophet his purpose of building a house for God; but is answered from God, that this was a work which should be done, not by him, because he was a man of blood, and trained up in war; but by his son Solomon, a man of peace, which should be born unto him. The time which passeth from hence till the birth of Solomon is spent in wars; wherein David subdues the Philistines, Edomites, Amalekites, Moabites, Ammonites, and Syrians, and extends his kingdom to the utmost bound of that land which had been promised to the seed of Abraham, and never possessed by any of them, save only by David and his son Solomon.

At the end of this year Joab, going with the army against the Ammonites, besiegeth Rabbah the metropolis of Ammon, whilst David takes his ease at Jerusalem, and there commits adultery with Bathsheba the wife of Uriah the Hittite, who was then in the army, whom he also procures to be slain.

The child so gotten in adultery is born. David is convicted by Nathan the prophet of his sin, and he repents; in testimony whereof he composeth the 51st Psalm. The child dieth.

Bathsheba becomes now David's wife,

Abalom avengeth his sister Thamar, and killeth his brother Amnon; for which thing he fleeth to Geshur in Syria, where he continues three years with king Talmi, his grandfather by the mother's side.	1004.	VI. 38.	Solomon this year (being the 9th Jubile, and opening the fourth Millenary of the world) with great magnificence celebrates the dedication of the temple; at which time God giveth a visible sign of his favour.
1027.	XIV.	After three years' exile he returns to Jerusalem, where he continues two years, before the king his father admits him into his presence, and is reconciled to him.	975.	VII.	Solomon having, as it is with reason believed, forsaken his lusts and vanities, to which he had been too intemperately addicted, and written, as a testimony of his repentance, his book called, The Preacher, dieth. He reigned 40 years.

The Israelites assemble at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, Solomon's son, king over all Israel. The people by Jeroboam sue unto him for a removal of some grievances; to whom Rehoboam, by the advice of young men, returning an harsh answer, alienates the hearts of ten tribes from him, who make Jeroboam king over them, and fall at the same time from the house of David, and from the true worship of God.
1024.	XV.	The next year following, under pretence of a vow, he obtaineth leave to go to Hebron, where by Ahithophel's counsel he breaks out into open rebellion, and forceth his father to fly from Jerusalem.		IX.	Jeroboam in the beginning of his reign repairs Shechem, destroyed by Abimelech 258 years before, and there dwells; afterwards going over Jordan he builds Penuel, and at length makes Tirzah the seat of his kingdom. But fearing lest his new subjects by going to Jerusalem to worship may be induced to revolt from him, he deviseth a new form of religion, setting up two golden calves, the one at Beth-el, the other at Dan, for the seduced people to bow down unto.
1023.	7.	Ahithophel, because his counsel in all matters is not followed by Abalom, hangs himself.	25.	XII.	From the time of this dismal rent Rehoboam reigneth over Judah and Benjamin 17 years, and Jeroboam over Israel, or the other ten tribes, 22 years.

The Priests and Levites, and other Israelites who feared God, stick to Rehoboam, and maintain the kingdom of Judah three years; after which time Rehoboam falls to idolatry, and walketh no more in the ways of David and Solomon.
1017.	XXIV.	David, tempted by Satan, commandeth Joab to number the people: God, offended thereat, sends a prophet to put three plagues to his choice, viz. the famine, sword, or pestilence. David chooseth to fall into the hands of a merciful God, rather than into the hands of men. So God sends a pestilence; whereof 70,000 men die in one day. The angel being about to destroy Jerusalem, God bids him hold his hand; for he beholds David repenting in sackcloth, and intreating him to spare the innocent people, and to turn his hand upon himself, and upon his father's house.		XII. 26.	Jeroboam sacrificing to his calf at Beth-el, a prophet is sent unto him from God, who foretels the judgment which should one day be executed upon that altar, and the priests (viz. those whom Jeroboam had made of the lowest of the people) that served at it. Which prophecy then and there is confirmed by signs and wonders upon the king himself, and upon the altar.
1016.	1 Chron. XXI.	Rehoboam is born unto Solomon by Naamah an Ammonitish woman.		XIV.	Shishak king of Egypt spoileth Jerusalem and the temple; but the king and the princes repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah the prophet, God gives them not over to utter destruction.
1015.	1 Kings I.	David being now 70 years of age, and broken with continual cares and wars, grows so weak and feeble, that clothes can no longer preserve heat in him. Therefore Abishag a young virgin is appointed to keep him warm. Adonijah, seeing his father thus declining, by the assistance of Joab and Abiathar makes himself king: which David understanding, he presently commands Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, with other great men, to anoint Solomon king. Adonijah hearing this betakes himself to the sanctuary, and is pardoned.	974.	XI. 17.	Abijam the son of Rehoboam succeeds his father in the kingdom of Judah, and reigns three years.

A third captain with his fifty men being sent, and behaving himself submissively, Elijah goes along with him; the prophet certifies the king that he shall not come down from his bed alive. He dispatched letters also to Samaria, and causeth seventy of Ahab's children to be beheaded. Then taking with him Jehonadab the son of Rechab, he comes himself to Samaria, and destroys the whole family of Ahab, and all the priests of Baal. Nevertheless, having put down the worship of Baal, he departs not from the worship of Jeroboam's golden calves, but maintains that idolatry all the time of his reign, which was 28 years.

IX. Jehu proceeds farther, and executes the divine vengeance upon the idolatrous house of Judah; he pursues Ahaziah who fled towards Megiddo, and overtaking him at Gur, causeth him to be killed in his chariot. Going also to Samaria, he meeteth with 42 of Ahaziah's kinsmen, whom he causeth to be slain.

878. 2 Kings XI. Jehoiada the high priest brings out Jehoash, now seven years old; and anoints him king; causeth Athaliah to be slain, and restoreth the worship of the true God, destroying the house of Baal, and commanding the idolatrous priest Mattan to be killed before his altars. Jehoash, now beginning his reign in the seventh year of Jehu, reigneth 40 years in Jerusalem.

839. XIII. Jehoahaz dieth, and Jehoash his son succeedeth in the kingdom of Israel. Not long after his father's funeral he visits Elisha the prophet, then lying sick, and with many tears asketh counsel of him, who promiseth him victory over the Syrians. by his father Jehoash, going to war against the Syrians. This is gathered from Azariah king of Judah's beginning his reign in the 27th year of this Jeroboam.

Amaziah king of Judah, growing proud upon a victory obtained against the Edomites this 14th year of his reign, provoketh Jehoash king of Israel to battle. Jehoash overcomes him, and takes him prisoner, breaks down 400 cubits of the wall of Jerusalem, and, having spoiled the temple and the king's house of a vast treasure, returns to Samaria.

Jehoash dies fifteen years before Amaziah, and Jeroboam the second his son reigneth in Samaria 41 years.

Amaziah, finding a conspiracy against him at Jerusalem, flies to Lachish, where he is murdered; after whom comes his son Uzziah, or Azariah, in the 27th year of Jeroboam the second, and reigneth 52 years in Jerusalem.

Now is held the 13th Jubilee under the two most flourishing kings; in whose times live sundry great prophets in both kingdoms; Isaiah and Joel in Judah; Jonas, Hosea, and Amos, in Israel.

Jonas of Gath-hepher, a town belonging to the tribe of Zebulun in Galilee of the Gentiles, (observe here the blindness of the Pharisees, John vii. 52.) was afterwards sent into Nineve, the metropolis of Assyria, where both king and people at his preaching repented.

Jeroboam king of Israel (under whom that kingdom came to its full height of glory) dieth; after his death all things fall into confusion, and the state is reduced to a plain anarchy, which lasteth 11 years and an half; for such an interregnum or vacancy the synchronism of Kings requires, that the six months of Zechariah the son of Jeroboam may answer the 38 years and one month of Shallum, who murdered him in the 39th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah.

Zechariah the son of Jeroboam, the 4th, and last of the race of Jehu (as was foretold) begins his reign over Israel in the 38th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah, and reigneth 6 months.

Shallum the son of Jabesh at the end of 6 months murders him in the sight of the people, and reigns one month, in the 39th year of Uzziah king of Judah. After Zechariah's death follow those direful calamities foretold by Amos the prophet.

Menahem the son of Gadi, going from Tirzah to Samaria, killeth Shallum, wasteth Tiphshah and the borders thereof; and because the town would not open to him, he takes it, and rips up all the women with child.

While Menahem in these broils labours to get the possession of the kingdom, Pul king of Assyria invadeth his country, to whom Menahem giveth 1000 talents of silver, and afterwards reigneth quietly 10 years.

Pekahiah succeedeth his father Menahem, in the 50th year of Uzziah king of Judah, and reigneth 2 years.

Pekah, one of his captains, kills him in his own palace at Samaria, and reigneth 20 years.

Jotham succeedeth his father Uzziah in the kingdom of Judah at the age of 25 years, and reigneth 16 years in Jerusalem.

	2 Chron. XXVIII. 1. Isai. VII.	This year Rezin king of Syria and Pekah king of Israel are confederate against Judah, which strikes a great terror into that nation: but unto Ahaz God by the prophet Elisha sends a gracious message, with a promise of deliverance; for a sign whereof (when the incredulous king, being bid to ask a sign, refused to do it) God gives him the promise of Immanuel to be born of a virgin. Rezin and Pekah now lay siege to Jerusalem, and therein to Ahaz, but are beaten off; Ahaz is no sooner delivered from his enemies, but he forsakes God his deliverer, and falls to idolatry. Wherefore God gives him over into the hands of the king of Israel, who slays of the men of Judah 120,000 in one day, with a great many of the nobility, and carrieth away 200,000 captives; but these by the advice of the prophet Oded are released and sent home.	698.

An Epistle, said to be Jeremiah's, is now sent to the captives, admonishing them to be- ware of the idolatry which they shall see in Babylon.

From which entering of the king and people of the Jews into the subjection and service of Nebuchadnezzar are the 70 years of the captivity of Babylon to be reckoned, which were foretold by the prophet Jeremy.		Ezekiel XVII. 12.	Zedekiah, beginning his reign at 21 years of age, reigneth 11 years; he, by rebelling against Nebuchadnezzar, or rather by con- tinuing in an open rebellion (as his father had done) against God, brought upon Jerusalem and the whole nation of the Jews those long deserved calamities, which God had so often forewarned them of by his prophets; for in the latter end of the 11th year of Ze- dekiah Jerusalem after a long siege is taken by Nebuchadnezzar, and his Chaldeans enter it. Zedekiah flees away by night, but be- ing pursued is taken, and brought prisoner to Ribbath, Nebuchadnezzar's head quarters; there having first seen his children slaughter- ed before his eyes, he has afterwards those eyes put out, and, being loaden with chains, is carried away captive to Babylon. About a month after the taking of the city, Nebuzar- adan, captain of the guard, sent by Nebuchadnezzar, makes his entry into it, sets fire to the temple, the king's palace, and some noblemen's houses, and so layeth the whole city in ashes; the walls of Jerusalem being rased to the ground, all that were left in the city, and those that a little before had fallen to the Chaldeans, with what treasure he can find, doth Nebuzar-adan carry with him in- to Babylon.

point Levites to oversee the work of the house of God, and lay the foundation of the temple; the old men lamenting, who 53 years before had seen the old temple standing, and the younger sort rejoicing to see the new one going up.

The Samaritans by the means of certain courtiers about Cyrus, whom they had bribed for that purpose, disturb the Jews in their work of the temple.

In the beginning of the reign of Artaxerxes (called in profane story Cambyfes) the Samaritans, who, whilst Cyrus lived, had secretly undermined the Jews, now openly frame a direct accusation in writing against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem, and present it to the king, who presently forbids the Jews to proceed in the building.

In the second year of king Darius Hyftaspes (the same with Ahasuerus) Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple.

Haggai prophesieth that the glory of this second temple shall be greater than that of the former; not as being a more magnificent structure, but in regard the blessed Messiah shall one day honour it with his presence, and from thence propagate peace to all nations.

About this time Zechariah the prophet exhorteth the Jews to repentance.

Ahasuerus puts away queen Vashti his wife, and not long after espouseth Esther, the niece of Mordecai the Jew.

In the sixth year of Darius, or Ahasuerus, the temple is finished; the dedication whereof is celebrated with great joy and abundance of sacrifices, the Priests and Levites, every one in his place, attending on the ministry of the temple. The passover also is celebrated.

Haman an Agagite, of the race of the Amalekites, a great favourite of king Ahasuerus, offended at Mordecai, because he falls not down and adores him, as others do, resolves to be revenged of the whole nation of the Jews, (which was ever averse to his) and to root it out; for the executing of which purpose that he may find a successful time, he causeth Pur, that is, the Lot, to be cast before him, for to know the day and month wherein the Jews shall be destroyed, and the lot falls on the twelfth month Adar.

Haman obtains an edict from the king, that all Jews, without respect to sex or age, upon the thirteenth day of the month Adar be put to death in all the provinces of the king's dominions. Hereupon Mordecai, Esther, and all the Jews, humble themselves before the Lord by fasting and prayer.

Ahasuerus hearing it read in the chronicles, that a conspiracy had been discovered to him by Mordecai, commandeth that he be publickly honoured, and that by Haman himself, his deadly enemy.

Esther, entertaining the king and Haman at a banquet, maketh suit for her own life, and her people's, and accuseth Haman. The king, understanding that Haman had provided a gallows for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon. In memory of this great deliverance the two days of Purim are made festival.

Ezra the priest, a man skilled in the law of Moses, obtains a large commission from king Artaxerxes, to settle the Jewish commonwealth, and to reform the church at Jerusalem.

In the seventh year of Artaxerxes Ezra, with a great multitude of Jews, sets out from Babylon.

Ezra obligeth those who had taken strangers to wife to send them back.

In the twentieth year of king Artaxerxes, Nehemiah a Jew, one of his cupbearers, being made governor of Judea, obtains leave to build the walls of Jerusalem, and finish that great work. Here begin Daniel's 70 weeks to be fulfilled before the passion of our Saviour.

Nehemiah, having governed Judea 12 years, returns to the king of Persia.

This year is the 21st Jubile, the last that ever the prophets of the Old Testament saw; for that place in Nehemiah, Chap. XII. 22. is not to be understood of the last Darius, but of Darius Nothus, who now reigns in Persia; the full history of Nehemiah ending with the time of Artaxerxes Longimanus, father of this Darius Nothus.

Hitherto (saith Eusebius in his Chronicle, to the 32d year of Artaxerxes) the Divine Scriptures of the Hebrews contain the annals of the times. But those things which were done among them afterwards we must deliver out of the books of the Maccabees, and out of the writings of Josephus, who have delivered a general history of the Jewish affairs from thence down to the times of the Romans.

That Malachi, the last of the prophets, was contemporary with Nehemiah, appears from hence, That he no where exhorts the people to the building of the temple, as Haggai and Zachary did; but, the temple being now built, he reproves those disorders, which Nehemiah at his second return with a new commission from Babylon saith he found in his absence to have crept in among the Jews; as marriage with strange women, withholding of tithes, and abuses in the worship of God. And because a succession of prophets was not to be expected, as before, he exhorteth the people constantly to adhere to the law of Moses, till Christ the chief Prophet should appear; whose forerunner John the Baptist should come in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers unto their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. See 1 Mac. IV. 46. and IX. 17.

Alexander the Great, king of Macedonia, passeth out of Europe into Asia, and begins to lay waste the Persian empire.

Manasses, brother to Jaddus the high priest, refusing to put away his strange wife, is driven from the sacrifice: Sanaballath his father in law, governor of Samaria, revolteth from Darius, obtains leave of Alexander to build a temple on mount Gerizim, and makes Manasses high priest thereof: to which resort all such as are entangled in unlawful marriage, with all such offenders as think themselves not safe at Jerusalem. This was the rise of that schismatical conventicle of the Samaritans. See John IV. 20.

Jaddus the high priest, hearing of it, putteth on his priestly ornaments, and, accompanied with the people all in white, goeth out to meet him. Alexander, seeing his habit, falls prostrate before him, saying that, whilst he was in Macedonia, a man appeared unto him in the very same habit, who invited him to come into Asia, and promised to deliver the Persian empire into his hands. After this he goes to the temple, and offers sacrifice according to the high priest's direction. They shew him the prophecy of Daniel, That a Grecian should come and destroy the Persians; whereby he is mightily confirmed in his persuasion that he himself is the man. Lastly, he bestoweth on the Jews whatever favours they desire, and departeth. The Persians are overcome, Darius slain, and Alexander remains universal monarch of the eastern world. Alexander, having reigned 6 years and 10 months, dieth; his army and dominions are divided among his captains. Antigonus makes himself governor of Asia, Seleucus of Babylon, and the bordering nations; Lyfimachus hath the Hellespont; Cassander, Macedon; and Ptolemeus, the son of Lagus, gets Egypt. Ptolemus, surnamed Soter, makes himself master of Jerusalem by a stratagem; for he enters the city upon a sabbath day under pretence of offering sacrifice; and whilst the Jews suspect nothing, but spend the day in ease and idleness, he surpriseth the city without resistance, and maketh the citizens captives. He sendeth several colonies of Jews into Egypt, and puts great confidence in them. Ptolemeus Philadelphus, son of Ptolemeus Soter, being a great favourer of learning, builds a most magnificent library at Alexandria. Demetrius Phalereus, to whom he had committed the care of procuring all sorts of books, and out of all countries, persuades him to employ 72 Jews in translating the Holy Scriptures out of the original Hebrew into the Greek tongue, which was done in the seventh year of his reign. The king also dismisseth many captive Jews, and dedicates many presents to the temple of God at Jerusalem. One Simon, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, governor of the temple, falling out with Onias the high priest, goes to Apollonius the governor of Cœlosyria, and informs him that there is a vast treasure in the temple: Apollonius acquaints king Seleucus his master with it, who presently sends his treasurer Heliodorus to Jerusalem, to bring this money away. Heliodorus entering the temple is by angels struck down in the very place, and carried from thence half dead; but by the prayers of Onias he is soon after restored to his health. Returning to Seleucus that sent him, he magnifies the holiness of the temple, and the power of God dwelling in it. Antiochus Epiphanes succeeds Seleucus in the kingdom of Syria, and reigneth 11 years, and some months. Jafon by corrupting king Antiochus obtaineth the office of high priest.	Before CHRIST 172. He endeavoureth also to abolish the worship of God, and forceth many Jews to forsake their religion. The Samaritans now disown their relation to the Jews, to whom in prosperity they pretended alliance, and consecrate the temple on mount Gerizim to Jupiter. Perseus, having made war upon the Romans, is this year overcome by them, and the kingdom of the Macedonians ends, when from Caranus it had stood 626 years. Nevertheless the reliques of the Macedonian empire, while that of the Roman was rising, did yet survive in the Ptolemies of Egypt, and the kings of Syria. King Antiochus by a public edict commands all nations that are subject unto him to observe the same way of divine worship, and laying aside their peculiar customs, to profess the same religion with the Grecians; the punishment of death being threatened unto such as shall be disobedient; and he appoints overseers over every people and nation, who shall compel them hereunto. Of the Jews many choose rather to undergo the most cruel torments, than to offer sacrifice unto idols; all which martyrdoms, with those glorious sufferings of the seven Maccabean brethren, are recorded in the two Books of Maccabees. Mattathias a priest with his five sons slay those that are sent by king Antiochus to compel them to offer abominable sacrifices, and after betake themselves to the desert. They are followed by many others, of whom a great number are stifled in their caves, because they would not defend themselves on the sabbath day. Mattathias abolisheth that superstition, and exhorts his sons to assert their privileges, and deliver their country from bondage. Mattathias dies, and Judas Maccabeus takes upon him the management of this affair. He delivers his country, and purge it from the abominations which had been committed in it. Apollonius, governor of Samaria, having raised an army among the Gentiles and Samaritans, falls upon the Jews; but is discomfited and slain by Judas Maccabeus. Seron also, governor of the lower Syria, musters up all the forces under his command, and invades Judea; him Judas Maccabeus encounters, slays 800 of his men on the place, and puts the rest to flight. Judas Maccabeus defeats a great army, which Antiochus sent against the Jews. Lyfias returns with a greater power; Judas kills 5000 of his men, and causeth him to retreat. He purifieth the temple, and setteth it in order, after it had lain desolate three years; and buildeth a wall about Sion.

Demetrius Soter, the fon of Seleucus, efcape from Rome, and comes into Syria, where he caufeth himfelf to be crowned king, and putteth to death Antiochus and Lyfias. Demetrius, at the inftance of Alcimus, fends Nicanor with a great army againft Judas Maccabeus, whom he endeavours to furprize. They join battle, and Nicanor is flain. Here ends the continued hiftory of the fecond book of Maccabees, being an abftract and breviary of the five books of Jafon, a Jew of Cyrené. King Demetrius fends Bacchides with a new army, confifting of 20,000 men, againft Judas Maccabeus; Judas, having with him but 800 men, ventures to engage him; and is flain. His brother Jonathan is chofen general in his ftead. Jonathan enters into an alliance with the Romans. Jofephus obferves, that this was the firft league that ever was known to be between the Romans and the Jews. Whilft Alcimus commands the wall of the inner court of the temple to be pulled down, God ftrikes him fuddenly with a palfy, fo that without fpeaking a word he dies in great torment. Jonathan, having wearied Bacchides by war, compelleth him to make a league, and draw off his army. Alexander Balas, the fon of king Antiochus Epiphanes, enters with an army into Syria: the garrifon of Ptolemais fet open their gates to him, by reafon of their hatred to king Demetrius; who prepares himfelf for war. Demetrius defireth an alliance with Jonathan, who makes ufe of this occafion to repair the fortifications of Jerufalem. Alexander Balas is no lefs careful to obtain the friendfhip of Jonathan, and, to oblige him, confers on him the high priefthood. - Demetrius Nicanor, eldeft fon of Demetrius Soter, enters into Cilicia with an army. King Alexander Balas gives the command of Syria to Apollonius, who fets upon Jonathan the high prieft; Jonathan defeats him, and takes Jofpe and Azotus, and burns the temple of Dagon. Ptolemeus Philometor, king of Egypt, comes to the relief of king Alexander his fon in law; Alexander ungratefully fets Ammonius to lie in ambufh to kill him. The treachery being difcovered, Ptolemeus takes away his daughter from Alexander, and marrieth her to Demetrius. Alexander having been driven from Antioch, the inhabitants of that place make offer of the kingdom to Ptolemeus; but he refuseth it, and perfuadeth them to accept of Demetrius for their king. Alexander returns with a great army. Ptolemeus and Demetrius unite their forces, and overcome him in a pitched battle; but Ptolemeus dies of the wounds which he received, after he had feen the head of Alexander fent to him by Zabdiel an Arabian prince. Jonathan befiegeth the citadel at Jerufalem, held by a garrifon of Macedonians. Complaint hereof being made to Demetrius, Jonathan appeafeth him by prefents, and obtaineth new favours for the Jews. Demetrius incurreth the hatred of his fouldiers by abridging their pay in time of peace. Tryphon, with fome fouldiers that revolted from Demetrius, undertakes to eftablifh Antiochus, the fon of Alexander Balas, in the kingdom of Syria. Demetrius is vanquifhed by young Antiochus, and made to fly into Seleucia. Great honours are by Antiochus conferred on Jonathan, who affifts him againft Demetrius. Jonathan renews his alliance with the Romans and Lacedemonians, and fortifies Jerufalem. Tryphon contrives how he may quit himfelf of Antiochus, and reign in his ftead; but fearing Jonathan's oppofition, he invites him to come to Ptolemais, and bring with him fome few of his fouldiers, promifing to deliver that city into his hands. Jonathan, fufpecting no treachery, comes only with 1000 men to Tryphon at Ptolemais; but as foon as he is entered the city, Tryphon commands the gates to be fhut. Jonathan is taken prifoner, and all his men put to the fword. The Jews hereupon make choice of Simon Maccabeus for their general in the place of his brother Jonathan. Tryphon leads an army againft Simon. He promifeth for 100 talents of filver to releafe Jonathan; the money being paid him, he breaks his promife, and puts Jonathan to death. Simon erects a ftately monument for his father and his brethren. Tryphon murders the young king Antiochus, and puts the crown on his own head. The Romans and Lacedemonians renew their leagues with Simon, and write them in tables of brafs. Simon has the government and high prieft-hood fettled on him and his heirs: the Jews are by his means difcharged from all manner of tribute to any foreign prince. He takes Sion the fortrefs of Jerufalem, drives out of the city all idolaters, clears the houfes

Tryphon's vices render him so odious to his soldiers, that they submit themselves to Cleopatra, Demetrius's reliſt. She marrieth Antiochus Soter, Demetrius's brother, and cauſeth him to be crowned king. Antiochus drives Tryphon out of Syria, beſiegeth him in Dora, whence he flies to Apamea, where he is taken and ſlain.	Before CHRIST 18. The Ro- manEm- pire. 6. Christ payeth tribute to Cæsar.

A certain village of the Samaritans refus-eth our Saviour entertainment in his way to Jerusalem: the disciples, desiring to call for fire from heaven to consume them, are severely reprehended.

The seventy disciples are sent out by two and two to work miracles, and to preach.

Christ teacheth his disciples to pray.

Christ raiseth Lazarus, that had been buried four days.

Caiphias, high priest of the Jews, prophesieth concerning the death of Christ.

Zaccheus a publican converted.

Christ restoreth to blind Bartimeus his sight.

Mary the sister of Lazarus anoints our Saviour's feet with costly spikenard, and wip-

Christ rideth in triumph into Jerusalem; the multitude spread their garments in the way, and cry, Hosanna to the son of David. Coming near the city, he weeps over it, and foretells it's destruction. He enters the temple, and casteth out those that bought and sold there; and heals the blind and lame.

He curseth the fruitless fig tree, and the next morning it is found dried up and with-the power of faith.

great expiation. The fourth or middle year of Daniel's last week begins, Dan. IX. 27.*

ON the first day of unleavened bread,
XXVI. when the passover of the Jews was to Mark be slain (April 2.) in the evening, Jesus eat-XIV. eth the passover with his disciples, and in-Luke stitutes the Sacrament of his Body and Blood
XXII. in Bread and Wine.

Christ washeth his disciples' feet, and exhorteth them to humility and charity.

In the selfsame night Christ is betrayed by Judas, mocked, buffeted, and spit upon, by the soldiers.

Next day he is condemned by Pilate, and crucified; the sun during the crucifixion is darkened, and the veil of the temple rent in the midst. Christ praying for his enemies gives up the ghost. Joseph of Arimathea begs the body, and lays it in a new sepulchre.

On the third day, the next after the Jewish Sabbath, (April 5.) Christ riseth from the dead; his Resurrection is declared by angels to the women that came to the sepulchre. Christ first appeareth to Mary Magdalene, and afterward to his disciples, and dineth with them.

Christ bringeth his Apostles to mount Olivet; commandeth them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Ghost:
sends them to teach and baptize all nations, and blesses them; and while they behold, he is taken up, and a cloud receives him out of their sight. After his Ascension the disciples are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their minds upon his second coming; they accordingly return, and, giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias to be an Apostle in the place of Judas.

On the day of Pentecost (May 24.) the Holy Ghost descendeth on the Apostles in the form of cloven tongues, like as of fire; and enableth them to speak all languages. Peter the same day preacheth Christ and the resurrection, and about 3000 believers are added to the Church.

Peter by faith in Christ's Name healeth a lame man.

The rulers of the Jews, offended at Peter's sermon, and his miraculous cure of the lame man, cast both him and John into prison; upon their examination they boldly avouch the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus we must be eternally saved. After this the Jews forbid them to speak any more in that Name; but the apostles answer, That it is fit they should obey God rather than men. They are threatened, and let go.

Ananias and his wife Sapphira for their hypocrisy are suddenly struck dead.

The apostles are again cast into prison by the high priest; but an angel sets them at liberty, and bids them preach the Gospel to the people without fear; being taken again teaching in the temple, they are brought before the council; where by the advice of Gamaliel, a Pharisee, and doctor of the law, they are delivered.

The number of believers increasing at Jerusalem, the apostles ordain seven deacons, who should distribute the alms of the whole Church to the widows and poorer sort of believers. Stephen, one of these deacons, having confounded some that disputed with him, is by them falsely accused of blasphemy, and brought before the council, where he reprehends their rebellion, and murdering of Christ. Whereupon they cast him out of the city, and stone him; he in the mean time praying for them.

A great persecution of the Church at Jerusalem follows after the death of the first martyr Stephen.

Philip, one of the 7 deacons, preacheth at Samaria, and converteth many; worketh miracles, and healeth the sick. Simon the forcerer, seeing the wonders that are done by Philip, believeth, and is baptized.

The apostles at Jerusalem, hearing that Samaria had received the faith, send thither Peter and John to confirm and enlarge the Church. The apostles by prayer and imposition of hands confer the Holy Ghost on all believers. Simon Magus offers them money, that he may receive power of conferring the same, whose impiety is sharply reproved by Peter. Having completed their ministry in those parts, they return to Jerusalem.

An Angel sendeth Philip to teach and baptize the Ethiopian eunuch.

Saul, a violent persecutor of all that call on the Name of Jesus, and one who consented to the death of Stephen, goes now towards Damascus with commission from the high priest and the council to apprehend all Christians in those parts, and to bring them bound to Jerusalem; on the way he is miraculously converted by a voice from heaven; and three days after baptized by Ananias at Damascus, where he preacheth the Gospel of Christ with great boldness, to the astonishment of those that knew upon what design he was sent thither.

mascus a long time, the Jews lay wait to kill him, but he escapeth from thence, and comes to Jerusalem; there he sees Peter, and James the brother of our Lord, and abides with them fifteen days. Here he speaks boldly in the Name of Jesus, and disputes with the Grecians, or rather Jews that used the Greek tongue. These also consult how they may kill him.

While Saul prays in the temple, he is in a trance, and the Lord appears unto him, and bids him to depart from Jerusalem, because they will not receive his testimony; adding, that he will fend him to the Gentiles.

Saul leaving Jerusalem goes to his own country Tarsus, and from thence travels into Syria and Cilicia.

Peter visits the churches of Judea, Galilee, Samaria, &c. At Lydda he cureth Eneas of the palsy; and at Joppa restoreth Tabitha to life.

At Cæsarea Cornelius a Centurion by prayers and alms finds favour in the sight of God, and is commanded by an Angel to send for Peter, now at Joppa. God by a vision teacheth Peter not to despise the Gentiles. Peter, being sent for by Cornelius, goes and preacheth Christ to him and a great company that were met at his house: while Peter preacheth, the Holy Ghost falls upon them all; and immediately the Apostle baptizeth them.

Peter at his return to Jerusalem is accused by those of the circumcision for conversing with the Gentiles; but he declares to them his vision, and the whole matter concerning Cornelius; and they glorify God for granting to the Gentiles also repentance unto life.

The believers, who ever since the martyrdom of Stephen, and the persecution thereupon ensuing, had been dispersed throughout all Phenice and Cyprus, come now to Antioch, and preach the Gospel to the Greeks there, having before preached to none but the Jews. The Church at Jerusalem understanding this, and that the number of believers increased exceedingly, sends Barnabas thither to confirm them; he goes to Tarsus, and takes Saul along with him to Antioch, where they continue a whole year, converting multitudes to the faith. Here the disciples were first called Christians.

About this time James the brother of John is beheaded by the command of Herod Agrippa. He also imprisoneth Peter, whom an angel delivers upon the prayers of the church. This same Herod not long after speaking to the people at Cæsarea, some of them cry out, It is the voice of God, and not of man: and immediately an angel of the Lord smites him, because he gave not the glory to God; and he is eaten of worms, and dieth.

Barnabas and Saul set forward in their preaching of the Gospel. They plant the Christian faith in Seleucia, Cyprus, and other places. At Paphos they preach the Gospel to Sergius Paulus, governor of that country: Elymas a forcerer withstanding them, and endeavouring to turn away Sergius from the faith, is at Saul's rebuke struck blind. From this time Saul is always called by his new name Paul; he preacheth at Antioch; the Gentiles believe, but the Jews gainfay and blaspheme. Whereupon he and his assistants turn to the Gentiles, and come to Iconium.

At Iconium they are persecuted and ready to be stoned. From hence they fly to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia. At Lystra Paul healing a cripple, the multitude cry out, that the gods are come down, and call Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius; and would have sacrificed to them, had not the apostles with clothes rent run in among them, and assured them that they were men like themselves. Soon after there come Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who excite the people against them. Paul is by the furious multitude stoned, and drawn out of the city as dead; but whilst the disciples stand about him, he riseth up, and the next day departs with Barnabas to Derbe.

In this year, perhaps at this very time, Paul was caught up into the third heaven, and heard unspeakable words, fourteen years before he wrote his second epistle to the Corinthians.

About this time Timothy, though a child, with his mother Eunice, and his grandmother Lois, embrace the Christian faith, preached by Paul.

Certain Judaizing Christians come from Judea to Antioch, and teach that the Gentiles ought to be circumcised, and observe the law of Moses; these Paul and Barnabas oppose, and a council is held by the apostles and others at Jerusalem, to determine this controversy. The decrees of the synod are sent to the churches.

Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the churches together, fall at strife, and part asunder; Barnabas and Mark go into Cyprus; Paul and Silas into Syria and Cilicia.

Paul coming to Derbe finds there Timothy, whom (because his mother was a believing Jew, though his father a Gentile) he causeth to be circumcised, and takes him along with him. He is by a vision admonished to go into Macedonia; coming to Philippi, the chief city of that part of Macedonia, he converts Lydia; casteth out of a certain maid servant a spirit of divination, whose master, losing a considerable gain thereby, brings Paul and Silas before the magistrates; these cause them to be whipped and imprisoned; but at midnight, Paul and Silas praying and singing psalms, the doors of the prison fly open, and their bonds are loosed: the jailor, ready to kill himself, is converted to the faith, and baptised the same night with his whole family. Next day the magistrates come themselves, and pray them to depart the city.

From Philippi Paul takes his journey through Amphipolis and Appolonia, and comes to Thessalonica, where he finds a synagogue of the Jews; there he preacheth three sabbath days; some believe, others persecute him. Leaving Thessalonica, he comes to Berea, and soon after arrives at Athens, disputes with the philosophers, and declares unto them that UNKNOWN GOD, whom they had ignorantly worshipped. He converts Dionysius the Areopagite, and thence passeth to Corinth.

Paul at Corinth meets with Aquila and Priscilla, not long before banished Rome by the decree of Claudius. Here he continues a year and six months, and thence writes to the Thessalonians.

Paul is accused by the Jews, and brought before Gallio, praefect of Achaia, who refuseth to be judge in a controversy about religion, and so drives them away from the judgment seat.

Paul departs from Corinth, and passeth to Ephesus, thence he sets out toward Jerusalem, that he may be at the feast; he lands at Cesarea, goes down to Antioch, and comes into the regions of Galatia and Phrygia, confirming the disciples in all those places.

Paul returns to Ephesus, disputes daily in the school of Tyrannus, and continues preaching there, and the parts thereabouts.

He writes his epistle to the Galatians.

At Ephesus Demetrius a silversmith, jealous of his gain, raiseth a tumult against Paul, which is appeased by the townclerk.

About this time a schism ariseth in the Church of Corinth, which causeth Paul (now in or about Ephesus) to write his first epistle to the Corinthians.

Paul departs from Ephesus, and comes into Macedonia, and gathers a contribution for the relief of the saints at Jerusalem.

The apostle, having learnt from Titus the success of his first, writes now his second epistle to the Corinthians; out of Macedonia he goes into Greece, and comes to Corinth, where he writes his epistle to the Romans.

Paul purposing to go directly from thence into Syria, that he may carry the collections to Jerusalem, the Jews lay wait for him; he understanding this thinks it best to return into Macedonia the same way he came, and thence to pass into Asia.

After the days of unleavened bread Paul sails from Philippi, and comes to Troas; there he restores Eutychus to life. Having passed through several cities of Greece, he arrives at Miletus; from thence he sends to call the elders of the Church of Ephesus, whom he earnestly exhorts to the performance of their duty.

Paul comes to Jerusalem, is apprehended in the temple, and secured in the castle; he claimeth the privilege of a Roman, and escapeth scourging.

Paul pleadeth his cause before Ananias the high priest. The chief captain, understanding that above forty Jews had bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor drink till they had killed him, sends him to Felix the governor of the province, by whom he is imprisoned at Cesarea.

Paul is accused before Felix by Tertullius the orator; Felix goes out of his office, and, to gratify the Jews, leaves Paul in prison. Porcius Festus succeeds him in the government.

The Jews come to Cesarea, and accuse Paul before Festus. He answereth for himself, and appeals unto Cesar. King Agrippa comes to Cesarea, and Festus opens the whole matter to him.

Paul makes his defence in the presence of Agrippa; who thereby is almost persuaded to be a Christian, and the whole company pronounce him innocent.

After CHRIST 63. The Ro- man Em- pire.	Acts XXVIII.	Paul comes to Rome, is a prisoner at large, and preacheth there two years.  Here ends the History of the Acts of the Apostles, written by St. Luke, St. Paul's beloved com- panion in his travels.	After CHRIST 66. The Ro- man Em- pire.	To Titus. To Timothy II.
62.		Saint Paul from Rome writes his epistles, To the Philippians. To Philemon. To the Colossians. To the Ephesians.	67. Hist. Ec. 1, 2. ch. 24.	About this time the epistles of St. Peter, St. John, and St. Jude, seem to be written. St. Peter and St. Paul are said to have suffered martyrdom at Rome towards the latter end of Nero's reign.
65.	Hebr. XIII. 24.	About the latter end of this year St. Paul is set at liberty; and a little before his de- parture out of Italy into Asia he writes his epistle to the Hebrews.	70. Luke XIX. 43, 44.	This year Jerusalem (according to Christ's prophecy) is besieged, taken, sacked, and burnt, by Titus, 1,100,000 of the Jews pe- rish, 97,000 are taken prisoners; beside an innumerable company that in other places of Judea kill themselves, or perish through famine, banishment, or other miseries.
	Tit. I. 5.	He preacheth the Gospel in the isle of Crete, and leaves Titus there to set things in order, and ordain elders in every city.	96.	St. John is banished into the isle of Pat- mos by Domitian, and there receives and writes his Revelation.
66.		Sr. Paul writes his epistles, To Timothy I.		After the death of Domitian St. John returns to Ephesus, and at the request of the Church writes his Gospel.

A TABLE of Offices and Conditions of Men.

Patriarchs, or Fathers of Families, such as Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and his sons.

Judges, Temporary Supreme Governors, immediately appointed by God over the children of Israel.

Kings, And they either of the whole nation, or after the falling off of the ten tribes, of Judah or Israel.

Elders, Senators the LXX, or Sanhedrin.

Officers, Provosts, Sheriffs, or Executioners.

Judges, Inferior Rulers, such as determine controversies in particular cities.

Israelites, Hebrews, descendants from Jacob.

An Hebrew of Hebrews, an Israelite by original extraction.

A Proselyte of the Covenant, who was circumcised, and submitted to the whole Law.

A Proselyte of the Gate, or Stranger who worshipped one God, but remained uncircumcised.

Officers under the Assyrian or Persian Monarchs.

Tirshatha, or Governor appointed by the kings of Assyria or Persia.

Heads of the captivity, The chief of each tribe or family, who exercised a precarious Government during the captivity.

Under the Grecian Monarchs.

Superior Officers.

Maccabees, the Successors of Judas Maccabeus, high priests, who presided with kingly power.

Under the Roman Emperors.

Presidents, or Governors, sent from Rome with Imperial power.

Tetrachs, who had kingly power in four Provinces.

Proconsuls, or Deputies of Provinces.

Inferior Officers.

Publicans, or Taxgatherers.

Centurions, Captains of an hundred men.

Ecclesiastical Officers, or Sects of Men.

High priests, who only might enter the Holy of Holies.

Second Priests, or Sagan, who supplied the high priest's Office, in case he were disabled.

High priests for the War, set apart for the occasion of an expedition.

Priests, Levites of the Sons of Aaron, divided into twenty four ranks, each rank serving weekly in the temple.

Levites, of the tribe of Levi, but not of Aaron's family; of these were three orders, Gerzonites, Kohathites, Merarites, several sons of Levi.

Nethenims, Inferior servants to the Priests and Levites (not of their tribe) to draw water, and cleave wood, &c.

Prophets, anciently called Seers, who foretold future events, and denounced God's Judgments.

Children of the Prophets, their disciples or scholars.

Wise men, called so in imitation of the eastern Magi, or Gentile Philosophers.

Scribes, Writers and expounders of the law.

Disputers, that raised and determined questions out of the law.

Rabbies or Doctors, Teachers of Israel.

Libertines, Freed men of Rome, who, being Jews or Proselytes, had a synagogue or oratory for themselves.

Gaulonites, or Galileans, who pretended it unlawful to obey an heathen magistrate.

Herodians, who shaped their religion to the times, and particularly flattered Herod.

Epicureans, who placed all happiness in pleasure.

Stoicks, who denied the liberty of the Will, and pretended all events were determined by fatal necessity.

Simon Magus, author of the heresy of the Gnosticks, who taught that men, however vicious their practice was, should be saved by their knowledge.

Nicolaitans, the disciples of Nicolas one of the first seven Deacons, who taught the community of wives.

Nazarites, who under a vow abstained from wine, &c.

Nazarens, Jews professing Christianity.

Zelots, Sicarii, or Murderers, who, under pretence of the law, thought themselves authorized to commit any outrage.

Pharisees, Separatists, who upon the opinion of their own godliness despised all others.

Sadducees, who denied the resurrection of the dead, angels, and spirits.

Samaritans, mongrel professors, partly Heathen, and partly Jews, the offspring of the Assyrians sent to Samaria.

Apostles, Missionaries, or persons sent; they who were sent by our Saviour from their number were called, The Twelve.

Bishops, successors of the Apostles in the government of the church.

Deacons, officers chosen by the Apostles to take care of the poor.

TABLES of SCRIPTURE MEASURES, WEIGHTS, and COINS:

With an APPENDIX,

Containing the Method of Calculating its MEASURES of SURFACE, hitherto wanting in Treatises on this Subject. By the Right Reverend Richard Lord Bishop of Peterborough.

A Measure is a known quantity applied to another of the same kind that is less known, to make its Dimensions better known, by help of numbers expressing the proportion that the known quantity bears to the unknown. The dimensions to be measured are three: 1. Mere length, which hath but one dimension. 2. Surface, which consists of length multiplied into breadth; so it hath two dimensions, as it were interwoven; and this is always measured by some square surface already known, as by a square foot, or a square cubit, or any other square already known, by help of its side. Moses generally useth the square cubit. 3. Solidity, or Capacity, which hath three dimensions multiplied into each other: length, breadth, and height, or depth. This is measured by a known cube. From solidity ariseth weight in all sublunary bodies; and by weight we measure the value of coins. Therefore I shall join weights and coins together in the fourth table.

I. TABLE. Measures of Length.

I express the Cubit, and its Parts, both by Inch Measure and by Foot Measure; which I deduce from Inches by this Proportion:

Scripture Measures, Weights, and Coins.

Herodotus mentions a Schoenus just 300 times as long: I judge that all the greater were made in proportion to the least.
 The Mile, — — — = 4000 Cubits = 7296 Feet.
 Stadium,  $\frac{1}{3}$  of their Mile — — = 400 Cubits = 729  $\frac{1}{2}$  English Miles, 3 of their Miles = 1200 Cubits = 4 English Miles, and 580 Feet.

II. TABLE. Measures of Surface.

Moses hath described these by square Cubits. I here express them reduced to our square Feet. The method of this reduction is taught in an Appendix. I first propose three clear examples given by Moses: Secondly, I place six instances of greater difficulty.

The clearest examples are.

I. The altar of Incense. Only two sides of it, viz. its length and breadth are express'd by Moses; each of them is affirm'd to be one cubit. Yet he declares it was four square; whence we collect, that it was just one square Cubit. See Exod. XXX. 2. Now it is demonstrat'd in the appendix, that one Jewish square Cubit amounts to in surface three English square Feet, and about 47 square Inches.

II. The Table of Shewbread. Exod. XXV. 23. It is affirm'd to be two Cubits in length, and one in breadth. None doubt but it was rectangular, containing two Jewish square Cubits. These amount to above six English square Feet, and above half, viz. 94 square Inches.

III. The Boards of the Tabernacle, each 10 Cubits in length, and one and an half in breadth, Exod. XXVI. 16. being rectangular, must contain 15 square Cubits, Jewish. These are prov'd to contain very near 50 square Feet of English Measure.

The more difficult cases reserved to the Appendix are,

I. The Mercy seat, whose surface is = 12 square Feet and  $\frac{1}{2}$ .

II. A general method is taught of reducing any given number of Jewish Cubits to English square Feet.

III. The example of the 15 square Cubits in the Boards of the Tabernacle is made clearer.

IV. The Court of the Tabernacle, described Exod. XXVII. 18. is found to be just half the Egyptian Aoura, and to contain 1 Rood, 21 Perches, 27 square Feet, &c.

V. The whole Aoura is determined, and reduced to our English Measures, 3 Roods, 2 Perches, 55 square Feet.

VI. The suburbs, or Glebe Land, given to each city of the Levites, Numb. XXXV. 3, 4, 5. is shew'd to be a Square, on each of the four sides of every city, containing a million of Jewish square cubits, or 100 Aouras; which amount to in each Square 76 Acres, 1 Rood, 20 Perches, 80 square Feet. Whence we collect, that all the four Squares amounted to 305 Acres, 2 Roods, 1 Perch, beside 51 Feet square.

III. TABLE. Measures of Capacity.

An APPENDIX to the Second Table of Measures of Surface described by Moses, shewing the Method of reducing them by Calculation to the Measures used in England, for the benefit of those that understand Decimal Arithmetick, and desire to try the Reduction given in the Table, or to make further Improvements in this kind of Measures.

I The Mercy seat, which was God's Throne of Grace among the Jews. Moses in Exod. XXV. 17. affirms, that its length was two Cubits and an half, its breadth one Cubit and an half. The fractions adhering to its length and breadth make some difficulty to beginners in Arithmetick, which the Decimal way doth much abate. Supposing therefore, what I have elsewhere prov'd, that the Jewish Cubit was in Foot measure 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  824; the length must be express'd in Foot measure, and Decimals thereof, 4  $\frac{1}{2}$  560. The breadth in like measure will be 2  $\frac{1}{2}$  736. Wherefore the product of these numbers multiplied into each other gives its surface 12  $\frac{1}{2}$  47,616: in number of its square Feet, and Decimals thereof, 12 square Feet, and very near half a square Foot; if the Decimals had been  $\frac{1}{2}$  50, it had been just half a Foot. If we desire to express those Decimals of a Foot in square Inches, as is usual in England, we must multiply 4  $\frac{1}{2}$  7,616 by 144, the square Inches of a Foot, and the product will be 68  $\frac{1}{2}$  56,704; which shews that the Decimals we found amount to 68 square Inches, and about half an Inch more: we need not be nicer.

2. A square Cubit reduced to our measure. 2. In the Altar of Incense Moses describes the Jewish square Cubit, which must be reduced to our Foot measure, thus,  $\frac{1}{2}$  824: The product of these numbers multiplied will be the upper surface of this Altar, 3  $\frac{1}{2}$  326,976, that is, three square Feet, and 326,976 Decimals of a square Foot, which we may express by 47 square Inches, and a few Decimals of an Inch square inconsiderable.

3. The Boards of the Tabernacle. 3. Moses's description of the Boards of the Tabernacle, Exod. XXVI. 16. by 10 Cubits in length, and one and an half in breadth, naturally leads a man to discern in each board's surface 15 Jewish square Cubits; because if we conceive a line drawn from the end of one Cubit at the bottom of the Board to the end of one Cubit at the top of the Board, this must needs be 10 whole square Cubits on one side of that line, and 10 half square Cubits (= 5 whole) on the other side of that line: here therefore are 15 square Cubits. The reduction of these into English square Feet is performed by multiplying 15, viz. the number of Cubits given into 3  $\frac{1}{2}$  326,976, the Feet and Decimals of one square Cubit, and the product will be 49  $\frac{1}{2}$  90,464, and that is very near to 50 square Feet; for those Decimals amount to above 130 square Inches; and little more than 13 square Inches would make it just 50 Feet, which abatement we need not here regard.

4. Let us now go to the measure of the surface of land. But we will begin with the Court of the Tabernacle, the ground on which the Priests performed all the solemn publick worship of Israel in Moses's time. The Area of this Court is described by Moses, Exod. XXVII. 18. by its length 100 Cubits, and its breadth every where 50 Cubits. Wherefore this Area must be in Jewish measure 5000 square Cubits, for that is the product of 100 multiplied into 50. To reduce these 5000 Jewish Cubits into English square Feet, I must multiply 5000 into  $3\frac{1}{2}326,976$ , the product is  $16,634\frac{1}{2}88$  English square Feet.

But in cases of such long numbers of Feet we use for brevity's sake, and to help our memories, to reduce them into Perches, or Roods, or Acres, which contain known numbers of square Feet. A Perch contains 272 square Feet and  $\frac{1}{4}$ . A Rood is  $\equiv$  to 10,890 square Feet. An Acre is  $\equiv$  to 43,560 square Feet. It is plain that the number  $16,634\frac{1}{2}88$  hath not integers equal to those of an Acre; but it hath enough to answer those in a Rood, and some overplus; therefore I must divide  $16,634\frac{1}{2}88$  by 10,890, which is a Rood. By such division continued in the Decimal way, until I have a fraction of five or six places, which is exact enough, I find the quote to be  $1\frac{1}{2}527,537$ , which assures me that my number  $16,634\frac{1}{2}88$  hath but once entirely in it a whole Rood; but it hath moreover in it many Decimal parts of a Rood. These therefore I reduce to the Perches contained in them, by multiplying them into 40, which is the number of Perches that make up a Rood: and cutting off six places from the product, which is  $21\frac{1}{2}101,480$ ; so I find there are 21 Perches intire, and the figures after the Separatrix are Decimals of a Perch. These also I multiply by  $272\frac{1}{2}25$ , which are the square Feet and Decimals of a Perch. The product of this last multiplication, after eight places cut off from it by the Separatrix, because there were six places of Decimals in one of the multipliers, and two in the other, is  $27\frac{1}{2}62,793,000$ . Hence I learn that there are therein but 27 intire Feet; all the eight Decimal places amount to little above half a Foot, and therefore I cast them away as inconsiderable in the measure of land. This method of reduction by multiplication of Decimals I find to be easier than the common way of reduction by division, and therefore I propose it to be used by beginners in this practice of surveying. So I find this court to contain in English measure 1 Rood, 21 Perches, 27 Feet, and little more than half a Foot squared. But reflecting upon Moses's measure by Cubits, and finding them to be precisely 5000 square Cubits, I observed that they were just half 10,000, which I had observed from Herodotus's Euterpe to be the Area of the Egyptian Aroura, by which their land was as generally measured, as our's is by Acres and Roods. See Herodot. l. 2. c. 168. I called also to mind a passage in Manetho an Egyptian Priest, cited by Josephus in his first book against Apion, where he affirms, that Manetho in his history of the reign, wars, and expulsion, of the Pastors (whom Africanus affirms to be Phœnicians, or Canaanites, and Josephus vainly believed to be Jews,) wrote out of the publick Records of Egypt, that these Pastors made at Abaris a very large and strong encampment, that encompassed 10,000 Aroura, sufficient to contain 240,000 men, and long to maintain their cattle. Hence it appears, that not only the Egyptians, but the Phœnicians or Canaanites also, that had dwelt among them, and had reigned there during the time of six kings successively, used this measure of land called Aroura. Now this was long before Moses's time; for the beginning of Amosis or Tethmosis, who expelled them out of Egypt, was very near the time of Abraham's death, as appears by the annals of the learned Primate of Ireland. Wherefore I believe that Moses, who was skilled in all Egyptian learning, especially surveying, did of choice make the Court of the Tabernacle to be just half an Aroura, which was a known measure to him and his people, who had long dwelt in Egypt, and Divine Authority directed him so to do.

5. Because we have shewn from Herodotus, that an Aroura is the square of 100 Jewish or Egyptian Cubits, and 100 such Cubits may in English Foot measure be expressed by  $182\frac{1}{2}4$  English Feet, it follows, that the square of this number will express exactly the number of the English square Feet that are contained in an Aroura. Now by multiplication of  $182\frac{1}{2}4$  into itself, I find the product to be  $33,269\frac{1}{2}76$ : Therefore I conclude that there are  $33,269$  square Feet intire, and  $\frac{1}{2}76$  Decimals of a square Foot, in an Aroura. Now to reduce these English square Feet into Roods, Perches, and the Remainder of square Feet, I use the method used in the last paragraph: First I divide them by 10,890, the square Feet in a Rood; and the quote I find  $3\frac{1}{2}055,074$ , that is 3 Roods, and  $\frac{1}{2}055,074$  Decimals of a Rood. Secondly, I multiply those Decimals by 40, which is the number of Perches in a Rood, the product is  $2\frac{1}{2}202,960$ . Hence I conclude there are therein two Perches, and  $\frac{1}{2}202,960$  Decimals of a Perch. Thirdly, I multiply these last Decimals by  $272\frac{1}{2}25$ , which are the square Feet of a Perch. The product is  $55\frac{1}{2}25,586,000$ , that is 55 intire square Feet: the eight places of Decimals amount to little above  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a square Foot, therefore I reject them as inconsiderable in measure of land. By all these reductions it is found, that an Aroura is in English measure three Roods, two Perches,  $55\frac{1}{2}$  square Feet. Hence it follows also, that it is not well translated by Jugeram, for it is much larger; nor is it well in English called an Acre, for it is considerably less. To this place I refer the use of the lesser sort of  $\sigma\chi\alpha\iota\sigma$ , which yet is most convenient for the use of the Egyptians, and of the Jews, to measure out private men's inheritances by a line which was 80 Cubits long. For the length of this line will measure one side of an Aroura, if the other side be 125 Cubits long, which is the length of this line, and its half, and 5 Cubits above half of it, which they might easily mark in it by a knot or a ring. And by this means they might easily lay any number of Aroura together, all of them rectangular and parallel to each other. Such lines I suppose for measure of inheritances are intimated. Psal. LXXVIII. 55. and XVI. 6, &c.

6. I shall conclude with an example amounting after reduction to a number of English Acres, which measure we have not yet reached to. This I take from Numb. XXXV. 3, 4, 5, verses. There Moses describes what measure of land the Levites were to be allowed for their cattle, their goods, and all their beasts, on the north, east, south, and west, sides of each of their cities. So that the city was to be in the midst of the land belonging to it. This land in our translation is called suburbs, because of its nearness to all their cities. But we must not thence imagine that it means houses and streets adjoining to their cities, in which sense we sometimes use the word suburbs. For Moses plainly tells us they were places for their several sorts of cattle to feed in, such as might also be orchards or gardens for fruits, or perhaps for a little corn, comprehended in the word, their Goods. These fields he limits by 1000 Cubits, which was just a quarter of an eastern mile, but amounts in mere length to 608 yards English measure, and therefore exceeds a quarter of an English mile by 168 yards in length. But it is certain that cattle cannot feed upon mere length, but this must signify the side of some surface of land bounded thereby, and we must have two sides of that surface given, before we can find the Area, or surface contained. Therefore Moses, ver. 5. tells us, that on each side of each city they must measure 2000 Cubits, which will determine no surface, unless we understand it to mean the two sides of a square, bounded on every side by 1000 Cubits; these two sides multiplied into each other will produce a square that contains just a million of square Cubits, and that is a known and exact measure of just 100 Aroura: and this shews that the 2000 Cubits mentioned ver. 5. are the two sides of that square, whereof the 1000 mentioned ver. 4. is one, and may be called the root of the square. This shews the agreement of the two different numbers. The reduction of this million of square Cubits will be performed by the same method that I have used before. Therefore, first, I express 1000 Jewish by  $182\frac{1}{2}4$  English Feet, without any Separatrix, according to the principles owned in Decimal Arithmetick; and the square of that number will be  $3,326,976$ , without a Separatrix. Secondly, I divide this number by  $43,560$ , which are the square feet of an Acre, and find the quote to be  $76\frac{1}{2}376,859$ , which signify 76 intire Acres, and  $\frac{1}{2}376,859$  Decimals of an Acre. Thirdly, to find what Roods are contained in these Decimals, I must ply them by four, the number of Roods in an Acre, and find the quote to be 12507,436, which proves that there is but one Rood in them, and the six figures cut off by the Separatrix (because there were six Decimals in one of the multipliers) are all Decimals of a Rood. Fourthly, therefore to find what Perches are in these last Decimals, I multiply them by 40, which is the number of Perches contained in a Rood. The product is 202297,440; hereby I find there are 20 intire Perches, besides the Decimals of a Perch placed after the Separatrix. Fifthly, to find what square Feet are in those last Decimals, I multiply them by 272225, which are the square Feet and decimals in a Perch, the Product is 80297804, which is 80 square Feet, and all the Decimals not amounting to a square Foot, I reject as inconsiderable in measure of land.

Thus we have found that this and every other square on each side of every Levitical City was prescribed to be 76 Acres, 1 Rood, 20 Perches, 80 square Feet in our measure, but was just a million of square Cubits in their measure.

To add the four squares belonging to one Levitical City together, the best way will be to take the first quote that we found in Acre measure, viz. 762376,859, and we must multiply it by four, and we shall find, by the method I have used, all the four squares together to amount to 305 Acres, 2 Roods, 1 Perch: we need not take notice of any lesser quantities in this case. We may also by this method find the sum of the Acres belonging to all the 48 cities of the Levites, and many other improvements in this kind of measuring surfaces. But I leave them to the industry of others.
